FRAGMENTS.

A girl for housework wanted. See advertisement.

Mr. Dickson returned from California to-day.

A thoroughbred Jersey cow and calf for sale on easy terms. See advertisement.

CHARLES GATES is United States deputy marshal in Juab County and vicinity.

The house of Mr. E. B. Tripp was searched yesterday by deputies. Mr. Tripp was not at home.

Next Friday evening the Home Dramatic club will play "Confusion" at the Salt Lake Theatre.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Catherine Dykes will be held at the Ninth Ward school house to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

The 16th Quorum of Seventies will meet at the First Ward meeting house on Monday evening, December 13th, at 7 o'clock.

PLANT & REYNE call attention to today's paper to cows, horses and sheep they have for sale cheap. See their advertisement.

SHEEP and all kinds of stock are doing finely in Castle Valley. Note have been lost on account of severe weather, and the range is excellent.

The regular meeting of the Thirtieth Quorum of Seventies will be held at the Twentieth Ward school house, on Monday, December 13, at 7 p.m.

At Calder's Music Emporium are a large and finely assorted stock of articles in their line, suitable for the holidays, which those intending to purchase would do well to call and inspect.

"SARATOGA" is to be reproduced by the Home Dramatic Club on New Year's. "Storm Beaten" will probably be presented a month or six weeks later, thus giving ample time for its preparation.

CHARLES FRANKLIN contributed $5 to the city officers this morning. The reason for this action was that last evening he partook freely of intoxicating beverages, and was given lodgings in the City Hall.

The Second Quorum of Elders, comprising those Elders living in the First and Tenth Wards, will hold their regular monthly meeting in the Tenth Ward meeting house, next Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

The entertainment recently given with such satisfaction by the Twenty-first Ward club in the meeting house, will be repeated on Wednesday next, the proceeds to be devoted to buying presents for the Ward Sabbath School.

PROP. EVAN STEPHENS' music hall is now in good running order, and ready for the reception of all who wish to acquire a musical education. The kinds and prices of classes are arranged so very moderate.

This popular store of S. P. Teasdale is represented to-day by a new advertisement in which is mentioned the several lines of goods which the house carries. Special inducements are held out for the holiday trade, and particular attention paid to the wants of customers.

The Provo Enquirer says that copies of that paper are mailed to Salt Lake newspapers. If it reached this city a little more promptly and regularly we might better appreciate its worth. We print an article from it to-day, but obtained the copy from a private party, ours not having arrived.

Read the announcement of the entertainment to be given in the Tabernacle next Friday evening, to the old folks, and the widows, orphans and deaf mutes. The programme is to include, in addition to "Confusion" by the Home Dramatic Club, songs by Brother Wm. C. Dunbar.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Tourists.—Royt Sherman, Jr., arrived in this city last evening with company of 210 excursionists, en route to California. The party visited the various points of interest in the city to-day, and this evening continue their journey westward, by Mr. Sherman in charge. Four more excursion parties will pass through to the west over the Union Pacific this winter.

Card of Thanks.—I desire to return my sincere thanks to Drs. Lyon and Harrison for the kindness I have received at their hands. I have been with a tumor behind the left eye, which necessitated the removal of the eye ball. This delicate operation they skillfully and successfully performed, giving me careful attention, and without requiring any fee therefor, because of my poor circumstances.

JOHN W. HOFFMAN,
21st Ward.

The Tutts Case.—The case of the City vs. Eubanks Tutts, for leasing premises for the purpose of gambling, came up before Justice Fryer at 3 p.m. yesterday, and was proceeded with till late hour, the evidence being all in the arguments were to have been made at 2 o'clock this afternoon but were further continued till Monday at that hour. It seems that the defense, while admitting the leasing, disclaim responsibility for the gaming going on, as the proprietor of the game has already been convicted.

AN OCTOGENARIAN ARRESTED.

DANIEL CORBETT HELD TO ANSWER FOR UNLAWFUL COHABITATION.

