

Santa Fe Now Takes a Hand at Tracklaying to Head Off Invasion.

JUDGE HUNT BLOCKS SCHEME.

Endeavor to Compel Gould Engineers To Disclose Proposed Route

Got a Set Back.

San Francisco, Jan. 10 .- The track laying war between the Southern Paelfic and Santa Fe on one side and the Western Pacific on the other broke out in San Francisco today in the Potrero district. The Santa Fe agents hastily gathered together an army of workmen and with great speed laid rails along Rhode Island street until the long ribbon of steel rested on the eastern boundary of Potrero block 136. This block is s prize for which the corporations are struggling and for the possession of strugging and for the possession of of which legal proceedings have already started in the local superior courts. The track today runs through the block and the builders of the track have whatever advan-tage possession may bring. The Westtage possession may bring, the vice of the second s was not acting in good faith and asked that the Western engineers be sumthat moned to disclose their proposed right of way and survey. This effort to com-pel a disclosure of the Western Pacific plans was quickly denied by Superior Judge Hunt, who said:

Western Pacific cannot be compelled to disclose its proposed route to public. Obviously there are not mly corporations, but hundreds of in-dividuals that would be happy in the possession of the knowledge of just where this road is going to run. Even though no other opposing interests ex-isted, speculators would hurry to secure ands on the line, and prices would lean accordingly. The petition for the order denied.

KICK ON MILEAGE BOOKS.

Twenty Millions Tied up in Treasuries Of the Railroads.

Chicago, Jan. 11 .- The Tribune today

Twenty million dollars of money belonging to the jobbing and wholesale houses and manufacturers constantly is field up in the treasuries of the railoads from one year's end to another. and the railroads, which have the use of this money, pay no interest for the use of it. This enormous amount of money represents the excess that is paid by the traveling men for their mileage books and is not returned until after tht 1,000 mile book has been used. The railroads contend that their only safeguard is selling these thousand mile books at reduced rates, two cents a mile is the fare, is collected this extra one cent a mile, or $10, at the time the book is sold, to be returned when the empty cover is turned in. This bus-and there is considerable interest here in the match. The Denverite is trying hard to climb up a few more rungs on the championship ladder, but it is quabiful if he will ever again reach the top. There seems to be room for but one man in that position-Battling Nelson. When the match was made, it was not believed by Los Angeles fight fans that Corbit could get down to weight, as he carried a great deal of fat. But he has surprised the fans by his constant and strenuous training and careful iving. He is now down to weight and apparently has the punch of yore. He has an advantage over the Mexican in point of cleverness, but he will have to be mighty carcial that he is not on the receiving end of Herrera's right hook. When the Mexican lands the punch there is generally a job for the referee. Herrera is one of the hardest punchers among the little fellows, but he is not noted for cleverness or gameness. If Cor-bett's condition is such that he can stand the gaff, he should win over the Mexican. But he will have to be in better shape than when he fought Nelson, or there will be another black mark on his record. Both boys are looking allead for a chance at Britt or Nelson. The winner will have to meet some lesser lights be-fore there will be a chance for such a match. According to Los Angeles papers, there

The claim is made by passenger men that if a mileage book was sold at a hat rate of two cents a mile, which would require no refund or extra ex-penditure on the part of the purchaser, it would result in wholesale scalping of these books, and few persons would purchase regular tickets, even for short fourneys because of the comparative ease with which they could get mileage books from scalpers. For Capturing the Cup. New York, Jan. 11.—Sir Thomas Lipton is making plans for another campaign against the New York Yacht club next year and the bone of contention will be the America's cup for which the popular inshearonet aiready has tried three ines. A letter received in this city from Sir Thomas says he still has hopes of captur-ing the famous trophy and is considering plans for the building of a new chal-lenger which he hopes to have here some time in 1907. Just what plans he is mak-ing now he will not divuige, but he is pleased to think that the next time ho comes he can bring a good wholesome type of boat and will be met by one built under certain restrictions that will bar excessive overhangs and other freakish methers. It is said on good authority that Sir Thomas may bring over a schooner and that the new boat will be built up to the limit of that type of yacht allowed under the terms of deed or gift, which is 115 feet on the waterline.
