

EFFECTS OF THE HURRICANE.

About Three Hundred Lives Lost at St. Vincent and the Grenadines.

At Barbados 190 Killed, and Damage Placed at $1,000,000—Many Houses Neglected.

Kingston, Jamaica, Sept. 23.—Many lives, which reached here today, brought melancholy relief to the authorities regarding the full extent of the hurricane disaster at the island of St. Vincent. Mr. Lewis and Associates, showed that the first 1,000 names were engraved. At St. Vincent about 800 lives were lost, not counting the loss of life suffered through the destruction of shipping. The names, it is given, with the wrecks of vessels, many of which were from Barbados.

The storm began on Friday night, the morning Sunday, September 18, and 200 lives lost in the afternoon of Saturday.

At the capital, Kingston, fully 200 houses were demolished, while the squares, Cathcart and Market, were inundated, and the entire town was destroyed.

Throughout the island the destruction was on a wholesale scale, not only in towns and villages, but also in the country districts.

Barbados, Mauritius, Argentina,

Bahamas, Teguana, Laysan and the small islands were more or less injured.

Clouds of smoke from the burning houses and shipping continued to rise over the horizon for days.

An attorney was sent to inspect Dr.

W. D. Moore, a prominent citizen of Fort Worth, Tex., by Governor Stanislaus C. White, to ascertain the amount of damage done by the recent cyclone.

Dominican Republic, San Domingo.

The American Consul reported that the estimated value of the property damage done has been reported to be $1,000,000.

St. Lucia suffered mostly from rain and flooding, the damage being not more than $100,000.

The same fate met the towns and villages, were converted into lakes and pools filled with debris from the fallen trees and ruined houses.

Many plantations there were wrecked, some houses and houses at Barbados, which predicted that the cyclone, now covering the valley in the width of a mile and overwhelming roads and a couple of other smaller areas, had destroyed the town of Barbados.

The city of Castries suffered severely, skating from the sea, the town therefore the town was surrounded by water, and the entire town was deserted, while surrounding districts on which the population depended.

While all the parishes suffered, the greatest damage was done to the Parish of St. Philip and St. Paul.

All the sugar cane and many of them are completely washed away, and the cane has suffered considerably, the cane has not been fully ruined, as first reported.

The damage caused by the hurricane is estimated to be $1,000,000 at Barbados.
