

SIGN ARMISTICE IN MANCHURIA.

Arrangements Will be Entrusted
To Linevitch and Oyama, Respective Commanders.

M. NELIDOFF AND MARQUIS ITO

Will Head Russian and Japanese Missions—Former Prefers French.
Latter English Language.

Washington, June 16.—Alone on the plains of Manchuria, midway between the two great armies, the Russian and Japanese commanders will meet to sign the armistice which will pave the way for the Washington conference if the present tentative program is followed. Exchanges on this point are now in progress between Tokyo and St. Petersburg via Washington, but no final conclusion has been reached. It was first thought a preliminary protocol might be signed in Washington providing for a temporary cessation of hostilities, but in view of the fact that this concerns directly the armies in the field it is believed that arrangements of the armistice would be best entrusted to Linevitch and Oyama, the respective commanders in chief, who in such event would be telegraphed special powers to sign. The time limit for the armistice has not been fixed, but it will be comparatively brief, that the progress of the conference may be assisted as much as possible.

Prior to the signing of the armistice, however, will come the official announcement of the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries. Russia has indicated that her mission will be headed by M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador to Paris, and it is understood that the emperor has requested Marquis Ito to head the Japanese mission, although the distinguished president of the privy council, so far as known here, has not yet accepted. Only his health would seem to him to decline, by which would be selected in his place. Neither country has suggested the names of the other plenipotentiaries, nor has the number finally been agreed upon, though the belief tonight is that there will be three on a side.

With Marquis Ito, it is believed, will come one of the other great statesmen of Japan who has had wide diplomatic experience, and Mr. Takubira, the Japanese minister, it is suggested here, may be named as the third plenipotentiary. Another important detail which has been the subject of informal conversations at the White House is the language to be used at the conference. Russia will ask that the French language be used, Japan will express a preference for English, and in recognition of the courtesy to be extended the plenipotentiaries by the Washington government, diplomats believe that the English language, if not accepted as the official language of the conference, will be used jointly with the French, the proceedings of the conference being recorded in both tongues.

JAPAN MAY MAKE FURTHER FOREIGN LOANS

New York, June 16.—K. Takahashi, financial agent of Japan, who looked after the flotation here of his country's war loans, has received dispatches from the imperial minister of finance, summoning him to Tokyo at once. He will leave New York June 24, and sail for home on July 3. Mr. Takahashi will appear before the imperial cabinet immediately after his return in Tokyo, and confer with the officers upon the advisability of making further large loans in foreign markets in the event that peace then seems assured. If these plans are carried out it will be with the object of making ready for business conditions which will follow the cessation of hostilities.

In expressing his confidence that an early and satisfactory peace will be arranged, Mr. Takahashi said: "Japan will need a considerable amount of money after the war to give new impetus to her industries. While business in Japan at present is in no way injured, yet if the money advanced by the Japanese people in the first war loan of $250,000,000, is returned to them on the termination of the war it will give a tremendous new life to Japanese industries. All departments of business will be vastly benefited by this large amount of money being put back into commercial channels."

"While I cannot speak with authority at this time, I believe it is the desire of the government to float a new loan in case of the termination of the war, to take up the domestic loan made just after the commencement of hostilities."

Mr. Takahashi said he believed that a new loan made either in America or England could be placed at as low a rate as 4 per cent.

In the event of a continuance of hostilities, a new loan to carry on the war doubtless will be made within three months. About $140,000,000 of the foreign loan remains on deposit divided between the banks of America and England.

The financier expressed great admiration for the negotiations in the direction of ending the war inaugurated by President Roosevelt.

CAR AND MAILWAGON COLLIDE

Driver Fatally Injured, Many Passengers Hurt.

New York, June 15.—In a collision at Thirty-sixth street early today between a Third avenue electric car and a United States mail wagon, the driver of the latter was fatally injured. More than a dozen passengers, many of them women, were thrown from the car and severely hurt.

The mail wagon and car were going in the same direction. At Thirty-sixth street the wagon suddenly swung into the car tracks and the heavy trolley struck it. The wagon was crushed to pieces. Thomas Tandy, the driver, was hurled about half a mile up the hill above the residence of Mrs. Williams near Lancha Plaza. The head had been crushed in and it was apparent that the boy was murdered, doubtless by the same man or men who murdered his aged grandmother last Sunday night.

