

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

ADJOURNED.—The Annual Conference adjourned this afternoon until the 6th of next October.

THEATRICAL.—"Rip Van Winkle" was presented to a well packed house last evening. So much has been said and written about Mr. Herne's natural personation of the kind-hearted Dutchman, that we can only say, notwithstanding the play has been repeated four or five times, it does not grow old with the public and never fails to fill the house.

The well-known play of "Flowers of the Forest" will be put upon the boards this evening, in which Miss Western, Miss Lockhart, Mr. Herne and the strength of the company appear.

POLICE.—John Hagartsen, was fined ten dollars this morning for being drunk and using profane language.

MUSIC.—Captain Parkman, with the Tenth Ward Brass Band, were out yesterday, and serenaded our office. This is the first appearance of the boys since they have obtained their new instruments; and the impression made was very favorable. The monster champion basses were quite prominent. We wish the band a hearty prosperity, and would like to see them often in a conspicuous place on our celebrations. We understand that they are contemplating a trip through the northern settlements, as far as Ogden.

Capt. Parkman, in company with Bros. Peter Barton and Joseph Harris, of the Kaysville Band, called to see us this morning, and we thank these gentlemen, on behalf of our citizens, for their music at the conference.

THE LECTURE.—Mrs. St. Clair's lecture, last evening, was well attended, the house being densely crowded. The subject, "Maiden, Wife and Mother," was well handled by the lady and appreciated by the audience. We gave a short synopsis of this lecture at the time of its first introduction—March 25th. The drawing of prizes went off in a lively manner, Mrs. Catherine Carson, of the Seventh Ward, holding the lucky number, 403, that drew the silver tea set. Our Local was noticed standing in the corner, ticket in hand, and his heart in his mouth, expecting a grand prize, which, by some "hitches" in the wheel of fortune, he never realized. Well, we can't all draw first prizes, but the chance of being successful makes one feel pretty well.

FRESH OYSTERS.—If our local has a weakness, it is a partiality for fresh oysters. He even asserts that it is one of the marks of true genius, as he is acquainted with several great men who are afflicted with symptoms exactly corresponding with those manifested in his case. Yesterday, it being Conferences, he persuaded a chum, to invite him to partake of a few bivalves. They (local and chum) hunted high and low, up and down, in and out of Main Street and its dependencies. Everybody said there was no fresh oysters in town. "Will anybody go into the business of raising these delicacies in this country?" they mentally exclaimed. At last, however, they found that what everybody said was wrong; for they popped into the basement of the Revere House, and there found just what they wanted. Oysters fat and delicious, with the oyster which make a meal an enjoyment. For the various good things that friend Simmons first read his advertisement, and then pay him a personal visit and judge for yourselves.

FOR SALE.—I have for sale a ticket numbered one hundred and forty, bought at Mrs. St. Clair's lecture, warranted to draw a dollar's worth of something, any how, with a first class chance of drawing a sewing or shingle machine. Having conscientious scruples in regard to getting $70 or $80 worth of merchandise without paying value received, I am induced, and hereby offer my ticket, with all its chances of drawing and not drawing, for the trifling sum of ten dollars. SAGEY.

DIED.—At Provo City, on the 30th ult., of influenza, John Park, aged 66 years. Bro. Park embraced the gospel in Canada, and emigrated to Nauvoo in 1845. He came to these valleys in 1847. The deceased has left a peaceful, unobtrusive life. He was faithful in all his duties, and leaves behind him a numerous family.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Andrew Johnson, formerly of Sweden, who came to this Territory last fall, wants to find out his sister, Ann Eliza Sorenson, who he has heard, is living somewhere in this city. He can be found at the Delmonico Hotel, Main street, Salt Lake City.

HOME MANUFACTURES.—The ladies of the Tenth Ward Female Relief Society sent us, on Saturday, a lady's home-made straw hat, the hat and trimmings being both entirely made from the straw, by Miss Mary Ann Cheshire, one of the ladies of the Society. As we held this dainty specimen of home manufacture in our hands, we felt proud of the progress of home manufactures in our midst. The braid is fine and regular, the shape elegant and neat, the trimming, which is also of straw—tinted green and violet—fast and simple. The more we look at it the more we are convinced that from henceforth there could be no excuse for the fair denizens of the valleys of Utah sending abroad for their straw hats and bonnets. Our sample could not be called unsatisfactory in shape, coarse in material, or clumsy in make, but on the contrary, it is just such an article as any fashionable lady in the East might wear and not risk her credit for good taste. We hope to see these manufactures fully developed, until every lady in our land will be supplied with as fine, tasteful and suitable head-gear as the Female Relief Society of the Tenth Ward can manufacture.

DIXIE ITEMS.—Guglielmo Glosio Rossette Giovanni, Esq., Editor of the St. George Outlook, visited our sanctum yesterday and gave us the following items from the "sunny South": The weather is very fine and spring early, apricots and other varieties of fruit trees were in blossom during the first two weeks of March, a few grasshoppers rejoicing that the people was going to raise something for them to eat.—The people are jubilant over the anticipated visit of President Young and party.—The new meeting-house in St. George is progressing rapidly.—Joseph E. Johnson has the largest and finest variety of fruit trees and flowers of any one man in Utah.—Walter E. Dodge manufactures over two thousand gallons of wine, annually, retelling it at four dollars per gallon.—Co-operation in Dixie, as every where else, is commanding a great deal of attention.—A Co-operative store with a capital of $14,000 is in good running order.—Broadstuffs at the present are rather scarce but a fair prospect of a plentiful harvest.—The best evidence of the intellectual prosperity and education of the inhabitants of St. George, that we know of, is that the majority of the people can properly spell and pronounce correctly the name of the Editor of the Outlook.—That's more than we can do.

DIED.—In Sugar House Ward, April 6th 1880, of inflammation of the bowels, John Thomas son of Robert and Frances Michie, aged 9 months and 23 days.
