

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, June 15, 1899.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must be in every instance accompanied by their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—This evening "Under the Gaslight" will be repeated, with all its beautiful scenery, sensational effects, fun, pathos, humor, songs, dances, good acting, and everything that goes to make a most enjoyable entertainment. By all means see this play while it keeps the boards. Our young folks who never saw a railroad, will form an excellent idea of it from the far-famed Down Express Train scene.

PRESIDENT KIMBALL was a little easier this forenoon.

CO-OPERATIVE.—On Monday evening the cabinet-makers of the city met at H. Dinwoodey's furniture factory, pursuant to appointment to the Mechanics' meeting of Friday evening, to take measures for organizing into a society for manufacturing purposes. H. Dinwoodey, Esq., was called to the chair and Edward H. Ham, Esq., was appointed Secretary. After some deliberation, and freely discussing the object before the meeting, Messrs. H. Dinwoodey, Wm. Bell, R. Ramsey, W. L. N. Allen, E. Bird, T. Higgs, J. Bird and Carpenter were appointed to draw up resolutions, who reported a resolution to form a stock capital of $50,000, in 1,000 shares of $50 each, to be payable as soon as a company shall be organized and be under such regulations, restrictions and securities as shall be determined upon by said company.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On Saturday, as Mich Harris was in the Canyon above Heneferville, East Weber, where he was getting out some poles, while lifting his blanket, gun and coffee-pot, to go to another portion of the canyon, the hammer of his gun was caught on something—probably the blanket—and the gun was discharged, the ball passing through the upper part of his arm, and through the lower part of his face, cutting off a portion of the tongue, tearing away a number of the teeth, and some of the flesh from the outside. He was removed to this city, and is now suffering much pain. An operation is expected to be performed on him to-morrow by Drs. Tait and Anderson.

LET OUT.—By Hon. B. Young, Junr., in from Echo Canyon, we learn that eleven miles in that canyon are now let out in sub-contract; and the whole of Echo Canyon, with about six miles down Weber Canyon, is already spoken for by men willing to strike in and put it through. There were about twelve camps in Echo, this side of where the contracts were being let, as he was coming down, which show the readiness of the men to commence work.

THE ROBBERY OF THE OVERLAND STAGE.—The Virginia, Nevada, supercargo a detailed account of the robbery of the Overland Stage, in Six Mile Canyon about two miles below Flamingo District, and some five miles from Virginia City, on the 10th inst, reported immediately after in the dispatches. "The robbers were three in number, well armed with double-barreled shotguns and were completely masked with white cloths tied over their faces. The passengers, six in number—four gentlemen and two ladies—were also robbed of money and such valuables as the robbers discovered." "The 'road agents' were lying in wait for the stage, and the first that the passengers knew of the matter was the halting of the stage, which was going at a slow pace, and the sudden thrusting in of the barrels of a shotgun at both doors of the coach." "The driver, Halley Green, who has been somewhat unfortunate in being twice stopped before—was ordered down from his seat with a gun leveled at his head. He came down. The passengers were invited out, and responded to the invitation by coming out, when the robbers 'went through' them. They took from the stage $180, four small packages of coin, and three bags of bullion, worth $345.00, two of which were afterwards found in the sage brush near the scene of the robbery. From the passengers they took $633 and two watches valued at $300, and missed over $4000 which was concealed from them. The leader is described as of medium build and heavy set—would weigh about 165 pounds—and wore a linen coat over either white pants or white canvas overalls. Another is said to be of slender build, about 5 feet 11 inches in height, while the third is described as being rather short and slightly built. They are supposed to be no novices at the business, and believed to be men well acquainted with Virginia and the wagon streets of Salt Lake City. Wells, Fargo & Co., have offered a reward of $2,000 in coin for their arrest and conviction.

MORE OF THEM.—Faust & Houts sent forty men, four wagons and about 200 mules out to Hanging Rock, Echo Canyon, yesterday, to work on President Young's grading contract.

WORKERS AROUND IT.—What with grasshoppers around plentifully, and doing considerable damage, with some crickets at times, and a few other things, our gardeners think the insect creation is pretty bad on them. But here is a picture, taken from the Des Moines Register, that ought to reconcile them to it all, and make them believe they are more blessed than they sometimes think they are:

"In addition to the villainous depredations of grasshoppers and potato bugs, our horticultural and gardeners are now suffering from the onslaught of a big, awkward sort of bug, the size of your thumb, which bids fair to kill all the young cottonwood trees in this region. After sunset, when they come out of their burrows in the ground, and alight upon the leaves of the young trees, they proceed to devour them. They will strip a tree in a single night, and it is feared that they will finally kill them. Strange to say, they touch nothing but cottonwoods. Horrors accursed!"

A NICE QUESTION.—Three men from Salt Lake City were arraigned before Justice Duke yesterday on a charge of selling goods without a license. Two of the parties were fined $10 each, and costs; the third discharged. It appears, from the evidence adduced, that the defendants brought produce from the Salt Lake Valley to this market, with the intention of offering the same for sale through the commission house of McCormick, Caldwell & Co.; that a portion of the cargo had been unloaded and delivered to that firm, with instructions not to sell until further orders. It was further shown by the testimony that no effort had been made by the defendants to avoid the payment of license, and that the value of the goods was ample security for any revenue the parties were due to this country. The Justice thought it a hard case, and adjudged the fine as above, remitting a large portion of the costs.

—Helen, M.T. Gazette, June 11.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—In Richmond, Indiana, Charles Green, a policeman, went and won Miss Bridget Dugan, sister of a brother policeman, seduced her under promises of marriage, and sent her to Cincinnati, promising to meet her there and fulfill his promise. But he married another soon after, and Bridget returned, armed with her wrongs and a revolver. She saw him, had a talk with him, and a walk with him on her way to her home, which she brought to a termination by leaving a bullet in Gagan's left lung, who fell to the earth struck down by this unexpected behavior. A looker-on saw the shot and tried to arrest her, but she intimidated there was another bullet not fired off, when he let her walk, and she walked away, and disappeared. All honor to Bridget! It is a pity, though, she did not use the pistol when she expected, was first attempted.
