accounts. The Adjutant General's Report besides giving the statistics of the Militia, refers to the dety performed by various detachments in the in-dian war in which the Territory has been en-raged for three years. During that war seventy of our citizens have been killed or wounded by Indians; a large amount of stock has been indians; a large amount of stock has been driven of; and very great and serious loss has been suffered by the people of the settlements exposed to Indian depredations. A small por-tion of the outlay for the expeditions to defend the settlements more immediately in the scene of actual Indian hostilities, has been paid out of Territorial funds; but the report suggests that an appropriation should be made by the General Government to reimburse the Terri-

FRESH OYSTERS. - We were favored yesterday morning with a can of fresh oysters from the east handed to us by John Latey, Esq., of this city, and forwarded through him by his brother Henry L. Latey, Esq., of Omaha. They came by rail and coach. We express our obligations for the courtesy, and look upon this as the initial of fresh bivalves and other dainties from "the world of waters," when the railroad is completed.

Dign.-The following brief telegram to President Wells, tells us of the death of Bro. John Heiner, one of the brethren called at the last general Conference to go South:-- St. George, Jan, 13th. Pres. D. H. Wells, John Heiner died at 1 p.m. on the 12th.

THAT large and comfortable hotel, the Revere House, is now opened by M. A. Carter, with W. W. Habersham as clerk, and Harvey M. Ross as steward. Both gentlemen are eminently capable. Mr. Ross, as a caterer, has a well established and first class reputation.

A San Francisco correspondent notices the rapid development of the industrial interests of that State as follows:

The value of the agricultural products of the State in 1866 was estimated at $55,000,000. This was nearly $10,000, 000 more than the value of our total gold and silver product. This year the value of our agricultural products will exceed $60,000,000. Last year the total value of articles manufactured in the State was estimated at $35,000,000. This year their value will undoubtedly reach $00,000,000. And California is but in the infancy of agriculture and manufactures. We are not neglecting mining at all, either. In fact, that branch of our industry never was on a healthier basis. The ignorance and the extravagant mismanagement of former times have passed away, and much larger profits are in all cases reaped from mining, while in many instances the change named has brought mines within the sphere of profitable working that could not previously be touched at all. In nearly everything the people of this coast have bought dearly in the school of experience, but they have profited well by it, and are new reaping the benefits.
