WASHINGTON.

Officers mustered out of service—Annexation—Embarrassment by Paymasters—Addressed to Bankers.

WASHINGTON, 30.—By direction of the President, the board of officers of the army, convened under section seven of the act approved July 15th, 1870, the following named officers are mustered out of service, for causes other than injuries incurred or diseases contracted in the line of their duty: Major John F. Sherburne, assistant adj. gen.; Captain Dudley Seward and 1st Lieut. Robert Carrick, 8th cavalry; 2d Lieut. Thomas G. Tracy, 9th infantry; 1st Lieut. Wm. F. Bainbridge, 3d cavalry. A commercial house in New York writes to a prominent senator: "We are advised by our agents, as well as by our Dominican correspondents, that everything is peaceful and quiet, and that the entire community with whom they are brought in contact, are unanimously in favor of and anxiously awaiting annexation. Trade between that island and New York is continually, although as yet in a small way, increasing, and by the last trip of the steamer Tyler, there were received for the first time 1000 ceros of tobacco from Samarra."

The following is just issued from the Treasury Department:
Office of the Comptroller of Currency: Division reports: Sir, in accordance with the provisions of an act of Congress, entitled an act regulating the reports of the national banking association, approved March 3rd, 1869, you are hereby notified and required to forward immediately to this office, on the latest form of blank furnished for that purpose, a report of the condition of your bank, as shown by its books at the close of business on Wednesday, the 25th day of December, 1870.
(Signed)

H. R. HULBURD, Comptroller of Currency.
The naval paymasters, Washington, Mary Lockwood and Grand, tried several weeks ago by court martial, for embezzlement of government funds, have not yet been sentenced, although the records of the court were long since placed in the hands of the Secretary of the Navy. Paymaster Mellach, whose funds were short $25,000, has not been tried, although the case was made up with the others. Paymaster Forbes Parker, who embezzled $17,000, fled the country before he could be arrested. It is understood the four officers already tried will be dismissed and severely punished by imprisonment. Grand and Lockwood, are confined at the Navy Yard, and Mary and Washington are on their personal parole, they having given themselves in custody when required by the department.

NEW YORK.

Failures.
NEW YORK, 30.—The Commercial Advertiser says Boston letters this morning leave no doubt that both Mr. Oliver Ames and Mr. Oakes Ames have failed. The failures cover Oliver Ames & Sons, Oakes Ames personally, and the Ames company for making plows, shovels, &c. Their joint liabilities are stated at seven millions. They ask an extension and claim to have a surplus of five millions.

MISSOURI.

The Removal of Settlers from Indian Reservations.
St. Louis, 30.—A dispatch from Fort Leavenworth says, at the request of General Pope, the Secretary of War has postponed the removal of the settlers from the Miami Indian reservation, in Kansas, till more favorable weather; but the troops have been ordered there to protect the Indians against the depredations of the whites. Another order has been received from Washington, directing a thorough investigation into the destruction of the government buildings at Fort Smith, and leaving discretionary with Gen. Pope, the continuance of the post, and the quartering of the troops at Little Rock or Fort Gibson.

ILLINOIS.

Commerce of Chicago.
CHICAGO, 30.—A statement of the trade and commerce of Chicago for the past year, shows receipts of produce and merchandise to the value $400,000,000. The aggregate amount of the sales of wholesale dealers is $402,500,000. The value of manufactures is nearly $89,000,000.
A fire early this morning destroyed a block of houses on South Clark St., occupied as dwellings and stores; loss $35,000. No insurance.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.
ROCHE-SUR-YONNE, 29.—From a balloon landed we have news that the Prussians have attacked yesterday, Rosnay, Nogent and Mont Avron. The Prussians unmasked some siege batteries and attempted bombardment, but were repulsed with heavy loss. The moral condition of Paris is excellent.
RACOR, 29.—The artillery of Mezieres prevents the Prussians establishing batteries. Accounts show that the Prussian and French troops have suffered terribly from cold. In order to replace the French thus incapacitated, strong reinforcements have been sent, also vast quantities of material to increase the comfort of the troops.
VERSAILLES, 29.—The twelfth corps occupied Mont Avron, after one day's bombardment. The French left behind many gun-carriages, rifles and dead.
BORDEAUX, 29.—The presence of Gambetta has given an impetus to the sending forward of troops. Many have gone to-day from the south of France. A great number of new cannon are forwarded. Bourbaki's army is marching to cut the Prussian communications. Chaussey has sent a column to Moutoir, driving the Prussians several miles, taking prisoners and killing a number. Gambetta has desired that there will be no reception of him here. Cold continues.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Belfort makes a successful sortie—Rome half flooded.
LONDON, Dec. 29.—The French defend Cambray. Two thousand Prussians are at St. Quentin; none are at Arras. Belfort has made a successful sortie, in which the Prussians were severely punished.
From private sources: London, 30.—Tours estimates the entire number of French troops at seven hundred and fifty thousand. Bourbaki's command is charged especially with the duty of re-occupying Paris and has already on hand a vast amount of live stock and provisions for this purpose. At the proper moment, this army will make a desperate effort to join Chaussey's force and reunite the army of the Loire, which will then, with great energy, push on for Paris.
Gen. Paladine reverse is now charged to the meddling of politicians, who persuaded Gambetta to interfere with his military operations.
Earl Granville has received an official dispatch from the French government at Bordeaux, in which, France declares its determination not to send a delegate to the peace conference to be held in London, unless the British government shall first recognize the republic.
A dispatch of similar tone has been sent to each of the other powers.
Advices from Madrid state that Gen. Prim has announced his determination to resign in person to King Amadeus, and plead his desire to retire to private life.
Dispatches from Versailles, received here, state that the general evacuation of the departments of Paris, which had been occupied by the German troops, still continues. It is thought this is being done in order to concentrate the Prussian strength in and around Versailles.
London, 30.—General Fettingher has arrived at Havre from Bordeaux, to superintend the defence. His reception was enthusiastic.
The Prussians give an indemnity in bonds to the owners of the vessels destroyed in the Seine, but decline to give an indemnity to the sailors.
The ice blockades Copenhagen.
Rome is half flooded and much damage done.
The French vice-consul at Jersey orders refugees to report themselves immediately for service in the army or they will be considered deserters.
At Orleans and Blois excesses were committed because the ruined inhabitants were not able to give the requisitions demanded. At Orleans the Prussians threaten to take away as hostages fifty prominent citizens, unless six hundred francs for each maltreatment of soldiers be paid.

SPAIN.

Prim recovering.
MADRID, 29.—Seven of the eight balls, have been extracted from Prim's shoulder. He has lost two fingers, but is recovering rapidly.
The Cortes express abhorrence at Prim's attempted assassination, and have passed a vote of confidence in the government.
