EVENING NEWS. Wednesday, . May 7, 1884. FRAGMENTS.

THE weather is superlative.

LIME-KILN blasts are the order of the day.

"EXCELSIOR" at the Opera House to-morrow evening.

A NEW paper for Provo is being talked about.

SEE notice headed "Arizona," in our local columns this evening.

THE Meteors will blaze forth at the Theatre to-morrow night.

No Eastern mail to-night. It will be in to-morrow morning in two sections.

FrvE dollar gold pieces are said to be very scarce in the city; especially with editors.

NOTHING more heard of the knifepistol fracas at Francklyn. Guess they are still going, if not gone.

THE street railroad of Ogden has reached the Ogden River bridge and is progressing rapidly.

THE laying of gas mains on the State Road has reached the south-west corner of the Eighth Ward Square.

THE attendance at the Theatre last evening was somewhat slim. It was the last night of the Jubilee Singers.

THE State Road is in tolerable good repair, but some of the roads leading eastward from it are full of chucks and pools.

THE NEWS now issues an early edition, in time to catch the afternoon trains. Our country friends should make a note of this.

HEWLETT, impleaded with Morris for murder, had an epileptic fit in the Federal Court room yesterday. It suspended proceedings temporarily.

J. B. KEYSOR, lately the partner of Dr. J. R. Van Aukin, dentist, has removed to the Herald new building, where he sollcits his former patronage. See advt.

IT was the District Telegraph Comdividend on Monday. The name was set up wrong and overlooked in proofpany, not the Deseret, that declared a reading.

A special excursion to Logan will leave here on the 16th inst., the day before the Temple dedication, and return on the 20th. Cheap Conference rates will prevail.

WE are requested to state that the Rev. Mr. Iliff will deliver a lecture on "All under and all above the Eternaj Gardens soon after noon on the first of City-Rome," on Thursday evening at May, and tried to run the doll-throw-8 o'clock in the Methodist Church.
