FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The list of coming immigrants appears in today's issue.

The Salt Lake Stake Conference opens at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Yesterday was the Sixth Anniversary of the organization of the 21st Ward.

There is a decided moderation in the temperature of the atmosphere, rendering life more comfortable and endurable.

Brother D. R. Gull naturally feels proud about his fourth of July baby. It has been suggested that the stranger he named "Independence" is the object of being long-winded, and is open to being contracted to "Pencil."

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The regular semi-annual Conference of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will be held in the Assembly Hall, on Saturday and Sunday, July 7th and 8th, at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. of each day.

AROUS M. CANSON,
DAVID O. CALDER,
JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,
Presidents of Stake.

Releases and Appointments.—Elder Herbert L. James is released from the British Conference and appointed to labor in the business department of the Millennial Star Office.—Millennial Star, June 18th.

Normals.—We learn from Mr. T. B. Lewis, County Board of District School, that the Board of Examination for Salt Lake County, will meet all Normal applicants for the ensuing Academic year, at the 20th District school house, Monday, July 16th, at 10 a. m.

The Fire-cracker. Nuisance.—Last evening a young man named Tattle had a lot of horses restored to him. It was brought from City Creek Canyon, and when found the saddle was reversed, and a front foot through the bridle. On the evening of the Fourth on First East St., a chairman fired off a cracker, frightened and caused him to break loose and run away.

Mutual Aid Society.—The regular monthly meeting of the Employees' Mutual Aid Society of Z. C. M. I. Shoe Factory and Tannery will be held tomorrow night, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. An excellent program has been prepared. All employees of the shoe and clothing factories and tannery are invited; no others will be admitted, except by tickets, which may be procured by application to Mr. W. H. Rowe.

Battery Case.—Last evening Jacob Flone and James Marsden, Jr., quarrelled. It appears that Flone met with an accident the night previous, his horse being frightened by the explosion of a fire cracker near the Kimball Block, and he was thrown out of his wagon, tearing his ear and damaging his head. He told Marsden that if he hadn't been broken all up about the head he should give him a drubbing. He went off and when near the Utah Central depot Marsden caught up with him, and notwithstanding his disabled condition, gave him an unmerciful thrashing. Marsden was arrested.

"Vim."—"Vim" has been a great success at the Theatre. Nell Burgess' talent is well known and recognized in this city, and every movement and sentence of his takes with the public. His "Mrs. Puffy" is fully up to "Widow Bedott," and the play of "Vim" gives him ample opportunity for the exercise of his powers. It is an interesting play and all the performers are very good. The novelty of the revolving stage must be seen to be appreciated. It is really new and the effect is quite startling. Burgess has a fortune in his new venture.

The Benefit.—The following is the programme of the O. R. Savage Benefit Concert, to be given at the Theatre on Friday evening, 13th inst.

Overture, Orchestra; Glee by the Choir; Song, Miss Agnes Olsen; Vocal Quartette, Messrs. Foster, Gaudin, Owen and Morgan; Violin Solo, W. E. Weber; Song, Mrs. Lavinia Carleson; Chorus from Norma, the Choir; Overture, Orchestra; Vocal Quartette by Messdames Nellie Bruce, Laura N. Smith, Maggie Hull and Sarah E. Langford; Song, James T. Dunbar; Vocal Trio by Miss Agnes Olsen and Messrs. H. G. Whitney and J. D. Spencer; Song, Evan Spencer; Chorus by the Choir. Conductor, E. Beemly; Accompanist, J. J. Daynes. Admission, usual theatre rates; extra charge for reserved seats. Tickets will be on sale tomorrow, at various places to be hereafter announced.

What a White Patch Did.—Yesterday a man entered the office of Attorney Gae, east of the White House, and inquired if a man whose name he gave, was about the place. He was answered in the negative, when he passed into another room, took a couple of coats from the pegs from which they were hanging and towed them out of the window. A confederate of the thief who was waiting below, picked up the garments, leaped the fence and escaped.

Fortunately for the owner of the coats, and not quite so for the party that ran off with the property, the latter had a white patch on an unmentionable part of his pantaloons. He was arrested by officers Phillips and Thomas, but the witnesses stated they could not positively identify his facial features. They said, however, that if he were the man he had a white patch on his pants. The gentle policeman turned him around and there was the patch sure enough. The other thief who threw the coats from the window was also arrested. Their names are James Young and Robert Brown.

The moral of this incident is that a white patch will, under some circumstances, serve a similar purpose to the dramatic "smoke on the left eye."

