

CARD GAME LEADS TO COLD MURDER

Shepherd Shoots Roadhouse Proprietor During Dispute Over Poker Hand.

T. FRIESE IS THE VICTIM.

Don Herbert, Forced to Relinquish Stakes, Fires Rifle Through Bar Room Window.

A shooting of which three different accounts appeared this morning occurred Saturday night in Daniels canyon toward the Strawberry valley country. Don Herbert, a shepherd, shot and killed Theodore Friese, proprietor of a roadhouse in the canyon. The trouble started over a game of cards. Friese beat high on a poker hand and when Herbert could not more Friese said the money on the table belonged to him. Herbert disputed this and Friese drew a gun which he held on Herbert, while taking the money. The shepherd left the room and in a few minutes three standing inside heard a shot, a crash, and saw Friese double up and fall to the floor where he writhed in agony. The injured man was immediately put under care but died at 5 o'clock in the morning.

Herbert made his way to Heber on the flat below the canyon and gave himself up. He said he had shot Friese but did not know that he would die. He said he shot in self-defense. He also stated he had shot Friese in the arm. F. L. Clegg, justice of the peace at Heber, will hold an inquest today.

All sorts of stories have been told about both men—the murderer and his victim. B. C. Friese, a brother of the dead man, lives in this city and Oscar Friese, another brother, lives in Ogden. Both say their brother was peaceable and never had any trouble, while Herbert was known as a skulking "white man treacherous as an Indian."

On the other hand, it appears Herbert is well known in Heber and his own home town, Wallburg, about five miles from Heber, and when he was put in jail dozens of persons called on him. He has a wife and three children and is said to have kept out of trouble before.

MRS. MCLAUGHLIN DIES.

Former Utah Woman Passes Away in California After Months Sickness.

The news of Mrs. F. J. McLaughlin's death in California will be read with surprise in this city and Park City. Mr. McLaughlin was formerly manager of one of Park City's biggest business firms, and manager of the Dewey Theater in the camp. He and his wife were well known throughout Utah. The news of Mrs. McLaughlin's death was told in the White Pine News, Dec. 27, as follows:

Mrs. F. J. McLaughlin, wife of one of the pioneers of Robinson district, passed away at her sisters' hospital in Sacramento, Cal., 18 hours after the performance of a delicate operation for which she was taken to the California city about three weeks ago, according to a telegram dispatched received by Cassius Lockhart of the Bank of Elly yesterday from the bereaved husband.

For several months previous to the time they left here Mrs. McLaughlin had been in delicate health and finally, upon advice of local physicians, her husband decided to take her to California as a last resort in hope that the lower altitude would prove beneficial. After arrival it was found that an operation was necessary. The condition of the patient was such that she proved too weak to withstand it, and death ensued shortly afterward.

Deceased was known throughout the community, as she was practically one of the early settlers, having come here with her husband before the railway was built. It is stated, her death causes a general feeling of regret, while the husband and two daughters, Misses Gertrude and Tessie, aged 16 and 15 years, have the heartfelt sympathy of all who know them.

No arrangements for interment have been made, so far as is known, but it is supposed that the funeral will be held in California.

DISCUSSES MERGER.

Southern Pacific Official Says It Has Been Brought to Affected Territory.

San Francisco, Dec. 28.—In speaking of the criticism of the Union Pacific Southern Pacific consolidation of management, Paul Shoup, assistant general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific company, said:

"I have heard some criticism of the merging of interest of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railways. Why, is not apparent, no one can point out harm resulting. There has been no curtailment of service, no raise in

What is Catarrh?

A Dangerous Disease Affecting Thousands of People. It is inflammation of the mucous membrane, and may affect the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, or bladder. NASAL CATARRH is most common, often coming on so gradually that it has a firm hold before it is suspected. Catarrh is aggravated by colds, but depends on impure blood. When chronic it is liable to develop into consumption. It is therefore very serious. The true remedy for catarrh is Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it purifies the blood, and removes the cause, effecting radical and permanent cures. Begin treatment at once with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

In usual liquid form or chocolate tablets known as Sarsaparilla. 100 doses. Antiseptic. Catarrh, diphtheria, sore throat, nasal catarrh, discharge, swollen throat, etc. Price 50c. Druggists or promptly by mail, C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

rates as a result. On the contrary, the evidence in behalf of its benefit to California is overwhelming. At the time of this association of interests the Union Pacific had been reconstructed, Omaha to Ogden, a fine highway, but only half the way. The Central Pacific needed reconstruction badly. The line was congested. California products could not be moved with any degree of certainty whatever, very well I remember studying the dense sheets of ore movements to locate cars 30 days out and not yet in Ogden, before and during reconstruction.

