More of the shooting.

ST. LOUIS, 14.—In the post mortem examination this afternoon, Wm. H. Clifton, who was with Colonel Slayback, testified that Slayback was not armed and was shot while taking off his coat. Both John McGuffin and Victor Cole testified emphatically that Slayback drew a revolver when he entered the room and advanced on Cockrell, pointing the pistol at him. His stories did not differ from the previous statements. McGuffin took Slayback's pistol and with it compelled Clifton to keep hands off Cockrell. He produced the pistol, a pearl-handled British bulldog, which was rusty. The jury's verdict merely recited the method of Slayback's death.

Cockrell read a statement, under oath, the substance of which is that at a reception at the rooms of the Elks club, of which Cockrell is the president and Slayback was a member, on the night of September 13th, Col. Slayback, in the reception room, used violent language towards the Post-Dispatch, charging its editors with being backbiters, and making serious charges against the paper. Later in the evening Cockrell invited Slayback into the library room and asked if he intended to apply the term backbiter to him; he answered that he did, and entered upon another tirade of abuse against the paper. Then suddenly closing and locking the door of the room he said to Cockrell, "You have brought me here to bulldoze me and now we are alone and man to man, I tell you if the Post-Dispatch ever attacks me or assails my character, I will go to your office and see you." I will take the life of any man who employs a newspaper to abuse and injure me." He spoke of his partner, McGuffin, who is a candidate for Congress in the Ninth District, and charges which have been made against him, repeating several times he would shoot anybody who would publish anything about him. He said Cockrell would be held to account for the course of the paper, and declared that before the campaign was over (Slayback) would go on the stump and from house to house denounce the Post-Dispatch and break up its business. Cockrell assured him he had no intent to bully him; that he had simply asked for an explanation that was due; that he entertained only friendly feelings for him; that he had never written a line against him and never intended to do so.
After further conversation Slayback became quiet. They shook hands and went into another room and closed the door. Cockrell then cordially. Cockrell then said from the malignant attack upon the Post-Dispatch by Slayback at a political meeting on Friday night he was satisfied he intended to execute the threat he had made—to denounce the paper from the stump. He regarded it as open defiance, which would call for some response from the Post-Dispatch. He did not write anything himself, but simply reproduced a letter which had been written to Slayback by John Engels, the editor of the Colonist.
Cockrell then gave his account of the shooting. He said: When Slayback entered the room, "Well, I am here." He started as if to draw his cock I was in the corner next to the front window. Instinctively I moved my hand toward the weapon on the desk. He saw it, and suddenly readjusted his coat and said, "Is that for me?" At the same time throwing his hand to his hip pocket. My reply was, "No sir, it is not." I secured my weapon as he drew his. He pressed it at me, and I shot him. He fell back and I shouted "Don't do that," and at the same time, while his weapon was pointed at my breast I fired, believing myself at any moment to be shot. I knew nothing of the effect of the shot; for he closed with me and thrust his revolver against my side, at the same time Clifton caught me from behind and thrust my pistol from my hand, which was hanging by my side. I shouted to McGuffin, "Don't let these men kill me." He told me, "He killed Slayback's pistol from his hand, and pointed it at Clifton's head, under the impression, I presume, he was trying to shoot me. At that instant Slayback released the name grasp upon me. I realized for the first time that he had been hurt. I left the room while Clifton was calling for a doctor, my head bleeding from the wound when I was forced against the window, and I went into the lower office to wash myself.

His for Tat.

NEW YORK, 14.—The Times Co.
Lancaster, Pa. has been for several years a customer of the Young Foster and ex-Gov. Thos. L. Young, present member of Congress from Lancaster, Pa. Young predicted the defeat of the republican party directly after the legislature passed the Sunday law. He has of late been very loud in his denunciation of Foster on account of his fight against the liquor traffic as now conducted. Yesterday Foster received the following very remarkable if not insulting telegram from his predecessor.

To Charles Foster, Governor of Lancaster, Pa.

