DAVID O. CALDER,

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

Local and Other Matters.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 26.

Services in the Tabernacle.— We understand that the New Tabernacle will be open on Sunday next for public worship.

Toes Crushed.—Yesterday afternoon Brother David Norris, of the 11th Ward, had three toes, including the big one, badly crushed, by a heavy rock, at the Church quarry, while at work there.

Cache Valley.—Elder T. E. Ricks writes from Logan, April 20—

"The weather is very cold and we have had a very severe storm.
The people have the most of their crops in. The grasshoppers are hatching out very thick. The health of the people is generally good."

Caution.—On account of certain parties, claiming to be authorized by the Church, visiting various settlements in the Territory, forming companies of young men to go on exploring and other such expeditions, we deem it our duty to warn the Bishops and the Saints generally that such persons are entirely unauthorized, so far as the Church is concerned. Our advice to the leading brethren in the different wards is to always make it a point to ask for the credentials of unknown persons claiming to be acting by authority of the Church, in any capacity. Individuals, strangers especially, who are unable to furnish satisfactory evidence of that description should not receive any encouragement.

The Discourses.—It is a matter of regret to us that, owing to the temporary absence of the Church reporter, we have been unable, of-late, to publish, with the promptness and regularity that are desirable, the discourses of the First Presidency and Twelve Apostles. We are in hopes, however, of soon being able to resume and continue their publication with the needed punctuality. The discourses are a most valuable feature of the NEWS, greatly prized by the Saints at home, and we are aware, by numerous and frequent assurances, that they perform a most important office in spreading a knowledge of the gospel abroad in the world, where this journal has an extensive circulation.

District Court.—Thurs-day, April 26, morning.

Herman Kaiser vs. A. Kuhl & Bro.; on motion of Williams & Young, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is ordered that the appeal on file herein be and the same is hereby dismissed.

Joseph Biddlecum vs. F. J. Lunt; continued by consent.

N. Groesbeck vs. J. M. Joelson; passed to be taken up, by agreement, before the Court, without a jury.

William McKay et al. vs. Wm.
F. Bartlett, jury trial; the jury returned the following verdict—

We the jury in the above entitled action find for the plaintiffs and assess their damages at eight hundred and thirty-nine dollars and eighty cents.

do hereby GEORGE J. MARSH,

John W. Jenkins vs. Salt Lake City Railroad Company, jury trial;

A. S. Patterson sworn to support the proceedings of this trial. John W. Jenkins, the plaintiff, moves to amend the complaint of Rose Ella Jenkins; motion granted by the court.

Cricket Match.—The Sandy Cricket Club went to Ogden on yesterday morning's train, to try their skill against that of the Ogden Cricket Club, having challenged the latter to play a match game, which resulted in victory to the Sandyites. Ogden Club took the bat first, making a score of 59; Sandy Club then went in and made 67 as their score. After enjoying a lunch, prepared by the Ogden Club, the Ogden boys took their second innings, which resulted in a 46 score. The Sandyites, again at the bat, made a score of 39—the number necessary to win—with four wickets to spare, lack of time not allowing the game to be played out. The Sandy Club are elated with their victory, as the Ogden boys played well, both at the bat and in the field, especially in the first part of the game, when the Sandy men played carelessly and did not realize that they had to exert themselves to win, which was reversed in the latter half of the match. J. Barnett and R. C.
Bigger, of the Sandy club, were most successful at the bat, while the bowling of Fred W. Day was very good.

The Ogden club had evidently made up their minds to win, and although the losers, gave the Sandys some hard work, with no show to make any score only off the bat, yet the Sandy boys allowed the Ogden club to obtain a score of twenty or more in extras. Part of the Sandy club returned on last evening's train, the remainder staying at Ogden over night, to participate in a sumptuous supper, prepared for them at the Utah Hotel, by the Ogden club.