There had been some suspicion that the boy had murdered the aged lady, but it is now plain that a double murder has been committed. There is no clue to the assassins.

A DOUBLE MURDER.

An Old Woman and Her Grandson the Victims.

Stockton, Cal., June 16.—Sheriff Norman of Amador county telephoned to Sheriff Shibley here today that the body of Chester Maker, the grandson of the murdered Mrs. George Williams, was found about half a mile up the hill above the residence of Mrs. Williams near Lancha Plaza. The head had been crushed in and it was apparent that the boy was murdered, doubtless by the same man or men who murdered his aged grandmother last Sunday night.

There had been some suspicion that the boy had murdered the aged lady, but it is now plain that a double murder has been committed. There is no clue to the assassins.

PLENIPOTENTIARIES' MEETING.

Time Not Fixed—Russian Chauvinists
Very Pessimistic—Waiting On Japan.

St. Petersburg, June 17, 1:45 a. m.—Although in the absence of official advice the Russian government is not yet able to announce the definite conclusion of arrangements for the meeting of the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries, the foreign office last night said the negotiations to that end were progressing rapidly, and issued a statement for publication in this morning's newspapers acquainting the public with the speedy progress toward the opening of the conference.

Count Cassini's report of the selection of Washington from the cities favored by Russia has not yet arrived, but it is thought the ambassador is waiting for the fixing of the date of meeting, which will depend on the traveling arrangements Marquis Ito, president of the Japanese privy council, and M. Nelidoff, Russian ambassador at Paris, will make necessary to perform the journey. After final arrangements have been made, the foreign office, it is expected, will issue another official note announcing the successful completion of steps preliminary to the conference and naming Russia's representative or representatives. This communication of the foreign office is as follows:

"According to advice from Washington, immediately after the receipt of the Russian note responding to the proposition of President Roosevelt, negotiations as to the place and the time of meeting commenced. These negotiations are proceeding speedily, but are not yet actually finished."

Pessimistic chauvinists are building mountains out of the wording of the Associated Press dispatch from Washington announcing that Great Britain was unwilling to use her influence with Japan to moderate her ally's terms, declaring that if it meant that Great Britain had sounded Japan and found her in a mood to insist on a heavy indemnity and other humiliating demands, it also meant the indefinite prolongation of the war.

The general disposition, however, is to suspend judgment until Japan reveals her terms, and in diplomatic circles there is a hopeful feeling that these terms will form the basis of a possible agreement. In conversation yesterday with a friend, M. Witte, president of the council of ministers, declared himself along the lines of the interview with him printed in the Slova Wednesday morning, which was filled with the gloomiest forebodings, as related in these dispatches, and in which M. Witte declared that he could not serve as one of the plenipotentiaries for three reasons, the last of them being that he should do everything to avoid it.

"Even if the rumor of Lamedorff's resignation is true, which I insist is not the case," said M. Witte in the Slova interview, "the main situation would not be changed, and the first and third reasons would hold for me."

As the Associated Press stated, while M. Witte's name was not mentioned in the interview, the veil of his identity could be easily pierced. In the conversation yesterday, M. Witte confirmed the statement that it was utterly impossible that he could participate in the peace negotiations, supplementing it on other grounds with the unique reason that he had been educated to consider the Japanese an inferior race and would, therefore, be unable to discuss with them peace during a war wherein Russia was not a victor. Far from being intrusted with the responsibility of conducting negotiations, he declared bitterly that he was not even consulted regarding the affairs of his own department.

M. Witte mustered a keen feeling over the rise of Gen. Trepoft as minister of the interior, saying: "I know nothing of what is being done either for peace or for reform. Tell me what Trepoft wishes and I will tell you what the czar will do. Trepoft is the real ruler of Russia."

Gen. Kleigels, governor-general of Kioff, has arrived in St. Petersburg, and gossip is connecting his name with the governor-generalship of St. Petersburg, as an assistant to Gen. Trepoft.

NORWAY AND SWEDEN.

Bjornsen Says With Independence
Their Relations Will Improve.

