PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

HUNGARY.

War Considered Unavoidable.

PESTH, 18.—Intelligence from Vienna states that England considers all diplomatic action at Constantinople at an end. This statement has produced a very gloomy feeling here, and war is considered unavoidable.

Advices from Bucharest state that an agreement has been concluded between Roumania and Russia for placing Roumanian troops under Russian officers in case of war.

A correspondent telegraphs an interview with Ristics, the Servian prime minister, in which he stated that the resumption of hostilities, in which Russia will participate, is certain.

London correspondents, at different points, telegraph as follows: All Russians in Paris, under the age of 40, have been ordered home.

The new Russian ironclad, Peter the Great, is to leave Constadt immediately for the Mediterranean.

Russia has issued a circular note, announcing that in the interests of humanity she feels bound to march troops into Bulgaria and Armenia. There are 82,000 men at the camp of Bender, and 64,000 around Tiflis.

Austria's eastern policy will conform to that of Russia and Germany.

Providence Jubilee.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 15, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

To-day the Providence Sunday School met in jubilee in the Providence Hall, which was nicely decorated for the occasion with wreaths, chromos, and pictures of different kinds.

We were honored by the presence of Presidents Brigham Young, Jr., and John W. Young.

The jubilee was presided over by Supt. J. H. Brown, Sr., who had been, with the assistance of W. W. Low, chief chorister of the jubilee, the principal mover of the enterprise.

At 10 a.m. the congregation, consisting of the children and the adults of Providence, was called to order, when the multitudes of children, with countenance expressive of much joy, sang clearly and sweetly "The Opening Hymn," followed with prayer by Bishop M. D. Hammond.

The children again sang the exhilarating "Sunday School Invitation," followed by Elder J. H. Brown, Jr., asking questions, as published in the Juvenile Instructor of 1875, on the History of the Prophet Joseph Smith, which were answered promptly and harmoniously by the Sunday School children.

Prest. John W. Young addressed the children in a pleasing and most interesting manner, which will certainly leave an impression upon their minds not soon to be forgotten. He told the children how, by obeying their parents, cultivating good habits, keeping good company, refraining from all profanity, and storing their minds with all good and useful knowledge, they could become good and wise men and women, to bear off the kingdom of God. He spoke very encouragingly of the manner in which the questions were answered, and of the good attendance of the children.

Prest. B. Young, Jr., followed with an attractive address on cleanliness. He stated that cleanliness was godliness, and it was necessary to be clean in order to be healthful. He urged that the children be neat and clean in their manner of dress. He was pleased with the appearance and condition of the Sabbath school of Providence.

After the children had sung "Children of the Saints," they were dismissed, with prayer, until 2 p.m., by Prest. John W. Young.

At 2 p.m., the congregation being again called to order, the children sang very effectually "Deseret."

Prayer by Elder G. W. Marler. "Daisy" was sweetly sung by the school, after which questions were again asked on the Prophet's history, and were answered as before.

Elder G. W. Marler addressed the school, exhorting the young men to study and qualify themselves for the promotion of the kingdom of God. He said the young men but little knew at what time they would be called upon to disseminate the gospel of Christ in foreign lands or elsewhere.

Supt. J. H. Brown, Sr., addressed the children and their parents. He urged upon the parents the importance of their occasionally attending the Sabbath schools, which would greatly tend to encourage the little folks in their punctual attendance.

Singing by the school, "Some place for me."

Bishop W. D. Hammond asked the children a few questions, and followed by eulogizing the superintendent, teachers, scholars and parents for the success of the jubilee.

"Praise ye the Lord" was most harmoniously rendered by the whole school, the countenances of the scholars being indicative that all felt blessed with the instruction received, and were highly elated with the success of the jubilee.

The jubilee was enjoyed by all present, there being a good spirit; harmony and order prevailed throughout.

Benediction by Elder John Theurer.

B. W. FULLMER, Secretary.

To Trappers, Co-operative Stores and Others:

As numbers of our Patrons are already bringing and sending in MUSKRAT SKINS, we wish to state that those pelts are always of an Inferior Grade, when taken from animals which are trapped before about November 15th. We cannot, therefore, purchase Skins taken off prior to that date.
