

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

DEDICATION.—Yesterday afternoon there was a very interesting time at the dedication of the Co-operative Store and the Female Relief Department of the Fifteenth Ward.

The service commenced with the singing of a hymn, composed for the occasion by Miss E. R. Snow. The dedicatory prayer was made by President D. H. Wells.

THE ECLIPSE TO-MORROW.—The eclipse of the sun to-morrow is one of the most interesting astronomical facts of the century, and will command the attention and suspend the avocations of many millions of human beings.

CHANGED HIS COURSE.—The Colorado Tribune is responsible for the following: "Rev. N. McLeod has gone east on a lecturing tour and is to have opened the ball at Omaha on Sunday evening last."

JUST SO.—Amongst the telegraphic dispatches for to-day's issue we received the following: "A letter from Salt Lake says Brigham Young and the Mormon leaders are greatly worked up over the reports about Mormonism made by persons who have visited them this summer."

Local has looked at the Editor several times lately, and wondered what made his face so radiant, or what caused him to gain about ten pounds in weight during the hot spell when most folks get thinner.

WHITE PINE.—A gentleman in this city received, a day or two ago, a letter from a young gentleman who has been tempting fortune in White Pine.

"When the stage was leaving I witnessed a sight that I shall never forget. When the agent counted the passengers, one was missing, but his dead body was brought up to the stage just as they were calling out his name.

Burnett's Cocoaine cleanser, perfumes and dresses the hair beautifully.—Home Journal. Burnett's Kallitane, a cosmetic, is pronounced one of the best toilet fixtures ever prepared.

Ashma.—This distressing and most unrelenting disorder may be alleviated by the use of Jonas Watson's Remedy. No instance has ever been known of its having failed to give immediate relief.