London, June 17.—Bjornsen, the Norwegian poet, novelist and dramatist, in a communication to the Daily Chronicle, declares that had the Norwegian starting left the question of the dissolution of the union to be decided by the general election 18 months hence it undoubtedly would have been achieved in full agreement of the Swedish people, the majority of whom even now are in favor of dissolution. Norwegians could then have adopted whatever form of government they wished. As the matter stands unless King Oscar consents to nominate a prince of the house of Bernadotte for the throne, Norway will no doubt become a republic and a government on the Swiss model will be adopted. Continuing, the writer says: "When the two countries are completely independent their relations are likely to improve and it is probable they will begin to discuss the advisability of a defensive alliance to include eventually other nations, not Germany alone. Sweden and the three northern countries we begin to look forward to a great Teutonic alliance embracing also America, Great Britain, Holland, Belgium and Switzerland. However impossible this may appear, it rests with the smaller nations to prepare the public mind for such emancipation from war."

WEAVER STILL AT WORK.

Holds Important Conference With Advisory Board.

Philadelphia, June 16.—Former Secy. of War Root, of counsel for Mayor Voegele, arrived here this afternoon from New York and went immediately to the city hall, where he went into conference with the mayor and the advisory board.

The mayor's advisory board was in session in the executive's office when Mr. Root arrived. Wayne MacVeagh was admitted to the conference shortly after Mr. Root's arrival.

After the conference had been in progress for about an hour, the mayor, accompanied by Messrs. Root and MacVeagh, emerged from his office. They positively declined to answer questions involving the nature of the meeting. Director Potter today issued an order to the police which compels them to appear before the assessor and have stricken from the lists of voters any names which, in their judgment, should not be on such lists.

Cesar Noll, assistant commissioner of highways, tendered his resignation today and it was accepted by the mayor. Noll had been under suspension since the beginning of the gas lease fight.

WASHINGTON PIONEER DEAD.

Tacoma, Wash., June 16.—Delphus Price Hanna, a pioneer of Oregon, Washington and California, is dead here, aged 83 years. He crossed the plains in 1843, was in the Oregon legislature in 1855 and was appointed United States marshal by President Buchanan on the admission of Oregon into the Union, and took the census of Oregon in 1859.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

Ex-Senator Kearns Makes It a Gift of a Thousand Dollars.

Washington, June 16.—An interesting portion of the sixteenth annual report of Mgr. D. J. O'Connell, the rector of the Catholic university, just made public, is the list of names which makes up the "Cardinal Gibbons" fund, and which includes J. Pierpont Morgan who gave $10,000; Senator Aldrich, who gave $2,500; Senators George F. Wetmore of Rhode Island; Winthrop H. Crane of Massachusetts; John F. Dryden, of New Jersey; Thomas Kearns of Utah, Vice President Fairbanks and Cornelius N. Bliss, who each gave $1,000. The fund has reached $32,000 and is led by Cardinal Gibbons, who contributed $11,000.

You can be well this Spring

When you feel tired most of the time, and yet can't sleep well,—when you have headaches, feel all "run down,"—that is when your nerves are tired out.

When the nerves are tired we feel "all worn out" or "used up." This condition is caused by overwork or mental strain. The nerves are tired—they have been overworked, and they must be nourished and built back to their healthy, vigorous strength.

Paine's Celery Compound gets at the real cause and feeds new power, new energy, to your tired nerves. It braces you up quicker than any other treatment, and it braces you up in the right way.

Paine's Celery Compound prevents the unhealthy reaction of tired nerves on the entire system.

Improved from the first

Toledo, O., April 1, 1904.—"It was a happy day for me when I commenced using Paine's Celery Compound a few years ago. Long continued nervousness and sleeplessness caused me to suffer as only those who have had the same trouble know. From the time I began taking your medicine I felt improved, and four bottles entirely cured me. If Paine's Celery Compound has done for the others the great good I derived from it, I don't wonder at the words of praise you are receiving. I am glad to recommend it."—Miss Ethel Benton.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The celebrated nerve vitalizer and tonic

A druggist may not mean to be dishonest, but he is—if he sell you an imitation when you ask for Paine's Celery Compound. There is 20 years' reputation behind Paine's Celery Compound. What right has a druggist to offer you an unknown imitation and counterfeit without any reputation or any known value? He might just as well try to make a little more money by giving you a counterfeit ten cent piece in change.

The genuine Paine's Celery Compound is easy to tell. Ask your druggist if he is selling the genuine or a counterfeit. See that the picture of the bunch of celery is on the package and the bottle.

What Joy They Bring To Every Home

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.
