Local and Other Matters.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, OCT. 28.

Returned.—Dr. Dunford, dentist, has returned from attending the funeral of his father, and will be found at his office, south of S. P. Teasdel.

Water Claims.—The attention of parties interested in the Big Cottonwood Creek Water Claims is called to the notice published by the arbitrators of said claims in this evening's NEWS.

Assisting.—Judge P. H. Emerson is up from Provo, assisting Chief Justice Hunter, in disposing of the criminal business of the Third District Court. The latter is occupied with the civil calendar.

Killing Fish Unlawfully.—It is reported that parties have been killing fish with giant powder in Jordan River. A gentleman states that he heard the blast up the river and saw hundreds of small fish floating down the stream afterward, but as he was afraid he could not ascertain who the law breakers were. The fish and game society should inquire into this matter.

Emigrants.—The company of Saints which left Liverpool on the 18th inst., were in New York this evening, and according to a dispatch from Elder W. C. Staines, intended leaving for the west this evening. The voyage across the ocean has been a speedy one. Elder Staines intended starting home on Saturday the 1st prox.

Museum.—Some interesting fossil shells have been received from Elder J. H. Van Natta, who writes cheerfully from Moscow, Ala. While engaged in the ministry, Brother Van Natta is not insensible to the importance of making passing observations on the various countries in which he labors, and contributing to our local museum.

"Enquirer" Notes.—Last Wednesday, a fine fat steer was thrown from the track by the freight train just south of the Provo depot; its shoulder was broken and it was so crippled that it had to be killed.

Following is an extract from a letter received by Mr. Osborn, from Gooseberry Creek, Sevier County, dated Oct. 21, 1879:

"An Indian named Warpanna has just come in from White River, and says that about 500 Indians had a fight with 100 United States soldiers a few days ago, and the Indians killed all the troops except two; they being large fat fellows their lives were spared."

Inventions.—Mr. George Bord, of the 13th Ward, called on us yesterday, to exhibit some inventions, the recent results of his thoughtful and ingenious mind. He had two kinds of window fasteners, whose construction is as cunning as anything of the kind we have ever seen. They work with levers, so arranged that the window may be raised to any desirable height and secured, fastened down entirely, or close enough to defy the burglar and yet admit ventilation. The two kinds work on similar principles and are for rich and poor respectively. He also has a movable breach gun sight, an improvement upon the kinds now in use, inasmuch as it can be taken out so as not to obstruct the vision when the other range is used; also two kinds of improved clothes pins. These inventions all speak very creditably of the ingenuity that created them, and we trust the inventor will accomplish his purpose of finding some one with means willing to take hold and assist him in manufacturing and placing them upon the market.

District Court.—Proceedings Monday morning, Oct. 27.

People, etc., vs. J. F. Graham, embezzlement; demurrer to indictment overruled. Defendant pleads not guilty.

The People, etc., vs. Kennedy J. Handley; trial fixed for November 5, 1879.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, OCT. 29.

Equity Calendar.—The call of the equity calendar in the Third District Court will commence Monday morning, November 3d, beginning at No. 165.

A Nice Testimonial.—We have been shown a couple of large sized photographs, from the gallery of Ch. Eichenberg, Commercial Street, one of the subjects being a view of the west end of the Temple, with the architects and all the workmen employed about the structure, congregated upon and around the walls, while the other is a group of stone setters, nineteen in number, comprising the entire force of workmen engaged in laying stone on the Temple. Both pictures are well executed. On the day the season's work ended, both photographs, nicely colored and framed, were presented to Brother Thomas Jones, foreman of the stone setters, by his companion workmen as a testimonial of esteem. He desires us to express for him his sense of the courtesy, and appreciation of the kindly feeling that prompted it.

Alarm of Fire.—At about four o'clock this morning, the citizens of Salt Lake and adjacent settlements were awakened by the furious and prolonged ringing of the fire bell, and shortly afterward the brigade were at the scene of an incipient conflagration in the rear premises of the Palace Baths, Commercial Street. Some ashes, supposed to be lifeless, emptied two days ago from the heating engine of that establishment underneath a pile of wood near by, had retained their heat, taken hold of the combustible material above, and the flames were climbing out of the cracks and window, when a Chinaman living across the alley awoke the proprietors of the Baths and apprized them of their danger. The blaze was extinguished shortly after the firemen arrived, and what might have been a big fire was nipped in the beginning. The loss is but nominal, one window being broken while getting the hose where it could play upon the flames.

District Court.—Proceedings Tuesday, October 28th, 1879.

