C. B. Coffin was elected president; L. A. Coate, secretary, and W. L. Bear, manager. It is the intention of the association to make a clearing each week from five on. The association reports that there is absolutely no need for alarm in regard to local money matters. The banks all have plenty of money and they now have affairs so well in hand that they can meet any emergency.

LIMITED ACCOMMODATIONS FOR MOSCOW VISITORS

A SPECIAL dispatch to the Spokesman-Review from Moscow, where the United States court is in session, says:

There is a possibility that the court may be postponed until some time early in January on account of the limited hotel accommodations. Judge District is opposed to an adjournment at this time, expressing the belief that ample accommodations can be secured in private homes about the city for room and board and that the question of meals was not serious, considering the number of hotels and restaurants catering to the public.

Marshall Rounds was asked to make a careful canvass of the situation and report at the morning session tomorrow.

In the case of the United States vs. William Dollar, the Cocur d'Alene banker, indicted with others for timber frauds, counsel for Dollar asked that the special plea as to the statute of limitations be withdrawn and a plea in abatement entered. This was not objected to by counsel for the government. It is understood that the special plea will be refiled at a later time.

This year he raised 61 bushels of potatoes from one acre of ground, and by the way, the same ground was grown to potatoes last year. Many of the potatoes weighed four pounds and upwards. One that weighed four pounds four ounces, was something of a freak, having shoulders and a fairly well developed head. A picture of this potato will appear in the holiday number.