To-day Deputy Marshal Greenman arrested Daniel Corbett, of the Second Ward, on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. The complaint, made by D. W. Rench, accuses the defendant of living with his wives, Ann Corbett and Maria Swanberg Corbett, from Jan. 1, 1884, to Dec. 1, 1886.

Father Corbett is now in his eightieth year, and is quite feeble, as might be expected in one of his age. He pleaded not guilty to the charge. His first wife, Ann, was unable to be in attendance, as she has been a cripple for 15 years.

Mrs. Maria Swanberg Corbett was called and testified—The defendant is my husband; we were married 21 years ago last month; have had two children, the youngest now being 15 years of age. My husband, as you see, when I was married to him; her name is Ann Corbett; she is still alive, but is a cripple, and does not go out; she lives in the Second Ward; I reside in the same house with her and the defendant.

The witnesses, Mrs. Maria S. Corbett, Otis Corbett and Ida C. Swanberg, were notified to appear before the court on February 10th, and the defendant was placed under $300 bail, Messrs. John Gallagher and John R. Winder being sureties.

POSTMASTER ARRESTED.

JOHN DUNCAN, OF HEBER CITY, ACCUSED OF TAKING MONEY FROM A LETTER.

Last Wednesday, December 8th, complaint was made before Commissioner McKay, against John Duncan, Postmaster at Heber City, Wasatch County, as follows:

Agent G. Moore, a United States Postoffice Inspector, of San Francisco, in the county of San Francisco, California, on behalf of the United States of America, do hereby complain that John Duncan, of Heber, in the county of Wasatch, and Territory of Utah, on the second day of July, in the year of our Lord 1886, in the county of Wasatch, and Territory of Utah, did unlawfully detain, delay, and open a certain letter addressed to Mrs. Caroline Brady, Fairview, Sanpete County, Utah, then and there entrusted to him, the said John Duncan, by the said Mrs. Caroline Brady, the said John Duncan, being then and there a postmaster of the said United States at said Heber, against the peace and dignity of the United States of America, etc.

The witnesses in the case are George Thompson, of Heber City, and Elizabeth Thompson, of Heber City, and Brady, and Lois Ann and Lycurus Wilson, of Fairview, Sanpete County. The defendant was arrested to-day by Deputy Vandercook, and brought before Commissioner McKay. He waived examination, and was placed under $750 bonds to await the action of the First District grand jury.

The circumstances of the case, so far as can be ascertained, are, that on the date named in the complaint, Mr. Duncan received the letter referred to, registered it, and gave a receipt therefor. It was said to contain a five dollar bill, but when it reached its destination a one dollar bill was found. Mr. Duncan denies that he interfered with the letter in any way. Whether the sender put in a one dollar bill by mistake, or whether the bills were changed as alleged, will be determined by a judicial investigation.

A Fine Instrument.—Calder's music establishment has just imported from the manufacturers—Mason & Hamlin—a grand cabinet organ, Eastlake style, with paneled front and sides, carved panels, folding fall-board, with wire openings front and back, lamp stands, etc.; it is four feet ten inches in length, two feet three inches in depth, three feet five inches high, and weighs 230 pounds. It is what is known as the Liszt organ, the first one of this kind having been made to order for that eminent gentleman several years ago, for which he wrote a lengthy letter of commendation, pronounced a marvel. A News reporter had the pleasure of hearing what it is capable of, through the manipulation of Prof. Krouse, and is willing to say that, if his judgment is good for anything, it is the best thing of the kind ever brought here. It cost $500, and was imported especially for the Nepal choir, to whom it will be shipped at once. Those wards which contemplate getting a new instrument should call and see the Liszt before it goes.

The same house got in a grand Steinway piano yesterday, which is also on exhibition at their emporium.

