THANKSGIVING BALL GAME.

Colorado "Aggles" Will Line up Agains University of Utah Team.

University of Utah Team. What is expected to be the chief foot-ball game of the season on a local grid-iron, is billed for Thursiay afternoon on Cumming's field between the train repre-senting the University of Utah, and the eleven from te Colorado Agricultural Col-lege. It is safe to say that both aggre-gations will be in the pink of condition, to a man, and that the game will be a de-termined, interesting one every minuic the ball is in play. It is not reasonable at this time to venture a prediction as to the winner, but from te record of both teams. Colorado seems to have a little advantage. The same teams met here hast year and played a tie game, but this season the Fort Collins huskles have made a splendid showing. It is considered one of the strongest teams in Colorado, and the lo-cals will have to go some to beat it. Coach Holmes and his men are not wor-rying in the least, and that the ywill be in great shape for the battle. The recent games they have indulged in have served as good practise for them, and they will continue to work every day until the call of time.

Great White Mother" of the six nations of the great Iroquis confederacy. Eulogics were pronounced by the dead woman's pastor and by the chiefs of the various clans of the Seneca nation, by whom Mrs. Converse was adopted when a little girl. One of the chiefs performed the ancient rite of "the passing of the horns," which consisted of taking the string of sacred wampum beads, the insignia of office, from the lid of the casket and presenting it to Joseph Keppler, long associated with Mrs. Converse in her work among the In-dians, by which act Mr. Keppler was nominated by the chiefs present as the successor of the dead woman. Mr. Kenpler was adapted by the Success successor of the dead woman. Mr. Keppler was adopted by the Senecas many years ago, and bcars the Indian name of Gy-Out-Wa-Wa. In addition to the delegates from the six nations there were present repre-sentatives of the Hurons, Sloux, Abial-ki, Algonquins, Aztecs of Mexico and several other tribes. Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Still, the dead woman's pastor, read the Episcopal service for the dead, af-ter which William Crow, a Seneca war-rior, made an address in his native tongue. In speaking he addressed him, self to the body before him, and in conself to the body before him, and in con-clusion wished her happiness in the spirit land. Then, turning to his tribes-spirit land. Then, turning to his tribes-men, he said: "We have lost our best and dearest friend. In the many gifts the great spirit has given us there came nothing so beautiful as this woman. She knew us, and understood us. She stood be-tween us and those who would have wronged us. It will be a happy task new the Cheat Spirit to make here.

Those Against Senator Smoot Do Not Express the Sentiments Of Their Signers.

HOW SUCH LISTS ARE SECURED.

All That is Required is a Few Reams Of White Paper and One or Two Persistent Advocates.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 20 .- It is a fact, realized by 10 members out of every 11 in Congress, that a few reams of whitet paper and a few persistent advocates can be made to represent the alleged sentiments of thousands of the subject pending, all he has to do is to buy white paper, have a head printed and then see that the blanks are put where they will be readily observed. The correspondent of the Descret News has had optical demonstration of the truth of this statement within the past few weeks. In a small town in New York state a short time ago there rested on the counter of a country store a paper addressed to the senate of the United States. It set forth in small plea type the fact that the signers pro-tested most vigorously against the ad-mittance to the senate of Reed Smoot. Nearly every customer who came to that counter signed the "petition" with-out knowing anything whatever of the merits of the case. It would have been all the same if the paper had been a all the same if the paper had been a petition to throw out former Senator Simon on the ground that he was a Jew, or to expel former Senator Mur-phy because of his allegiance to the Catholic church. The average Ameri-can citizen seems to be delighted to se-cure an opportunity to impress his au-tograph upon someone. Names are carved upon trees and written upon dead walls with the same degree of in-telligence as they are added to others telligence as they are added to others on a petition.

SIGN WITHOUT KNOWING.

It is a safe proposition that not one person in 50 whose name appears on any of the numerous anti-Smoot papers which are flooding the senate clerks has the faintest conception of what he or she has done. Ask 10 men tomorrowvoters of the United States with but very little effort. If a man desires to present to Congress a formidable peti-very well known to the old-timers like . tion, for or against any measure or Senator Hoar, and such men are never swayed by the clamor of a perfunctory appeal like that of the opponents of the junior senator from Utah. But there are always timid men who dare not vote their convictions and it is these men who may be affected by the thous-ands of alleged opponents of Mr. Smoot.

