ORDERED TO MILK COWS IN MEADOWS

Unsanitary Condition of Barns of Some Dairymen Causes Food Commissioner to Move.

As the result of the startling disclosures made by the investigation into the condition of the milk plants and barns of some of the dairymen and shippers; who sell milk in Salt Lake, Walter J. Frazier, city food and dairy commissioner, has compelled a number of them to milk their cows in the meadows. Before the dairymen and shippers, whose scoring has fallen below the standard, can sell milk in the city this winter new barns will have to be erected and maintained in a sanitary manner. Of the number who have not failed to reach the standard, many of them will go out of business this fall because they have not the money to maintain a sanitary barn.

Since the crusade was started for clean milk, the conditions have im-proved wonderfully, in some of the plants. A general cleaning up has been made in many of the places and con-tracts for new barns have been let. tracts Mr. Frazier intends to keep up the fight against unsanitary barns and milk houses until they go out of business or live up to the requirements of the Seven places were visited yesterday by Mr. Frazier. Most of these places are in a fair condition but nothing ex-tra. Of this number two were in a fifthy condition. Mr. Frazier ordered filthy condition. Mr. Frazier ordered them to turn their cows in-to the meadows where they fred and leave them there night and day. The cows were washed to the satisfaction of the inspector and will be milked in the fields until new barns are provided. The following is the scores of the dairies taken yes-terday, the standard being 45, under the government regulation: The torday, the standard being 45, under the government regulation; The Granite Dairy, 42.5; The Ohio Dairy, 42, the Dahl Dairy, 32; the Bagley dairy, no score, barns too dirty; the Reese dairy, 31; the James Dairy, 25; the Domestic Dairy, 24. J. J. Wilcox of Farmington, against whom a complaint was made that he watered and skimmed his milk, de-nies the charges. After the test was made by the inspector. Mr. Wilcox followed his milk to Sait Lake and made two tests of it. The tests showed that it was below the standard. Wil-cox says that it is the fault of his cows. COWS

Mr. Frazier said that he went out and watched Wilcox milk his cows and took samples of the milk. When it was tested it showed that the cows gave milk below the standard. Since the tests were made Wilcox has not shipped any wilk to Sait Jake He shipped any milk to Salt Lake. He says that he intends to live up to the standard of the ordinance and will purchase another heard of cows.
