

CHAS. TURVILLE BADLY INJURED.

Sustains Contusions of the Right
Thigh in a Collision.

IS RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS.

His Up in the Six-day Race, in Which
Three Riders are Disabled—Turville Displays Pluck.

New York, Dec. 12.—With over 1,400 miles clocked off in their pursuit of prizes in the six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden, which ends on Saturday, seven teams were still represented on the track at midnight, or the beginning of the fourth day of the contest. The men have not been able to keep up the hurricane pace jumped into at the outset, but they have struggled to do so as much as their strained and fatigued bodies would allow them. The first two days they were ahead of the record, but now they are far behind the record for 1899.

From Wednesday midnight until last evening there was no special incident attending the riding, except the withdrawal of Muller and Accorrieri. There were the occasional fruitless attempts made by the different men to gain a lap on their opponents. To prevent the loss of a lap, Fisher performed perhaps the hardest task of the race. In the afternoon he got a puncture just as the old riders were preparing for a sprint. The other men noticed Fisher's misfortune and tried to take advantage of it. Fisher pedaled along with the bunch, however, in spite of the softening of his crippled machine for full mile, at the end of which time Frederick relieved him. When Fisher dismounted his tire was perfectly flat.

HOW THE ACCIDENT HAPPENED.

The accident which put Aaronson out of the race occurred shortly after 9 o'clock. Kaiser and Ryser were relieving one another during a try to gain a lap, going at a tremendous pace. Gougoitz and Simar were almost behind them, with McFarland just on the heels. The Frenchmen, who were also alternating, came together with a crash and went down in the track. Waller was at their heels and he crashed into the fallen Frenchmen. Turville followed Waller into the mix-up and went to the top of the other riders. He was thrown clear of the pile and into a box among the crowd of spectators. Fisher was the next man, and after riding over the others was thrown violently to the board. McFarland and Ryser and Kaiser pursued, but the referee would not allow their gain.

Turville was picked up bleeding and unconscious and with a growing lump on one knee. He was rushed to his training room and examined. He had sustained bruises of the body, as well as the shock. The doctor brought him back to consciousness after a little.

Aaronson had a badly cut eye and face and bruises on the back. Fisher was battered and shocked. The two Frenchmen escaped better than any of the others, getting only a shaking up.

TURVILLE AGAIN ATTEMPTS TO RIDE.

Aaronson was declared out of the race at 1 o'clock this morning. When Habscock heard that his team-mate, Aaronson, was sent to the hospital, he declared he would ride twelve hours and give Aaronson a chance to recuperate. He kept on his wheel until 1:55 a. m., when he fell, exhausted. Gougoitz and Kaiser fell on top of him, but none was seriously hurt. The referee ruled that no losses should be marked up on account of the accident.

Turville returned to the track at 1 a. m., rode slowly until 1:55 a. m. and was then unmounted. He had to be carried to his training room.

The score at 2 o'clock.

Elkes and McFarland	1,441.4
Pierce and McEachern	1,441.4
Simar and Gougoitz	1,441.4
Turville and Kaiser	1,431.9
Waller and Stinson	1,421.1
Habscock and Aaronson	1,441.1
Fisher and Frederick	1,449.9
Kaiser and Ryser	1,449.9

On the English Gridiron.

London, Dec. 12.—The annual Rugby football match between Oxford and Cambridge took place today at the Queen's club. A magnificent game was won by Oxford by two goals to a goal and a try. There was a large and fashionable attendance.

Results at Oakland.

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—Favorites went down to defeat at Oakland today. The weather was cloudy and the track heat in the fourth race. Free Lance finished second in the mile race, but was disqualified for fouling, and Opponent given the place. Coburn, who rode Free Lance, was suspended for the balance of the meeting for foul riding. Luthian was bid up $200 by John Foley. Jockey Willie Martin and John Rose, the bookmaker, are to be given a rehearing next Tuesday evening. Summary:

POLICE AFTER FIGHTERS.

Warrants for the Arrest of McGovern and Gans.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—Warrants will be served at the ringside in Tattersall's tomorrow evening on the principals and promoters of the McGovern-Gans fight. Captain Hayes of the Thirty-sixth street station says McGovern and Gans will be arrested, charged with disturbance of the peace. B. H. Winton, agent of the building; Lou Houseman, match-maker, and Sam Harris, manager of McGovern, will be arrested on charges of carrying on a boxing exhibition.

"The warrants are in my hands, and may be served," said Captain Hayes this evening. "It would be foolish of me to chase after those who are named in the warrants until Thursday night, when they are all together. I am going to give the papers to some of my men just before the fighters go into the ring. Every fighter and the promoter of the exhibition will be put under arrest. I am told that they intend to have a justice of the peace present to either hear the charges immediately or sign bonds for their appearance in court. Then the fight could go on unless more warrants were served."

"Of course, if those interested do not have a justice of the peace present, Houseman and the fighters will certainly be locked up."

Smash Your Mirror

You feel like it sometimes, don't you? It says, "My, but you are growing old fast." You know why: it's those gray hairs. Don't you know that Ayer's Hair Vigor would restore color to them, all the dark, rich color they used to have? It stops falling of the hair also, and makes the hair grow long and heavy.

If you do not obtain the benefit you desire from use of the Vigor, write the Doctor about it. He will tell you just the thing to do. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

Moralina, one of the best racers in the world. It is his intention to take his entire stable of forty-seven trotters to Europe and exhibit them in all the countries over there and give the proceeds to charity in whatever country he may happen to be. He is now trying to secure Crepus and The Abbott to take over with him. It will cost him several hundred thousand dollars to carry out the scheme. But then America is full of such sportsmen.
