

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Z. B. S. S.—There will be a meeting of the board of directors of Zion's Benevolent Building Society, in the office of the U. C. R. R. Company, on Friday evening, at seven o'clock, sharp. A full attendance of the directors is desired.

A. PATRONS, Secretary.

An Anniversary.—Thirty-six years ago yesterday Brother George B. Wallace entered this valley and camped at what is known as the Old Fort Lot, in the Sixth Ward. Last night he addressed the Home Missionary meeting, directing a portion of his discourse to the remarkable change that had occurred since Sept. 26, 1857.

Cause of the Haze.—The heavy condition of the atmosphere is caused by immense bodies of timber being on fire in the surrounding canyons. A gentleman who was up Provo Canyon yesterday informs us that the smoke was so dense there as to render it impossible for travelers to see beyond a very limited distance. The smoke in that locality came from mountain timber on fire behind Kanab.

Across the Continent.—Mr. Geo. Westinghouse, the famous air-brake man of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and family, his father and mother, Mr. John Cole and family, Dr. J. W. Duke, Miss Fanny E. Bates and Miss Bennett, arrived in special car this morning from San Francisco en route to the East. The party have been making a tour across the continent and are now returning. They leave here Friday morning for Denver, Kansas City, St. Louis and Pittsburgh.

Saloon Barred.—Sometime between the hour of closing last night and opening this morning, the saloon of Shively and Jennie, on Second South Street, was entered by a burglar, who gained admittance by the transom over the front door. The sum of $150, a watch worth about five dollars, and fifty cigars were stolen. The thief emerged from the establishment by the front door, which was partially open when one of the proprietors arrived this morning.

Conference Theatricals.—"The Green Lanes of England" and "Pique" form the Home Dramatic Club's Conference attractions, the first named piece being presented October 4th and 5th and the latter October 5th. For these occasions the services of Mr. O. F. Whitney, formerly a prominent member of the Home Company, have been secured. Miss Edith Clawson assumes the leading lady part in the Green Lanes, while Miss Nellie Cleburne reappears in her original character, in Pique.

Boudicaut Engagement.—We received a call to-day from Mr. Boudicaut, agent for Mr. Boudicaut, the famed dramatist, who will appear at the Salt Lake Theatre, according to the advertised announcement, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Mr. Boudicaut's fame as a dramatist and actor is as wide as that of any other man in those lines, and we have no doubt his company will draw large houses during the engagement. Many of our citizens will remember his former visit to this city, when the audiences were delighted with the performances.

Red Butte Brick.—Yesterday we were shown by S. E. Allen, of the First Ward, samples of the Red Butte brick. They are hard and have the clear ring of an extra excellent article. The company with which it is connected has about 150,000 on the ground for sale. They are hard, light, however, and when the machinery is obtained for the manufacture of pressed brick, they will be made as smooth as any brick used, and can be burned to any color, from a light to a deep red. The clay is of splendid quality and the owners of the claim have a valuable piece of property.

Death of a Missionary.—Bishop Charles E. Robinson, of Montpelier, son of Brother Lewis Robinson, on a mission to the Southern States, died at Watteville, South Carolina, at 1:15 o'clock yesterday morning. He states a telegram from Elder B. H. Roberts to Pres. Taylor, The President answered the dispatch, directing that the body be sent to Montpelier via Grand.

No Particulars.—As to the cause of death have yet been received. The deceased left for his field of labor on the 10th of last April, at which time he was a fine, robust young man.

On Business.—This morning we received a pleasant call from Mr. R. W. Dyball, who represents the house of John C. Neimess & Co., wholesale manufacturing confectioners of Michigan Avenue, Chicago. He will remain in time a few days soliciting orders for goods, the quality of which is too well known by the merchants and consumers to require any comment from us. Their goods have been used in this Territory for the past fifteen years. Mr. Dyball is staying at the Walker House, where he has a superior line of samples of candies and confectionery goods.

An Unfortunate Mistake.—Yesterday Mr. James McKnight stated that his office on Third South Street had been broken into, and a number of articles stolen from it the night previous. A small paper published in the city, by a mistake we presume, got the name of Mrs. Kimball, who lives in close proximity to the place, mixed up with the matter. Of course that lady had nothing whatever to do with the affair, and is not that kind of person. Some of her relations called upon Mr. McKnight last night, just as he was retiring, and an explanation was agreed upon, he asserting that he had never mentioned Mrs. Kimball's name in connection with the alleged burglary. It is unfortunate that the name of an innocent lady should have been used in connection with a disreputable occurrence.

SUICIDE IN OGDEN.

A MAN SHOT A BULLET THROUGH HIS BRAIN IN HIS WIFE'S PRESENCE.

About 5:30 last night a pistol shot sounded from the parlor of the residence of J. M. Thomas, on Young Street, and in a moment more the news spread about the city that a man had suicided. Hurrying to the place designated we found a crowd assembled around the window and door. Pushing our way through, we were soon given admittance to the room where J. M. Barlow, an express messenger of the Utah & Northern, lay apparently sleeping on a lounge. A second glance, however, which discovered a mass of blood oozing from the man's mouth and a ghastly wound, showed plainly that it was the long sleep, from which none return.

Upon his breast, lodged in his left hand, was a coffee-colored bullet, which was the cause of his death. He was a man of about 35 years of age, and was a native of the Des Moines place of the Old Fellows, and on the back of the case, written with a lead pencil, was "Sept. 26, 1893." He had forgiven my rash act, but my life is a failure. On the floor, near the dead man's right hand was a Colt's large size pocket pistol of 44-calibre, with one chamber empty. In the man's right temple was an ugly hole, showing where the bullet had entered, and one upon the left side, but lower down, evidenced plainly where the fatal messenger had made its exit.