"With the present tonnage, actually more than double that of the time of construction, the old Ogden route would be with its grades and curves completely blocked. But the association of interests has resulted in the expenditure of almost $100,000 in reconstructing this main highway, Ogden to California. It extended the interest of eastern men of wealth and enterprise to the Golden Gate.

"Since that time the energy and money commanded by Mr. Harriman and his associates have been given without stint to the development of California commerce and California's transportation facilities, whether the job be one of extending mammoth ships to carry commerce to Asiatic shores, the capture of a runaway river that threatened to engulf an area larger than many an eastern state, the construction of a double track water level railway across a bay and through five hills into San Francisco, or the creation in two years of 6,600 refrigerator cars, the best yet built, to carry the green fruit of the state to its market in the best possible condition."

DIVE RAIDED.

Lone Star Saloon Visited by Police and Arrests Follow.

The notorious Lone Star saloon, formerly known as the Black Cat, a place which has long been a resort for thieves and fallen women, was raided by the police Saturday night and a number of women and vags were taken from the place to the city jail. Among those arrested were Mackey Young, Violet Brown, the two women who furnished funds to Joe Smith, the desperate thief who was shot and killed by Officer J. M. Lyon in the Lone Star some time ago.

The police say there are other so-called saloons where women of the town congregate and they propose to make a clean-up. Five women were found in the Lone Star when Officers Simpson and Cassidy made the raid.

INITIAL SERVICES.

Twenty-Fourth Ward Chapel Formal, Opened for Worship Last Night.

The first service in the new Twenty-fourth ward chapel was held last evening, the building being crowded to its utmost capacity, while many persons were not able to get even standing room. At least 400 were in attendance. Bishop William Wood, Jr., presided and delivered an address of welcome, and Elder Nephil L. Morris, president of the Salt Lake stake, was present and delivered an interesting discourse.

An especially fine program was rendered by the choir, the principal number of which was the cantata "Bethlehem." Miss Dorothy Bowman recited an interesting Christmas story. The Eleventh quorum of elders presented the ward with a beautiful sacrament set. Elder Benjamin Bythway making the presentation. The services throughout were thoroughly enjoyable.

WEATHER TALK.

Sleighting, Coasting and Skating and More A-Coming. Oh Goody!

With the mercury only 15 degrees above zero Salt Lake should get some good skating. Fifteen degrees above is the lowest temperature reached this season and it was made this morning at 6 o'clock. The lowest before was 17 degrees reached a few mornings ago. This city is enjoying good sleighting right now for the first time this winter and should it last, as it promises to do, this month will be a chapter in the city's recent meteorological history. The prediction for tonight is snow and warmer with more snow tomorrow.

Many a man wished himself a boy all over again when a score of youngsters came through the business portion of town on a dozen sleds pulled by a logging old horse. Almost drowning the musical jingle of the sleigh bells, the shouts and cheers of the boys brought weighty transactions to a temporary stop so financier and commercial giant could gaze longly through plate glass windows at the merry youngsters.

Cutter riding was enjoyed by scores of Salt Lake riders as the streets about town and the roads through the fields beyond town are in good shape for this, the best of all winter sports. Coasting is going on all over hilly portions of town despite the dangers of paths which run over street car tracks and busy streets. The terrible accident of last winter in which a little lad was killed beneath a street car is fresh in the memory of every mother who bears in every happy shout of some youngster, the frightened cry of her boy as his sled dashes beneath a car.

Dr. Hyatt is a hero in the eyes of juvenile Salt Lake for had it not been for the sudden cold wave and storm right after Christmas sleds and skates brought by Santa would have been of little use and there is nothing so useless as a useless toy.

With heavy, wet snow packing hard and deep in the hills the farmers are also jubilant.

CRIMINAL CASES SET FOR TRIAL

Sheets, Raleigh, "Attorney" Newton and Others Will Face Court.

Twenty-Four Defendants.

All Sorts of Crimes Charged by the State to Come Up at January Term Before Judge Armstrong.

Judge Armstrong set the dates for the trial of criminal cases in his court this morning. The first case is that of Richard Demming, who escaped from the Holy Cross hospital by a ruse, where he was taken by officers from the county jail to receive medical attention for a supposed injury, supposedly caused by a fall experienced by Demming in his cell in the county jail. The officers believe the entire "accident" and its subsequent developments were cleverly planned by Demming. Demming has been arrested at Huntington, Ore., and has been identified by Deputy Sheriff John Corliss, who will return him to this state in a few days, requisition papers having been issued by Gov. Cutler this morning.

SHEETS ONCE MORE.