People, etc., vs. Wm. Douglas, arson, 1st degree; defendant pleads guilty of arson, in second degree. Sentence fixed for Thursday, Oct. 30th. Prisoner remanded.

People, etc., vs. Wm. Price, assault with intent to commit rape; jury disagree and are discharged. Prisoner remanded.

Wednesday morning Oct. 29.
People, etc., vs. Joseph Chase, assault with deadly weapon, &c.; dismissed and ordered that the clerk pay over money deposited in lieu of a bond herein.

People, etc., vs. Howard W. Cole, embezzlement; continued for term.

People, etc., vs. Louis Carpenter, grand larceny; jury trial in progress.

Thomas McLelland, administrator, vs. Warren Hussey et al; demurrer of defendant J. R. Walker and wife, overruled. Defendants demurring, except. Ten days given to plead.

City Council.—Proceedings at the City Council on Tuesday evening, October 28th, 1879, Mayor Little presiding:

A petition from George Nebeker, asking that a bad spring near his residence in the Nineteenth Ward, be repaired, was referred to the Street Supervisor.

A petition of Mark McKimmins, asking the use of part of the street in front of the vacant lot between the White House and Walker House, on East Temple Street, upon which to place building material, was granted under the usual restrictions.

Bill of Charles M. Evans, for services in Recorder's Office during February last, $9.40, was allowed on city taxes.

Thirty copies of the ordinance in relation to numbering houses was ordered to be printed in open lines for the use of the council.

The committee on municipal laws reported an ordinance in relation to the use of flippers, which was read and referred back to the committee, with the city attorney associated.

Adjourned to next Tuesday evening at the usual hour.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, OCT. 30.

Scared by the Cars.—The freight train at Wood's Cross, yesterday morning, frightened a horse attached to a buggy containing a young boy, and the animal, rearing and plunging, threw the youth out of the vehicle, the wheel passing twice over his head. He was not seriously hurt, however.

New Tabernacle.—Plasterers are now wanted for the New Tabernacle. All who wish to apply labor in that direction, will please report to Supt Henry Grow as soon as possible. As many as can, will please see their Bishops so that the latter can report this evening at their meeting. The committee are very anxious to have the building finished for use by the next Quarterly Conference of the Stake.

Marriage.—The Daily Express, of Easton, Penna., on the 22nd inst., contained an announcement of the intended marriage of Mr. A. Keyser, one of Salt Lake's prominent citizens, to Miss Nettie A. Depue, of Belvidere, New Jersey. The nuptial knot was to be tied the same day, and the newly made husband and wife were to start for Utah in the evening. We extend our congratulations to Mr. Keyser and his lovely bride.

Horse Thief Captured.—"Whiskey Bill," a horse thief, was captured by Sheriff Brown in Ogden, night before last, and lodged in jail. His last exploit was at Kelton, where he stole a valuable horse, sold it in Corinne, and with the money was making his way east. A descriptive telegram from the owners of the animal was sent to Sheriff Brown who nabbed his man at the railroad transfer. "Bill" offered the Sheriff $50 to let him go but the latter couldn't see it in that way.

Another Editor.—Mr. A. B. Taylor, a gentleman well known in this city, and a member of the legal profession, contemplates starting a newspaper in that field of journalistic failures, Beaver. Mr. Taylor is now busy making arrangements to launch his new bark on the sea of literary enterprise. He thinks he will have ample time to pursue the study of law and run his paper at the same time, which problem, though much inclined to receive with a grain or two of saline material, we will leave to the gentleman's acknowledged energy and ability to elucidate. We wish him every success in his undertaking.

"Junction" Jottings.—The I. X. L. Bakery caught fire yesterday morning, but the lively work of passers by soon extinguished the flames.

Mr. John Fowler has been arrested for polygamy, and has given bonds for his appearance. Williams and Richards are his attorneys.

Frederic D. H. Peery and family are expected to arrive home on this evening's U. P. express.

The "Lancashire Lass" is shortly to be produced in Ogden, with several Salt Lake celebrities in the cast.

A "round house" is about to be constructed at the depot grounds. Most of the material is at hand, and the work will be rapidly pushed forward.

This morning's Junction, from which the foregoing items are taken is the best number of the paper we have seen for a long time. It is brim full of newsy, interesting articles. Keep it up.

District Court.—Proceedings this morning:

Thomas Wright admitted to citizenship.

People, etc., vs. Elias Weather-shult. Grand larceny. Bail forfeited.

U. S. vs. J. B. Sherman; obtaining letter by false pretenses. Jury trial, verdict not guilty.