AT THEIR OLD TRICKS.

It will be recalled that Congressman Roberts was deprived of the seat to which he had been elected in the house which he had been elected in the house of representatives, because of the clam-or raised by the very people who are now determined to wreak their bigoted venom upon the Utah senator. The men who worked up the sentiment against Roberts are the same men, in many instances, now circulating the anti-Smoot "petitions." One of these men was seen a short time ago by a anti-smoot "petitions." One of these men was seen a short time ago by a Deseret News correspondent and asked why Mr. Smoot was to be opposed. This man, like former Secy. Carlisic, ad-mits that he is employed by the anti-"Mormons." "When Mr. Smoot entered upon his duties as an apostic of the Church with which he is connected," cald this versious attorney. "he took Church with which he is connected," said this veracious attorney, "he took an oath to uphold the 'Mormon' church against the government of the United States, should the necessity arise. A man bound by such an oath is not a fit man to represent one of the sovereign states of the Union in the senate."

SENATE NOT EASILY SWAYED. Of course, every one in Utah knows that such a statement is absurd upon the face, but unfortunately there are thousands of people on both sides of the Rocky Mountains who have no knowledge whatever of the Church or the obligations which its leaders assume, and it is these who are swayed by the clamor against Mr. Smoot today. If the members of the senate all had to appear before their constitutents for re-election next year it is quite likely to appear before their constitutents for re-election next year it is quite likely that Mr. Smoot would be in greater jeopardy than he is today. As it is the senate is not so easily swayed as the house, and it is not likely that senators will ever declare, as scores of members of the house did after Mr. Roberts was unseated, that they regarded them-selves as arrant cowards for voting to unseat that gentleman simply because his religious views did not coincide with those of a lot of fussy women who worked up a sentiment against him.

WILL BE FAIRLY TRIED.

Senator Hoar, in talking with a friend on the subject of the Utah sen-atorship, said today that the case will be fairly tried and that it will be neces-sary for the accusers of Mr. Smoot to completely prove their charges before the elections committee will report the elections committee will report against him, and that the report will have to be an exceedingly convincing document before the majority of the senate will vote to unseat a man whose prima facie title to a place in the senate is as clear as that of any of his colleagues.

Logan "Aggies" Won Saturday's Game

By a score of 46 to 0. On the Logan gridiron Saturday after-noon, the "Aggies" simply overwhelmed the University of Wyoming team, and gave it a frightful walloping to the tune of 46 to nothing. The field was muldy and the ball slipper, but this did not deter the Utah champions from running up is outclassed in every particular, and mot one did they have a ghost of a chance to score against the Logan team. The hatter played a mignificent game dis-playing more speed and strength than ever before. In each half they scored four touchdowns and on nearly every play-proved themselves invincible to their op-ponents. Wyoming outweighed the champions, but their weight counted for may against the speed and fine team work of the victors. The teams lined up as follows: Wyoming. A.C.

He expects to be able to start for Tacoma and will make the two stops en route. He will visit in Chippewa Falls for two days and spend a day in St. Paul. He plans to reach home on Thanksgiving day. He worries a great deal over his inability to have given atention to the affairs of his league, but he has advices that President Dugdale, of the Scattle club, has been active in advancing its interests while its executive head was in-capacitated for duty. Mr. Lucas hopes to have the affairs of the league in ship-shape within a few days after his re-turn. The 1904 circuit has not been de-cided on, but it is settled that Seattle will be represented.

Then turning to the coffin, he said: "I wish you, Ga-le-Wa-Noa, a safe and happy journey to the spirit land." Chief Complanter followed, wearing under his vest a red sash, the badge of the high priest of the "Gon-Gl-Din" religion. While tears streamed down his face, he expressed his grief in a few words of broken English, and then sinking down in his chair, buried his face in his hands and wept aloud.
