'Exhibition" Given by Young Man, Interesting But Unsatisfactory.

A young man giving the name of Philip Smith, and who says he is a professional "entertainer," got himself into trouble and jail last evening by giving an "exhibition" of the "disappearing watch." His performance night have caused considerable en-thusiasm instand of indignation had he not used a watch belonging to Jo-seph Schatz. The performance was he not used a watch belonging to Jo-seph Schatz. The performance was in a Main street saloon, and Smith deft-ly and quietly "lifted" Schatz's watch and started out with it. Although "light fingered." Smith bungled the job and was soon surrounded by about a dozen angry men. He was taken in charge by a policeman and locked up in the city jall.

A PAYING INVESTMENT. A PAYING INVESTMENT. Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave, Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all, gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. once more banished the annual cough once more barnshed the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guar-antee at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112-114 South Main street. 55c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

ple are still sending about the country letter, about which the press of the country had much to say several years ago. The "prayer" was sent to Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts, a dignitary of the Episcopal church, with the recommendation that it be sent to nine different persons. The bishop protested that he did not know anything about the prayer chain, and escribed it to some harmless crank. Several Salt Lake people are in re-ceipt of these chain letters. Milkmen on Anxious Seat—The city food inspector keeps up his end-less round of joy in keeping the city milkmen on the anxious seat without regard to the weather. He harvest-ed another batch of milk samples yesterday for the city chemist to con-sider, stopping milk wagons here, there and everywhere he chanced to run into one, and taking samples of there and everywhere he chanced to run into one, and taking samples of their wares. The result is pure milk for Salt Lake citizens. The city chemist says that all of the canned goods now coming into this city are "straight stuff"—no more adulterations.

Line Out of Commission—The West Temple car line on which a single car operates a half-hourly service, went out of commission in last night's went out of commission in last night's storm, through a spreading of the rails between Ninth and Tenth South. The district was flooded at the time, and it was late this morning before service could be resumed. The line has been dubbed the "washboard line" by its patrons, on account of the dlapic and condition of the road-bed. Orders 2 tobuild it with heavier steel and content of the line to Twelfth South have been on the tapis since the program of improvements and extensions was announced a year ago. Extensive repairs to the roadbed have been ordered for this fall.