Almee.—This once fascinating French actress drew a large audience to the Theatre last evening, and a small one this afternoon. "Manzelle" was played on both occasions, notwithstanding "Divorcement" was promised for the matinee; but it was just as well, perhaps, better that it was so for the former. "Manzelle" was undoubtedly the best thing she does. Almee is still sprightly and vivacious, not so much so as in the years long ago, of course; but she has not lost all through the hand of time, and manages to keep an audience in the best of humor from first to last. Her support is fair, in no instance positively strong nor actually weak. "So-so" is a very expressive term in this connection.

The company left for the West after the matinee.

A Fine Picture.—To-day we saw an oil painting from the brush of Mr. H. L. A. Culmer. It represents a scene in the Cottonwoods. The subject is one of the grandest in this part of the country, which is saying a great deal. The picture is finely balanced, and the great cliffs—"Pillars of the Wasatch"—rise up in their magnificence, while snow-capped peaks of the mountain range are seen in the distance. In the foreground is a stream dashing down between cliffs of rocks. The coloring throughout is excellent, and the entire manipulation decidedly artistic. It is Mr. Culmer's best production, and does him credit. The sketch which formed the basis of the painting was taken by the artist at the point of view represented in the picture.

Change of Trains.—Only three trains will be run weekly to Little Cottonwood Cañon, as the following order will show:

D. & R. G. W. RAILWAY,
Traffic Department.

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 11th, 1886.

On and after Monday, 13th inst., and until further notice, trains between Bingham Junction and Wasatch will run only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

J. H. BENNETT,
Gen'l Freight and Pass'g Agent.

Agala Postponed.—This morning President Angus M. Cannon and about thirty witnesses appeared at the office of Commissioner McKay, ready for the preliminary examination. As District Attorney Dickson had not returned from California, the hearing was again postponed, this time until Monday next at 10 a.m. It was announced that Mr. Dickson would be home to-day.

The Fourth Quorum of Seventies will meet at the usual place on Monday evening next.

DON'T WANT TO PAY.

COLLECTION OF THE SPECIAL SCHOOL TAX OPPOSED.

The following document has been filed in the Tenth District Court, and an injunction issued restraining County Collector Hardy from further action until the matter can be heard and determined:

In the Third Judicial District Court, in and for the Territory of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

William Hurd, Prudence Wiseman, Thomas Grettton, Frances T. Parton, Samuel Rance, John A. Fisher, M. A. Newell and Edward B. Critchlow, administrators of the estate of J. J. Critchlow, deceased, plaintiffs, Leonard G. Hardy, defendant.

Plaintiffs complain of said defendant and for cause of action allege:

1.—That they and each of them are, and for some time past have been resident taxpayers of Tenth District, Salt Lake City, Utah Territory.

2.—That the said defendant, L. G. Hardy, is the Collector of taxes for the said City of Salt Lake, and as such is charged by law with the collection of the special school taxes levied in said county.

3.—That on or about the 22d day of April, A. D. 1886, a special meeting of the resident taxpayers of said Tenth District was held to have been held in said district, for the purpose of levying a special school tax in said district, and it is alleged that at said meeting it was voted and determined, and the trustees of said district were authorized, to levy a special school tax upon the taxable property of said district, at the rate of one and one-half per cent. upon the assessed value thereof.

4.—That afterwards, in accordance with said pretended vote taken, at said pretended meeting, the trustees of said school district did levy a special school tax of one and one-half per cent. upon the taxable property of said district, and in so doing they acted in violation of law, and the said tax is null and void, and said illegality consists in this, to-wit: First, the said tax was levied at which time the said district was not authorized to levy such a tax, and secondly, the said tax was levied without notice to the taxpayers of said district.

5.—That the said defendant, as collector, is now threatening to proceed, and will proceed to levy said pretended tax upon the property of plaintiffs, unless restrained by this court, which said pretended tax is a lien upon the property of plaintiffs, and is so made by a law of this Territory.

