THE EVENING NEWS. LIST OF LETTERS Tuesday. . . . July 20, 1869. Letter Office. LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS. Allen F Alexander J Anderson O C THEATBICAL -- Last night the "Seven Andersen H J Andrews CF Sisters" was played, and created a good mmerman W leal of merriment. It contains some fine Archer L G Aulis W tableaux, and had it been played with more spirit would have kept the audience in al-Rabin J B most continued laughter. The adventures Baker J of "Mrs. Pluto" after leaving her abode be-Bates A Bertrand L A 2 low are extremely droll, and Mr. Chaplin, while personating that venerable lady, Rethell J Btrd J P showed himself the possessor of considerable ability as a comedian. As the Irish apple woman and the itinerant frau, with Bishop A Blewatt E Boothe C her hurdy-gurdy, he was excellent. The singing and dancing of Miss Ward were en-cored, as was also the dance by Miss Clive. Mr. Harris, as "Cuffee," made the most of his part, which, being a very langhable one, Bowlden R Boulton Mr Bradley J Branch W H Briggs C Burk J helped much to keep up the fun. Mesars. A NEW PEOPLE DISCOVERED IN AFRICA.

sa tract about 300 miles in breadth, from north to south, and between 400 and 500 in length, from east to west, laid down on the maps as Herero Land or Damara Land. It extends from the Cunene River, on the north to the Walfisch Bay, on the south, and from the coast to Lake Ngami, in the interior. Very few Europeans have visited it; three elephant hunters only, between 1857 and 1864, Andersson, whose works on "Lake Ngami," etc., are so well known, Green and Smuts. Andersson was so much pleased with the country that he pur-chased a large tract of land there and raised some thousands of cattle. He died there in the carly part of the present died there in the early part of the present year.

There are two races inhabiting the country, the Bechuanas, who occupy some kraals or villages in the central and northern part, but who are in a dependent condition, and the Ovas, of several tribes, (Ovambo, Ovarkereis, Ovambautieru, Ovamguari, Ovakuenama, Ovambuere, etc.,) a red race, with long hair-curly, butnever woolly-regular features and fine forms. These are the ruling race, and exhibit a high degree of inwhich indicate their Asiatic origin. They are governed by a king-Tjikongo by name-of the Ovambo race, who resides at Ondonga. He is assisted in the government by a Council, without whose consent he cannot execute any measure. Each tribe has its Prince and its territory, and the princes are subject to the King and Council, by whom, for any offense against the laws, they may be deposed or put to death. Each prin-cipality is divided into districts, governed by Chiefs, who are amenable to the Princes, but have an appeal to the King and Council. Their roads are excellent, and each has an Inspector. whose business it is to see that every person coming into the kingdom i stopped and entertained until his name and purposes can be forwarded to the King, and permission obtained for him to travel through the country. In the case of explorers and hunters there is usually little difficulty; but traders are required to procure some responsible citizen of the country to be their guar-antee that they shall deal honorably, and pay all the debts they contract. The religion of the country is, in many respects, so much like that of the Parsees as to induce the belief that the Ovas belong to that race, or have been under its tuition. They are not idolaters, but believe in a Supreme Being, the Creator, who is omnipresent, omnipotent, and omniscient, and whose symbols are the sun and fire, and to these they pay homage as his representatives, but offer no SECRET HISTORY OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY .- We have received advance sheets of Pollard's "Life of Jefferson Davis, with a secret History of the Southern Confederacy," now being issued by the National Publishing Company, Chicago. The work promises to be one of considerable interest, and will no doubt make disclosures, never before published, in relation to the Southern Confederacy, and the motives and incidents which led to the policy adopted by its founders during the rebel-tion. The work is printed on good paper, in clear type, and will be sold by subscription only. Agents are wanted in every county.

VAGRANCY. - Lewis Morshall Stickler was sentenced this morning to 25 days' labor on the streets for vagrancy.