Among the other cases set for trial in which there is more public interest than in many of the others, are those of former Chief of Police George Sheets, former Chief of Detectives George Raleigh and "Bill" Newton, an alleged attorney, formerly of Butte. All three are charged with criminal conspiracy growing out of the notorious and ill-smelling McWhirter scandal. Sheets will appear for trial on Feb. 17, Raleigh on Feb. 20 and with him "Bill" Newton.

On the calendar is the new trial of Arthur Brown, charged with forgery. He was convicted and upon appeal to the supreme court was granted a new trial on a technical point regarding the admission of evidence as to whether or not the Apex Mining company, for which Brown worked, was or was not a corporation doing business in this state. The new trial will come up Jan. 28.

THREW HIM OFF CAR.

Because James Ray Tended a Cashier's Check for His Fare.

James Ray, who lives at the Wellington hotel, was this morning thrown off a depot streetcar, according to his story, because he tendered a $5 cashier's check in payment for his fare. Mr. Ray is now seeking legal advice on the subject.

"It is all the money I had," he said this morning, "and I offered it to the conductor who stated that he only took United States money. He told me to either pay my fare or get off. I thought in consideration of the fact that the Harriman lines paid their employees in cashier's checks that the least the streetcar company could do was to take some of the same currency, but the conductor seemed to think otherwise. I refused to get off the car so the fellow picked me up and pushed me off."

KUBELIK'S CONCERT.

A Chicago Opinion of the Famous Violinist.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean in reporting the recent big concert given in that city by Kubelik, pays the famous Hungarian violinist the following tribute: "Kubelik has passed the dangerous period that invariably follows close upon the successes of precocious youth, and is now set safely upon the high road to a noble and exalted artistic career. That he has retained his hold upon the wonder worshipping public, makes him but the more helpful apostle of art."

I was able to hear only the final movement of the Mozart concerto, but this was given with a tonal warmth and a classic purity of style that were satisfying in the highest degree."

WILL DECIDE TOMORROW.

Judge Diehl Hears Arguments in Richardson and Others Case.

In Judge Diehl's court this morning arguments were heard in the case of the state vs. "Razor Jack" Richardson, one of three men charged with robbing S. M. Carmen last month. Judge Diehl took the case under advisement until tomorrow morning, when he and he would render a decision. Two other defendants, George Wilson and Paul Van Houghton, were to have been given a preliminary hearing, but as the testimony in the Richardson case would apply to the other two an agreement was made between counsel for state and the defense that the case against Van Houghton and Wilson be postponed until the afternoon of the Richardson case applying to all.

Carmen came here from Eureka last month and was about town with the defendants drinking. He was driven into an alley on State street and there robbed of about $140. Richardson, Van Houghton and Wilson were arrested on the charge of robbing Carmen and the latter identified the men.

PLEASED WITH UTAH.

Mayor David Hammett of Appleton, Wis., is in the city to purchase lands in Millard county. Mr. Hammett bought 640 acres down there last fall, and was so well pleased with the purchase, that he is now about to acquire more. He has great faith in the advancement and substantial prosperity of this state.

"PAL" OF OLDS ARRESTED.

Sheriff's Force Captures Bad Man in Person of Thomas Walsh.

A "pal" of Stephen Olds, who is serving a 10-year sentence in the state prison for the robbery of Del Wilson's saloon nearly two years ago, and who is giving the authorities at the state penitentiary more trouble than any other one prisoner in the institution, was arrested at Murray Saturday and sentenced to serve 30 days in the county jail for vagrancy. He gave his name as Thomas Walsh. He is also known as Thomas Shear. He is believed by the sheriff's force to be the man who attempted to hold up and rob the Denver or Zang saloon at Murray a few nights ago, and who shot two bullet holes into the person of Joe Hoffman, who was passing the saloon at the time the robbery was being committed.

Walsh is known to the police officers as a bad man. He is known to them as a member of the famous McRobert gang, a pal of James Moore and Frank Evans—all of whom contributed to the reign of terror in Burger Town, a foreign settlement near Murray and Bingham Junction.

So far the sheriff's office has been unable to have Shear or Walsh identified as the man who did the shooting at Murray. Inasmuch as he is to serve 30 days in the county jail, Sheriff Emery believes that he will have little trouble in piling up evidence which will send him to his former partners who are now doing menial work within the gray stone walls on the east hill.

"Oh, judge, if you will only let me go, I'll get right out of this state, I'll telegraph to my relatives in Omaha, Neb., this very day, and they'll send me money to go home. My mother works for Krug, she'll help me. Honest, judge, I ain't guilty. Give me a chance to go, oh, please give me a chance to go."

With her voice raised almost to a scream the above appeal made today by Clara Smith, a colored woman, when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith, on a charge of robbery. The woman is accused of having by force taken $15 from one J. Weaver, of Wayne county, while he was visiting in Salt Lake last week.