6.—That the said pretended tax so alleged to have been levied as aforesaid is a nullity and is illegal and void, and said illegality consists in this, to-wit: First, the said tax was levied at which time the said district was not authorized to levy such a tax, and secondly, the said tax was levied without notice to the taxpayers of said district was held without notice to the taxpayers as required by law, no notice of ten days in writing or otherwise by the trustees of said district or by the collector, and said trustees having been posted or given in any other manner. Second: That the said pretended tax was levied was given was insufficient to warrant the levy of the tax one and one-half per cent. for the reason that it purported to give warranty of a tax of only four-tenths of one per cent. and no more or greater tax.

7.—That the whole amount of the taxes so levied as aforesaid by plaintiffs and which the said defendant now threatens to proceed to collect by process of law, aggregates the sum of about seventy-five ($75) dollars; That unless said proceedings of defendant of the collection of said pretended special school tax are restrained, the tax will be and remain a lien and incumbrance upon the property of plaintiffs, and the property of plaintiffs will be seized by defendant to satisfy the same, and they will sustain irreparable injury.

Wherefore plaintiffs pray judgment against the defendant as follows:

First.—That until the further order of the Court in the premises he be restrained from all further proceedings by way of levy or otherwise for the collection of said pretended tax.

Second.—That said pretended tax be declared to be illegal, and null and void as regards plaintiffs.

Third.—That upon the hearing of said cause, said defendant be perpetually enjoined from any and all proceedings whatsoever, having for their object the levy or collection of said pretended school tax.

Fourth.—For costs of suit.

E. B. Critchlow and Arthur Brown,
Attorneys for Plaintiffs.

To-day County Attorney Moyle, on behalf of Mr. Hardy, filed an answer to the foregoing and the case will be heard before Judge Zane on December 15th.

The case presents some peculiar phases, from the position assumed by one of the plaintiffs, also an attorney, Mr. Critchlow. The proceedings in the tax matter in the Tenth District, as recorded in the News at the time, show that on April 11, 1886, the Trustees gave notice of a special meeting, called for the purpose of assessing a special tax, to raise funds for the erection of a building. An estimate was given of the anticipated cost, and a suggestion made that three-fourths of one per cent. would cover it.

At the meeting, however, on April 22nd, when this rate was proposed, Mr. Critchlow opposed it on the ground that he did not think enough would be realized from so small a tax to increase the school facilities to the required capacity, and favored a larger rate or no tax at all.

The motion, as actually amended by Mr. J. M. Young, fixed the rate at 14 per cent., and was carried by a vote of 60 to 31, and a committee of seven, among the number being Mr. Critchlow, appointed to have plans prepared and submitted to the next meeting.

The higher rate of taxation would not have been adopted but for Mr. Critchlow's advocacy of the measure. From information afterward received, however, the trustees came to the conclusion that something was to be done, so the late movement is not a surprise to them.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

SALT LAKE CITY, December 11, 1886.

Editor News:

A large attendance of teachers held their regular meeting to-day, at 11 a.m., with Vice-President Chas. F. Wilcox in the chair.

It was resolved, by the association, that the gentlemen pay fifty cents, and the ladies twenty-five cents, per quarter, for the support of the institute library. This sum, it is believed, will place quite a number of the best books at the disposal of the teachers of Salt Lake County.

Miss Emma Finch presented in a practical manner, a series of lessons on teaching numbers in the primary department. Topics of numbers and their relations must be taught correctly. Objects, such as pebbles, beans, and buttons, should be used in teaching the fundamental principles of arithmetic. The lively discussion that followed showed that the teachers were interested.

Mr. Wm. Bradford discussed the subject of compound interest, and made a practical application of it in the intermediate department. The pupils should learn the tables not from memory but from aught correct. To this end each school should be supplied with apparatus to illustrate all the rules of compound numbers.

The session was an unusually interesting one and teachers who were not present missed something of practical benefit. The meeting adjourned for four weeks, with the following program:

Superintendent Wm. M. Stewart will present the subject of fractions as taught in the advanced department.

Report of reading circles Nov. 1, 2 and 3.