Congratulations on your only victory in any rebellion. What do you think of your achievements? The Grand Army of the Republic recognizes your efforts in behalf of the soldier element of our party, and the German of the other cities in Ohio will ever appreciate your service in their behalf.

THOMAS L. YOUNG.

This afternoon Foster replied as follows to the above:

To the Hon. Thomas L. Young Cincinnati:

Your telegram received. Your Irony is excruciating, but a brave soldier, when sober, is not apt to in-sultate cowardice in others. I am happy over the fact that I made a square and honest fight for taxation of the liquor traffic, and the Sunday closing of saloons. Upon these questions I shall not take a backward step and will fight it out on this line. I deny your right to speak for the Grand Army of the Republic or the Germans upon this subject.

It is believed these two telegrams will be instrumental in stirring up the bitter strife between the German republicans and the Germans, and that this is but the beginning of a stalwart war on Foster, in order to kill him as a candidate for the Senate a year hence should republicans gain control of the general assembly next fall.

Express Robbed.

WILLIAMS, A. T., 14.—The stage coach from Prescott, A. T. en route to Williams, A. T., was stopped by road agents this morning at Hills Canyon, 21 miles south of this place. Wells, Fargo & Co's express was taken. The amount of money in the safe, not known, but is supposed to have been small.
Robinson, deputy district attorney, was the only passenger in the stage and he was not molested.

A Murderous Politician.

MURPHYBORO, Ill., 14.—It is just learned that on Wednesday night, while Congressman Thomas was making a campaign speech at Carbondale, a man named Bronson made an attempt to kill him with a large clasp knife, but being prevented, stabbed John Caswell, and would have done further injury had he not been knocked down and disarmed. The trouble originated in political hostilities to Mr. Thom-

Dying.

NEW YORK, 14.—The veteran editor of the Tribune, Wood, is slowly sinking into the grave, though momentarily here and there better.
His great age is against him, and improvements do not last long. Private sources say he never must be looked for in the very near future.

Sold.

WASHINGTON, 14.—The Sunday Capital, which was the property of Thomas J. Brady, ex-second Postmaster General, has been sold to publishers of the Army and Navy Register.

Chicago, 14.—A Washington special says Brady's sale of the Sunday Capital indicates the experiment of using instrumentalities of that sort in one or two other newspapers in route methods, has not proved satisfactory, successful or profitable.
At the time the star route trials began he owned the Capital, and newspapers here, the Republican, Critic and the Sunday Capital, and he rests under the suspicion of having paid considerable subsidies to him and two other newspapers in consideration of an agreement that he should not be attacked by them.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, 14.—One of the principal Egyptian ministers, declares that he will not leave Egypt until he remains in Egypt unless Arabi Pasha and other rebel leaders be executed.
He had complete confidence that Arabi could be proved to have given aid and comfort to the rebels, and trial of the leaders is fixed for Monday.

Mr. Edward Mallet has issued a circular to British consular agents in Egypt requesting them to send him a list of political prisoners in their respective towns and strictly watch them. The Khedive's orders for humane treatment will be carried out.

General Harlock Allen flatly denies the report that English soldiers slaughtered wounded Egyptians, and gives a satisfactory explanation of the so-called plundering of baggage.

Cairo, 14.—The trial of Arabi Pasha is fixed for Monday next.
Mark Francis Napier will defend Arabi Pasha.

The officer who acted under orders of Suleiman Pasha, revealed the plot to the British, and the trial of Alexandria, but the tribunal failed to extort evidence from the leaders of the rebellion.

Alexandria, 12.—Upwards of 30, 000 persons are lodged in camps amounting to $200,000 for losses after the bombardment of the city.

Constantinople, 14.—Sheikh Ob-eidullah, Kurdish Chief, with 10,000 men demanded the surrender of the city. Thirty thousand Persians, with Turkish troops and artillery are marching against him, and have been ordered to capture him dead or alive.

The Unwounded Emperor.

St. Petersburg, 14.—The Imperial family and court have left Peterhof Palace for Gatchina.

Bismarck's Successor.