Probable Effects.—It is probable that within a few days, or perhaps hours, Europe will be startled by the crash of battle. The tramp of armed men resounds throughout a portion of the eastern hemisphere, and although the impending result of a bloody war has long been anticipated the shock produced by the breaking of the continued suspense will doubtless be powerful and alarming. War is a calamity producing in its wake a lamentable catalogue of hideous results. The powers of western Europe seem to fully realize the awful character of the situation, and appear to be shuddering upon the edge of the maelstrom into which they feel themselves being drawn by an irresistible force of circumstances.
England, deviating from her Crimean war policy of going to war in support of Turkey, retires with apprehension from the conflict.
This action, or rather inaction on the part of England is not because she is, by any means, indifferent to the territorial integrity of Turkey, it is a condition of great importance to her, but because of her reluctance to enter upon a disastrous and bloody conflict. However, whether she and the other powers of Western Europe can keep out of the difficulty is a matter of grave doubt.
The question at issue not only involves the protection of Christian subjects in the Turkish dominions from Turkish brutality and misrule, the pretended or ostensible object of Russia, but it probably involves the momentous question of the preservation of the balance of power between eastern and western Europe. Let that be broken and the condition of the eastern hemisphere will be completely revolutionized.

Looked at from any point, the aspect of the impending struggle leads to the general belief that it will be of gigantic proportions, and will therefore powerfully affect the general interests of the whole world. Great masses of men being taken from the productive vocations of peace and placed upon the field of battle, together with the sweeping destructions carried over the face of large tracts of country, by disastrous war, must tend to greatly reduce the supplies of the necessaries of life, without a proportionate reduction of the demand, and high prices in the grain market and incalculable destitution are likely to follow.

Should the war assume the proportions it is likely to accumulate, Utah may not be excluded from feeling its effects indirectly,

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 27.

Progressing.—Mr. Nathan Sears, who was accidentally run over by his wagon, a few days since, is doing as well as could be expected. One rib is very badly broken. It will probably be about three weeks before he will be able to move around again.

Reported Outrage.—It was reported in town to-day that a woman had been badly beaten and her person violated, in the neighborhood of Sandy, by a brute in human form, this morning. It is stated that the ruffian entered the house where the woman was, during her husband's absence, and committed the foul deed. At last accounts a number of men were in pursuit of the scoundrel.

President Young and Party.— President Brigham Young and party arrived in this City, from the South, at thirty-five minutes past one, this afternoon.

Elder B. Young, Jr., on account of sickness, was compelled to stop over at Cedar City, Elder George Q. Cannon remaining with him.
Those two brethren will probably not reach home for about one week from now.

Revised Ordinances of Provo City, containing all the ordinances in force on the 1st day of February, 1877, and the rules and order of business of Provo City Council, also the Organic Act of Utah, Provo City Charter, and amendments thereto. Revised, consolidated and published by authority.

This is a large octavo of 160 pages, printed on good paper and strongly bound. Useful to all concerned in the municipal regulations of that city. The printing and binding were done at the DESERT NEWS office.

Periodicals.—From Mr. James Dwyer we have received Leslie's "Popular Monthly" for May, the largest magazine published, for the price, on this continent.

We have also Vick's "Floral Guide," only 25 cents. It contains an immense amount of useful information upon floriculture and kindred subjects.

We have of Dick's Garden Handbooks, the "Vegetable Garden," price 30 cents. This is a most useful work hereabout, for everybody should be informed as to the most approved methods of manipulating the garden and raising vegetables.
The necessary knowledge can be gleaned from this excellent little periodical.

England.—The following are from the Millennial Star of April 9—

"A conference will be held by the Latter-day Saints in Sadler's Wells Theatre, St. John-street Road, near the Angel, London, on Sunday, April 22. Times of meetings, 10 30 a.m., 2 30 and 6 30 p.m."

"Elders from Utah are invited to attend, as far as they may wish to, and can do so consistently."

