No Poison in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

From Napier, New Zealand Herald: Two years ago the Pharmacy Board of New South Wales, Australia, had an analysis made of all the cough medicines that were sold in that market. Out of the entire list they found only one that they declared was entirely free from all poisons. This exception was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, made by the Chamberlain Medicine Company, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A. The absence of all narcotics makes this remedy the safest and best that can be had, and it is with a feeling of security that any mother can give it to her little ones. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is especially recommended by its makers for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. When taken in time it prevents pneumonia. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Amusements

The sad death of Isadore Rush, the well known actress, contained in yesterday's dispatches, brings to mind that she has appeared many times in Salt Lake, first with her husband the late Roland Reed, and later as the dainty English aristocrat in "Florodora," in which her song of "Tact" is well remembered. Miss Rush was not a great singer, but she was a very fetching little actress, and her exquisite style of dressing never failed to capture her audience. She was to have appeared again in Salt Lake next week in "Glittering Gloriana" and her manager was in Salt Lake arranging the details when he received the news of her sudden death.

Miss Maxine Elliott in "Her Own Way" opens at the Theater tonight, an engagement that will doubtless be one of the dramatic events of the season.

Manager Pyper was surprised and pleased to receive a telegram this morning, stating that the "Glittering Gloriana" company, of which the late Isadore Rush was the star, had secured the services of Dorothy Morton, and would continue the tour without interruption. Miss Morton is being rehearsed in the part in San Francisco, and the date in Salt Lake will be cut down to one performance only, Tuesday evening next. Miss Morton once appeared in Salt Lake at the head of her own opera company.

At the Grand tonight "The Hills of California" opens for the remainder of the week.

The Eighteenth ward hall was crowded to suffocation last night, the occasion being the reappearance of the ward minstrels. Judging by the laughter and applause of the audience, the entertainment was voted an entire success. The chorus work by the entire company was particularly good, and the antics of the men, John Giles, Mel Saville, Nat Shepherd and George Glade, kept the meriment going at a furious rate. The interludes were Mr. Rufus K. Cobb, while Miss Ruth Wilson acted as accompanist.

After the part consisted of Jensen in sleight of hand feats, Mel Saville in monologue, the Barrell brothers in a musical novelty, a male quartet, Young and Richardson in tumbling specialties, and Blair Richardson in a decidedly clever ventriloquist act. The same performance goes again for the last time tonight.

A PHYSICIAN HEALED.

Dr. Geo. B. King, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered by kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now after I have practiced it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." F. J. Hill Drug Co.

FOR HALF A MILLION.

Mrs. Vlasto Stops Suits Against Senator W. A. Clark's Daughter.

New York World: Her affection for her grown son, and her desire for his sake to avoid publicity, has induced Mrs. Solon J. Vlasto to consent to the settlement out of court of the $500,000 suit for damages brought by her against Mrs. Culver, daughter of Senator W. A. Clark, of Montana, and former wife of Dr. Everett M. Culver.

The action which Mrs. Vlasto brought against her husband for a limited divorce has also been discontinued for the same reason. The suit against Mrs. Culver was for the alleged alienation of her husband's affections. The suits were formally discontinued in the Supreme court on Nov. 1.

When the suits were begun Mrs. Vlasto left the city and her family did not know where she was. She and her husband had some time previously agreed to live apart. Mrs. Vlasto paying her $25 a week for her support. She is now back in the city and has resumed the former arrangement with her husband whereby they do not live together, but she receives stated amounts of money from him. It is said upon authority that "Not a penny has been settled upon Mrs. Vlasto by the representatives of Senator Clark."

Forbes J. Hennessy, of No. 32 Nassau street, representing Mrs. Vlasto, refused to discuss the matter yesterday, but said: "The suits have been dropped because of the authority they give to the press and the consequent pain to Mrs. Vlasto's son, who is a fine young man in business in this city."

Mr. Vlasto, Sr., is in business at No. 2 Stone street, and is prominent among the Greeks of this city. He is the representative of the Bank of Athens and a man of great deal of culture.

Familial friends of the Clarks meeting him in Europe started the discussions that resulted in suits brought by Mrs. Vlasto. His name also figures in the divorce between Dr. and Mrs. Culver.

A friend of Mrs. Vlasto said yesterday: "Not a cent has been paid by Senator Clark's family to Mrs. Vlasto. What she has done in discontinuing the cases was done alone and on her own initiative."