Berlin, 14.—The appointment of Count Von Hatzfeldt to the foreign secretaryship has been definitely settled. Bismarck, however, during his stay at Athens, will succeed him as minister at Constantinople. It is considered by some persons that the appointment of Count Von Hatz-feldt is an indication that he will eventually succeed Prince Bismarck who is known to entertain the highest opinion of him.

Strikers.

Manchester, 14.—The conference of miners resolved that miners of Derbyshire, Lancashire, Yorkshire and North Wales, should simultaneously give notice of a demand for an advance of 15 per cent. wages.
The conference adjourned until the 27th inst.

Ashore.

London, 14.—The British steamer Preston, Captain Osborne, from New York for Newcastle, is ashore near Berwick. She stands upright, but her bowsprit is to the sea, which is running strong.

Oscar Wilde.

St. John, N. B., 14.—Oscar Wilde was arrested at the instance of the Young Men's Christian Association on the ground of breach of contract.
Oscar settled the case by paying $100.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

ments of Peru have declared for Piotro, and others will follow.

Jan. W. Greeley and sister were drowned on Saturday evening while Forty-eight new cases of yellow fever and two deaths were reported at Pensacola, Florida, last Saturities $104,000; assets more than cover the amount.

Aid for the yellow fever sufferers at Pensacola is asked. There are between 400 and 500 new cases without treatment.

Three women and a man, while driving in a carriage, were struck by the Chicago express near Syn-cuse, Ill., and killed.

Yellow fever has reached Guayaquil, forty-five miles above Mier, towards Largo. In Mier and Comargo the average death rate is 11 daily.

Sheikh Obaidullah, Kurdish chief, says he will cause no further trouble on the Russian frontier, but will pass the winter peacefully at Mosul.

Levee and railroad work on the Mississippi has drawn off so much labor that steamboats are glad to pay $75 per month for deck hands.

The New York Enamelled Furniture Company, which did the large-est business in the country, failed today. Liabilities $250,000; assets $200,000.

Gilland, Peterson and Anderson, were killed by an engine running them down last night. They were carelessly walking on the track.

Russian Hebrew refugees on Wards Island, New York, rioted on Saturday, because of their confinement and because they disliked the superintendent's harshness. A large force had to be called out to quell the disturbance.

At New London, Conn., W. A.
Carroll, reporter from the New Haven Register, formerly city editor of the Hartford Post and a member of the Fifth Avenue, New York Theatre Company, died to-day from an overdose of drug taken to induce sleep.

Senator W. H. Barnum last night refused to talk on politics. Postmaster General Howe said he looked for republican success in Wisconsin.
Republicans were waking up. Disaster may be beaten. Senator Congress by eight votes. A contest is talked of. This makes the Ohio delegation stand eight republicans and 13 democrats. On returns received it is estimated that the democratic majority in the State will be about 10,000.

A commercial traveler named Brooks has been committed for trial in the Bow Street police court for threatening to murder the Prince of Wales. He received money from him. The threat was received in a letter to Col. Tisdale, equerry to the Prince. The prisoner is apparently a crank. He said he served several years in the United States army.

At Boston, Captain Webb, the English swimmer, has performed the hazardous sensational feat of remaining 100 hours in a huge tank of fresh water at a temperature of 85 degrees. He lost 28 pounds during the time. He was allowed only 15 minutes in 24 hours in all time working, eating, drinking, sleeping and smoking in the bath. He made a bet at the conclusion of the performance that he could stay another 24 hours. The time will be up at 7:45 to-night. He is immersed to the neck.

COL. L. T. FOSTER,
YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, May 10th, 1880.

Dr. R. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt that I prized very highly, he had a long nose given me one lot and a small one on the other which made him a very valuable colt.
I sold him to you. I was one day reading the account of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express. I determined at once to try it. I ordered two bottles; I took them all and thought I would give him a trial and used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt could be used and the hump had disappeared. I used not one bottle and the colt's limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it. Very respectfully, L. T. FOSTER.

Kendall's Spavin Cure
Is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, yet it is a powerful and certain to reach every deep seated pain