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE.

A DISAPPOINTED PRISONER DESPERATELY DOES HIMSELF DEADLY INJURY.

On the night of the 4th, Cypress Moore, the young man who is confined in the Salt Lake County Jail on a charge of having stolen George Crismon's horse, made an attempt to escape. He first tried to dig his way through the west wall of the prison. Failing in this he commenced to work at the ceiling making quite a large hole, but was equally unsuccessful in that direction.

Mr. Alex. Burt, the jailor, hearing some one groaning, entered the cell, when his eyes were greeted with a gory spectacle. Moore lay upon the floor on his back with a series of long gashes cut down the front of his body, extending from the neck to the region of the stomach. It appears that the young fellow, finding that he was baffled in his attempts to gain his freedom, broke a bottle which had contained a quantity of milk, and with the fragments of the glass cut himself in a fit of desperation in the manner described. Fortunately none of the wounds were of a dangerous character, though they caused him considerable suffering.

This makes the fourth attempt of prisoners to escape while Mr. Burt has been in charge of the jail, each of which was abortive.

THE SILVER LAKE CASUALTY.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE SAD AFFAIR.

Yesterday we made a brief statement to the effect that Robert Ritter and another young man were accidentally drowned on Silver Lake on the 4th. The names of the other deceased is William Ayers. They were, in company with Amos Shaffer, out on the water on a boat, and engaged in a scuffling frolic, when the little vessel turned bottom side up. Shaffer being unable to swim, clung to the boat and managed to mount it. The other two being expert swimmers, struck for the shore, but becoming exhausted failed to reach it and sank.

No persons were near at the time, and Shaffer shouted with all the vocal energy he possessed, until the sound of his cries reached the people at the hotel, when eight or ten men rushed to the edge of the lake. There being no other boat than the one to which Shaffer was clinging he was reached and rescued by means of an old raft. Ayer's body was recovered at 5 p. m. the same day, an hour after the accident, but that of Ritter was not reached until 10 o'clock yesterday morning. Both were brought to the mouth of Big Cottonwood last evening, and handed over to the Justice of the Peace of Bitter Precinct.

Ritter, who was 24 years old, and a resident of Big Cottonwood Ward, where his mother and other relatives live. Ayer, aged 25 years, was a stranger, having come from the East some time since.

We understand that none of the parties were under the influence of liquor when the accident occurred, all three being quite sober.

How It Was at Grantsville.—The Fourth was heartily celebrated in Grantsville, the proceedings being conducted in the meeting house. The preparations were arranged and conducted by a committee appointed by the City Council. They were, W. R. Judd, A. L. Hale and Wm. Green. The musical exercises were ably conducted by Prof. Ratcliff, the leading musician of the county, who is doing much good in that line. He is leader and instructor of a brass and other bands, including a juvenile martial one.

Wm. Jeffers, an orator of the day, delivered a telling speech. Excellent speeches were also delivered by F. Keeler, of education; W. Rydahl, on Co-operation; W. R. Judd, on Grantsville. The last named was a regular side splitter, the speaker keeping the audience in a constant condition of hilarity by the relation of sparkling local allusions and anecdotes.

Among the features of the occasion was a public dinner given by the brass band. There was a large variety of field and other sports, the scene closing with a dancing party at night.

Expected to arrive.—By private note from Bishop O. F. Whitney we learn that the company of immigrants with whom he crossed the Atlantic had a prosperous voyage. Good health was the rule, seasickness being almost the only ailment. Headwinds, however, were encountered during the greater portion of the passage, and a good deal of foggy weather.

The vessel entered New York harbor at 7:30 a. m. July 1st, the 25th anniversary of Bishop Whitney's birth. A shipyard towards Bro. J. H. Hart, accompanied by Hon. John W. Young, went on board. Bishop Whitney and Elder Geo. O. Parkinson proposed stopping in New York until Monday morning, the 21st inst., and if nothing unforeseen should occur, will reach this city tomorrow evening.

Released on Account of Ill Health.—On Saturday evening Elder John McQuarrie arrived home from a mission to his native land, Scotland. He left Ogden last October, with some other Elders and in due time reached his field of labor. But after he had been there some time he discovered the climate was too heavy for his constitution. He was taken sick and continued to get worse, so the authorities of the British mission released him from his labors in the ministry. He started home in advance of the company of immigrants which sailed June 28th, and reached home as above stated, June 30th. Although we are pleased to say that Elder McQuarrie is not prosaized, still he is very feeble and requires rest.—Ogden Herald.