Elder Benjamin H. Tolman, on account of continued ill health, has been released from his mission to return home; he sailed on the S. S.
 Wisconsin, April 4th. Elder Joseph Barker, from Bradford, was on the same vessel, also en route to Utah.
 "Information wanted" of Mrs.
 Mary Crowther, who went from Derby to Utah about the year 1862. Address Mrs. Widdeson, care of Mrs. Narroct, 48, Lime Street, Liverpool."

Returned Missionaries.—Yesterday evening we received a call from Elders James Armitstead and Edwin Standring, the former of Pleasant Grove and the latter of Lehi, who returned the day previous from a mission to the eastern states. They left this City November 22nd, and while absent labored in Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa, where they held numerous public meetings, having all the opportunities for preaching, both privately and publicly, that they could reasonably desire. Elder Armitstead suffered severely for some time with an affection of the lungs, and Elder Standring's health was also rather poor a portion of the time. On account of Elder Armitstead's illness they started for home, stopping a month in Nebraska on the way, where he rapidly recruited, and where, but for the near expiration of the time allowed by their railroad tickets, they would have remained and labored a considerable time longer, having an excellent opening there.

Several families, formerly connected with the Church, that they met with, purpose coming to Utah and settling permanently.

Both those brethren say they greatly enjoyed their mission.

District Court.—April 26th, afternoon.

Erekson and Cook vs. Wessels and Bowyer; on application of plaintiffs' attorneys, J. C. Hemling-ray, Esq., attorney for defendants, was ordered to appear before the Court at 9 30 a.m. on May 3rd, to show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court, in having failed to comply with an order in this case.

E. M. Cast vs. Joseph Wear; defendants motion to quash the summons granted; judgment of the Court below reversed, and all proceedings thereunder set aside and judgment entered for defendant for the costs.

Bingham Cañon and C. F. railroad company vs. Wm. Burmester et al; order of the Court made October 30th, 1876, providing that S.
 Maltese, administrator of G. Cer-ghino, be made a party defendant, was vacated and set aside.

Bingham C. & C. F. railroad company vs. Wm. Burmester et al; on motion of plaintiff's attorney cause discontinued and judgment entered for defendants for costs.

Friday, April 27, morning.
 Ann Eliza Young vs. Brigham Young; this case having heretofore been taken under advisement now the Court, this day, renders his decisions and findings. Decree of divorce denied.

 continued.

Geo. C. Bates vs. James Mc-Knight, dismissed at plaintiff's cost, on motion of plaintiff.

B. Young vs. Louis Reggell; Marshall and Royle enter as attorneys for defendant.

D. H. Wells vs. Oliver A. Patton et al, two cases, continued by adjustment.

Decided at Last.—The long delayed decision, in the District Court, of the suit of Young vs. Young, in divorce, has been rendered at last, Judge Schaeffer having made the following decree, in said Court, this morning—

DECREE.
 Ann Eliza Young, vs.
 Brigham Young.

April 20th, 1877.

And now on this day this cause came on to be heard on bill, amended answer and exhibits and testimony; and the same being heard and the Court having heard the arguments of McBride for complainant and Williams and Shicks for the defendant, the Court takes the matter under advisement.

April 27th, 1877. And now the Court, having duly considered the same, and being fully advised, and having made its findings herein, which findings are herewith filed, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed by the Court that the alleged marriage between the plaintiff and defendant, on the 6th day of April, 1868, was and the same is hereby decreed and declared to have been null and void.

It is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed that all orders and decrees heretofore made by this Court, in this cause, for the payment of temporary alimony, by the defendant to the plaintiff, which have not been complied with, nor paid or collected, be and the same are hereby revoked and annulled.

 and decreed that the defendant herein pay the cost of this suit.

M. SCHAEFFER,

Judge.

Leave is given to either or both parties herein to file exceptions to any or all of the findings or to the order and decree herein, within three days from the filing hereof.

M. SCHAEFFER,

Judge.
