"A Square Deal."

We are sure our readers will thank us for calling their attention to the very handsome advertisement of the Excelsior Manufacturing Company, of St. Louis, as it would be useless for us to try to say anything in favor of their great Charter Oak Cooking Stove. The very word suggests the thought of a well cooked meal, followed by easy digestion, vigorous health, and a desire to have and to do plenty of real work, to say nothing of the comfort of a happy, contented household.

It is a Fact
It is a fact that Dr. Price's Spe-

Vanilla, Orange, Rose, Nectarine, Almond, etc., are the finest flavors and pastry that can be made. 3

TESTIMONIAL TO DR. E. L. PLANT.
"Extraordinary Delivery of Worms."

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 24, 1877.

Dr. E. L. Plant:
Dear Sir—Gratitude and thanks are but poor words to use in conveying my feelings for the very astonishing cure you have performed on my daughter. She passed five worms from seven to eight inches long, and between two and three hundred smaller ones; they appeared to be alive. She also was partially paralyzed, in fact, so much so that she had to be carried in and out of bed. She is nearly recovered from this.

Again thanking you, I am yours respectfully, JACOB FIERCEY, 5th Ward, and working on the Temple Block.

Message.—There is a message at the W.U. Telegraph Office for H.
Carlson.

Will Preach.—Elder L. J. Nuttall will preach in the 18th Ward to-morrow evening.

Fillmore.—Ex-Sheriff Gabriel Huntman is up from Fillmore, purchasing a bill of goods for the Co-operative Store of that place.

Promising.—If the weather conditions were not such a matter of uncertainty in these parts, we might say that appearances favor the near approach of snow-fall.

Religious Services.—Religious services at the Tabernacle to-morrow afternoon, commencing at two o'clock, and at the several meeting houses in the wards in the evening, at six o'clock.

P. E. Fund Meeting.—Elder Albert Carrington, President of the Perpetual Emigrating Fund, and his assistants, met at the Council House, last evening. A committee was instructed to publish a list of the names of persons indebted to the fund, since 1850.

The meeting adjourned till November 10th, at the Council House, at 7 p.m.

Beneficial.—We are frequently assured by people from every part of the Territory that the regular quarterly conferences held in the several Stakes of Zion are producing the most beneficial effects. The personal ministrations of the Apostles, together with the complete organization of the local priesthood and its effective operations, are uniting the people, inspiring them to greater diligence in keeping the commandments of God.

Juvenile Representations.—Mr.
C. R. Savage has, under the title of "Utah's Best Crop," collected a large number of the negatives of pictures of, babies taken at his gallery, and transferred the lot to a single card, making an interesting picture, especially to mothers whose darlings are among the group of little faces.

Bust of Pres. Young.—Messrs.
W. Fuller & Co. have just completed a plaster bust of President Brigham Young which is a very fine specimen of art and a very good likeness of our departed leader. Of course, in stone or other material, a perfect portrait is almost impossible. But this is sufficiently striking to make it valuable to the public, and it will no doubt meet with a ready sale.
The proprietors intend to thoroughly canvass the Territory, for the sale of the bust and will start in a few days on their tour.

A Long Term.—Yesterday afternoon Thos. Motley, the brutal fellow who committed a horrible outrage upon a woman near the Germania Works, some time ago, had his trial. The jury without leaving their seats, returned a verdict of guilty, and the Court sentenced the defendant to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for twenty-five years. The judgment is a heavy one, but none too severe for the monstrous character of the crime.
Motley has the outward semblance of what he has proved himself to be, a depraved and hardened wretch.

Benefit Entertainment.—A very pleasing entertainment will come off, in the 20th Ward schoolhouse, on Tuesday evening next, consisting of songs, recitations, character stump speeches, &c., in which some of the best local talent will appear.
The object of the entertainment is to assist two of the Elders called from that Ward to Scandinavia, at the general Conference. From the names of the committee and the talent on the programme we can safely promise an enjoyable evening. The Scandinavian choir will perform some pieces. Prices 25 and 50 cents.

District Court.—Friday, Oct.
25th.

James H. Spaulding vs. E. H.
Wall; verdict for defendant; judgment entered for possession of property and costs.

The People, &c., vs. Thos. Motley, rape; verdict of guilty. The defendant was sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary.

In the suits of the United States vs. Hugo, W. H. Butler, Wm. Butler, G. Butler, and John Turner, for perjury, the Court sustained the demurrers to the several indictments.

Saturday, Oct. 27th.

Wells Fargo & Co., vs. H. C.
Shurtliff, jury trial; judgment for plaintiff in the sum of $15,831.51.

Melinda Hatch, vs. William Brown, tried before the Court; judgment for the plaintiff for $840, with interest from May 3rd, 1877, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum.