Who Has Seen It?—A dark brindle cow with some white under belly; last seen on the State Road. Has strayed from the owner; she is giving milk. Information will be thankfully received and trouble rewarded by applying at this office or to C. W. Pentecost, 8th Ward.

DEATH OF JOSEPH TORONTO.

At a quarter past ten o'clock this morning, Brother Joseph Toronto, after an illness extending over a period of six years, breathed his last, at his residence, in the Eighteenth Ward. The deceased was an old member of the community, and much respected for his exemplary conduct. He was a native of the Island of Sardinia, where he was born in 1818. When he was a mere child his parents immigrated to Palermo, Sicily. In early life he was engaged as a seaman in the Mediterranean merchant service, and subsequently held the same position on American vessels. He embraced the Gospel in 1845, being baptized in Boston, by Elder George B. Wallace. He soon afterwards went to Nauvoo, via New Orleans.

The life of Brother Toronto exhibits many interesting incidents reflecting credit on the goodness of his heart. The late President Young used to frequently tell one of a more than ordinarily striking character. It was to the effect that when the authorities of the Church appeared to be at a standstill in the prosecution of the work of finishing the Nauvoo Temple, Brother Toronto entered a room where a meeting was being held and poured out upon a table a large quantity of gold, $2,000, which was contained in a number of old oyster cans, to be used in advancing the work.

He came to this Valley with the Pioneers, traveling in President Young's company, with whom he resided for several years. In 1853 he located in the Eighteenth Ward. Among other labors he performed in connection with the Church was a mission to Italy, in 1848, soon after he came to this Valley. He performed another mission to Sicily, going in 1875 and returning in 1877, when he brought here at his own expense, a company of fifteen Sicilians. Subsequent circumstances connected with that event appeared to bear heavily upon his mind, materially affecting his health, and he never recovered his former balance.

While many people know a great deal of good about Brother Toronto, we do not think there is anyone who can truthfully say anything bad about him.

The funeral services will be conducted at the Eighteenth Ward Chapel at 4:30 p. m. on Sunday, the 8th of July.

The Work in England.—From the Millennial Star of June 11th, we learn that Elder Isaac Green and other brethren were recently abused by a mob at a place called Hanham, a few miles from Brighton. They attempted to hold an open-air meeting, which was, however, broken up, and they were followed half a mile by a crowd and pelted with a variety of missiles, one stone striking Elder Rhee in the back. The brethren did not feel at all discouraged by these demonstrations, and proposed prosecuting their labors with undiminished vigor.

The same periodical contains the following:

"While Elders G. O. Parkinson, W. F. Smith, B. Bennett and H. L. James were holding an open air meeting at Birkenhead on Friday evening last, a preacher named Joe Adam, of the Christian Church, publicly challenged Bro. Parkinson to discuss with him the doctrines of 'Mormonism,' declaring he could prove them unscriptural. The challenge was accepted, and the discussion will be held in the Christiana meeting house, Wesley Street, off Cloughton Road, Birkenhead, on Tuesday, June 12, commencing at 7:45 p. m."

The American Falls Murder.—We are indebted to Mr. D. B. Dille for an account of the murder of Mr. George Mowry. Our having published the same facts yesterday is the reason why his communication does not appear. We appreciate his favor or all the same, however.

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., had a very narrow escape from death. This is his own story: "One year ago I was in the last stages of Consumption. My best physicians gave me up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours. My friends then purchased a bottle of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, which benefited me. ## OFFER OF SECURITY, IN DEM.

Messrs. Tanner & Richmond, agents for the Bohemian Lightening Cable, have located in this city, with their offices in the first basement south of Postoffice. Watch block, and are prepared to do work on short notice. The public will please observe that this cable is in all respects far superior to any lightning rod now in use before. This cable is made of nine separate tubes, the inner surface being of zinc and the outer of copper, which gives this cable a combination of two of the best metals known as conductors. Then the nine tubes are twisted together by machinery, which gives it strength and stability. It is also continuous, which completes its perfection. Above all, these gentlemen construct all work on the circuit system, which is strictly in accordance with scientific principles, as laid down in the Agricultural Report of 1859, which will give absolute protection to both property and human lives.

These gentlemen come well recommended. Below is a list of parties whom they did work for in Salt Lake City, Wyo.

We the undersigned had work done by Messrs. Tanner & Richmond, and cheerfully recommend the cable as the finest we ever saw, and heartily endorse the system of construction.