During the afternoon the unfortunate man had been talking with a number of friends, and on the night previous, he was in the parlor with his wife, enjoying music, and no one supposed that he was the least bit inclined to be weary of life. About 5 p.m. of perhaps a little before, he returned to the house where he was rooming, and lay upon the sofa. He had been there some time when his wife entered and greeted him. As she was about to leave he drew his pistol, and played it against his head, exclaiming, "Good-bye." Seeing his rashness, Mrs. Barlow rushed toward him, but before she reached his side the report of the pistol was heard and the bullet had done its work, death instantly ensuing. The man was married about five months ago in Wood River, and while they were apparently getting along nicely, it is conjectured by many that it was something of a private nature that drove the poor fellow to his desperation.—Pilot.

Keep the Object in View.—"The Mormon Panorama" was exhibited to a good sized audience in the Eighth Ward Assembly Rooms last night, and the majority of those present seemed well pleased with the entertainment. The introduction of comic songs, entirely foreign to the spirit of the exhibition, we think, however, should be omitted in the future, as they have a tendency to destroy the good impression, produced by the narrations of some of the most thrilling scenes of Church History. The Salt Lake public have ample opportunity to enjoy well performed comedies and nonsensical farces, and intelligent people look for something different in connection with the Panorama. Keep the object in view, and do not destroy the proper influence, made by the exhibition, by introducing matters of an opposite nature, merely for the purpose of pleasing a few whose taste has become perverted. The Panorama will draw good audiences without the introduction of "fried froth."

The Constable at their Heels.—It looks as if a good many people who are delinquent in the payment of County, School and Territorial taxes are about to land in a "bad box." Suits have been begun in the Third District Court by Collector Crismon against quite a large number of persons in that predicament, laying them liable to a good deal of expense. It should be remembered that the mere initial expenses of filing in a suit in the District Court amount to ten dollars. Some of the suits, the papers of which are already in the hands of an officer for service, are for insignificant sums, some of them not more than one-half the sum required to be paid for the first expenses of a legal suit. The Collector has no alternative but to proceed as the full amount of the assessment roll is charged against him. Delinquents had better roll up without delay and settle, thus saving trouble, perplexity and expense.

Grand Jury.—In the Third District Court to-day the following were empanelled a grand jury for the September term, the odd numbers signifying those placed on the original jury list by the Clerk of the District Court, and the even by the Probate Judge:

- 2 Leonard Cottrell, Foreman,
- 168 John A. Beckstead,
- 91 William Sanders,
- 104 J. E. Langford,
- 105 Thomas E. Harper,
- 65 Thomas Mackinnon,
- 150 Jabez Hancock,
- 75 Hyrum B. Burton,
- 111 Andrew Kufor,
- 32 George Coulam,
- 197 Enos Stooky,
- 178 Jas. W. Burnham,
- 19 F. H. Nelsen,
- 57 Alexander Shurbrook,
- 127 David Caudon,

James McCurdy was sworn as bailiff of the grand jury. After the empanelling process was over the Court charged the jury and they retired to their room to begin business.

House-Room and Labor.—The population of this city is growing much more rapidly than its dwelling-house capacity, and many of the poorer class are placed at a great disadvantage and inconvenience in consequence. If some of our rich men would invest in putting up cottages for rent, that new comers and others of the working people may have proper places to live in, they would confer a great boon upon that class. Moneyed philanthropists in various parts of the world exercise their ability largely in this direction, and it is indeed an anomaly if rich men in a community of Latter day Saints cannot be found to strive out in a similar and commendable way. We happen to know that the hunt for house-room by a large number of people is incessant and perplexing. Something should be done to mitigate the inconvenience, which, in winter time, is likely to culminate in some instances in actual distress, and movements are wanted to furnish suitable employment for the people. Notwithstanding the "building boom" so much talked about, quite a number of the population are not in work.

Indian Farm.—Interpreter Wm. Lee is in from Deep Creek. We learn from him that 4,000 bushels of oats, a quantity of wheat and 100 tons of hay were raised on the Indian farm in that locality this season, and matters were otherwise progressing as well as could be expected.

Settled at Last.—It will be remembered by some people that at a match game between the Salt Lake and Ogden cricket clubs, played in the latter town last Decoration Day, a dispute arose between the two parties, causing the serious running of the feelings of the rivals. The difficulty has just been amicably settled, the Salt Lake team receiving from the Ogdenites to-day a new cricket ball, as an emblem of peace and an acknowledgment that the club from the capital were the winners of the game.

Chester Primary Fair.—The Chester Primary Association Fair was held Sept. 24th, under the presidency of Aunt Emma Heyward and her two Counselors, Sisters Millicent and Matilda Peterson.

The articles exhibited were pleasingly varied, including some monster beets, carrots and turnips, prettily wagons and ingenious mouse-traps. These primary scholars ranged from nine to eleven years. The articles contributed by the little girls were of the usual kind; quilts, tidies, wool-rolls, having a pleasing background of pinks, cakes, butter and bread, the work of equally young hands.

After the usual opening exercises were had, the recitation, song and primary classes were gone through most creditably. Realizing that space cannot be given us in your valuable paper, I forbear to particularize.

Some judicious presents were made to the President, which she feelingly responded to.

Bishop R. N. Alfred made a few felicitous remarks, closing the morning exercises by singing and prayer.

After a recess for eating the little ones went to the beautiful meadow of Brother R. R. Alfred, where sports and sociability reigned till an untoward event, the running away of Brother John Coleman's team. Forgetting to unhitch the last log, the team scampered away. Sisters Coleman and Aunt Lucy Alfred were in the wagon. All escaped, except Brother Coleman, who was badly kicked.