The People, &c., vs. Moroni Brown and Robert Snadden, assault and battery, jury trial; verdict of guilty. Each of the defendants were sentenced to pay a fine of $5; costs to be taxed.

The People, &c., vs. Robert Lead-ingham, charged with assault with intent to kill; the grand jury not finding a bill of indictment defendant, with his sureties, was discharged.

The People, &c., vs. John F. Hey-worth, charged with larceny; the grand jury failing to indict, the prisoner and his sureties were discharged.

Malicious Mischief.—Yesterday morning Brother Isaac Hunter, of the 16th Ward, found one of his cows at his pasture, a short distance from Jordan bridge, with one leg shattered, from having been shot by some malicious or wantonly mischievous person. The animal was still alive when found, but of course, had to be killed. The cow was a valuable one, and her death was therefore a serious loss to the owner.

"Roma."—Mrs. Doctor Ferguson delivered her very interesting lecture on "Roma," to a highly intelligent audience, in the Twentieth Ward meeting house, last evening.
The lecture consisted of a graphic description of that city, both as regards its ancient ruins and the present grandeur of its cathedrals, and other points of interest. Her descriptive powers are excellent, and she carries the mind with ease, through the "Mecca" of the Catholic Church—St. Peter's Cathedral, with all its wonderful architectural beauty; the Place of the Vatican with its 13,000 apartments, in which "diminutive building the Head of the Papal Church is compelled to reside;" the ancient Colosseum, with its cages on either side of the arena, in which were confined the Christians on one side and the wild beasts on the other, until brought into combat for the delectation of the Roman populace, who sat in the balconies and enjoyed the sport.
She also described the Circus Maximus, built to seat a half a million spectators. This building, when decently filled, must have been a paying affair to the Roman management. A visit to his Holiness, the Pope, was also related, with all its formalities and exhibitions of reverence so exactly demanded by the "Infallible" chief of the Catholic world.

The lecture was listened to with profound attention throughout, and lasted about two hours.

Shooting Match.—There was a shooting match at Camp Douglas to-day, between a military and civilian team. The following is the score:

MILITARY TEAM,

Vanderlice, 39
Hanson, 38
Warren, 37
Patterson, 36
Yeaman, 31
Trotter, 27
Taylor, 25

CIVILIAN TEAM,

George A. Meears, 42
John Sharp, 39
Jake Heusser, 38
E. McLaughlin, 35
James Sharp, 34
John Groesbeck, 33
S. W. Taylor, 33

Lieut. McCammon was scorer for the Camp Douglas Club, and A.
Young, Esq., for the gentlemen from this city.

It will be seen by the score that the civilians were the victors by twenty-one points. The riflemen from the city are highly gratified with the courteous treatment they received from their military competitors.

The shooting was done, on both sides, with the army rifle.

We understand it has been arranged for another match to take place, between the same parties, on Wednesday, November 7th, on the Arsenal Hill range.

In Holland.—A letter from Elder B. H. Schettler states that he had arrived in Amsterdam and had commenced his labors. The field is somewhat unpromising, owing to the great majority of the people of Holland being enveloped in religious bigotry.

Elder Paul A. Schettler, brother to Bernard H., was on a mission to the same country in 1861, at which time he translated the Book of Mormon into the Dutch language.

SHORT AND SHARP.

Deceit and falsehood, whatever conveniences they may for a time promise or produce, are, in the sum of life, obstacles to happiness.

Puck says that the women who believe they are entitled to all the sidewalk must dodge a little for a paint pot.

The other day a mean man, out in western Iowa, went off into a quiet country place and died so quick that his wife got his insurance money before the company had time to fail.

The mere fact that thirty-six distilling and burning apple brandy in Pulaski, Tennessee, would seem to indicate that the spirits of the southern people are already rising again.

The older we grow the more we realize that fifteen cents will buy more fish than a business man, whose time is worth fifty cents an hour, can go out and catch in a whole day.

The Roman emperor who sadly exclaimed, "I have lost a day," would have felt much worse had it been his collar button, and compelled him to go rooting under the bureau and behind the bed in vain search for the article.

"Marriage bells are ringing mercifully all over the State—a most fitting and joyous accompaniment to forty million bushels of wheat." It is but natural, of course, that good harvests should encourage husbandry.

Aristotle laid it down as a maxim "that all inquiry should begin with doubt." Whenever, then, we meet with mysteries beyond our feeble comprehension, would it not be more rational to doubt the very faculty we are employing—the capacity of our reason itself?

An Arkansas man, who had an invalid wife, concluded to get rid of her. He loaded two barrels of a shot gun and attempted to shoot her in bed, but the caps only snapped. Then he turned the weapon and attempted to dash out the sufferer's brains. The shot struck the bed post, the beds were discharged, and the two charges of shot and lead were lodged in the few moments.
