

"State of New York,
"King's County, U.S.

"William J. Gaynor, in the first place being duly sworn, depose and sayeth that, on the 20th day of July, Theodore Tilton did falsely, maliciously and scandalously frame, make, write, compose and cause to be published in the Brooklyn Daily Eagle, published in the city of Brooklyn, in said county, on the 20th day of July, 1874, certain false, scandalous and libellous writing concerning and against Henry Ward Beecher, of the city of Brooklyn, in said county, the purport and effect as follows, to wit: 'That for a period of about fifteen years, extending both before and after this marriage, an intimate friendship existed between Theodore Tilton and the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, which friendship was cemented to such a degree that in consequence thereof the subsequent dishonoring, by Mr. Beecher, of his friend's wife was a crime of uncommon wrongfulness and perfidy.'

2d. "That about nine years ago the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher began, and thereafter continued a friendship with Mrs. Elizabeth Tilton, for whose native delicacy and extreme religious sensibility he often expressed to her husband high admiration, visiting her from time to time for years, until the year '70, when, for reasons hereinafter stated, he ceased such visits, during which period, by many tokens and attentions, he won the affectionate love of Mrs. Tilton, whereby, after a long moral resistance by her and after repeated assaults by him upon her mind, with over-mastering arguments, he accomplished possession of her person, maintaining with her thenceforward during the period hereinafter stated the relation called criminal intercourse, this relation being regarded by her during that period as not criminal or morally wrong, such had been the power of his arguments as a clergyman to satisfy her religious scruples against such violations of virtue and honor, wherefore deponent prays that the defendant may be apprehended and dealt with according to law.

"Sworn to before me, this 28th July,
(Signed)

"THOMAS M. RIELLY,
"Justice of the Peace,
"City of Brooklyn."

Another affidavit is on account of the publication of Tilton's card last evening. The warrant was issued, sworn to and immediately served. Tilton went at once, and plead "not guilty," and was instructed to appear to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

PITTSBURGH, 28.—Thousands of people are visiting the scenes of the disaster here. In the Cherry Run region a company of the national guard has been detailed to keep the crowds out of the way of the workmen and to protect property. The search for bodies proceeds slowly, owing to the immense amount of debris matter. At noon to-day the funerals of the victims took place, the burial service being conducted by the St. Vincent, St. Peter's, and St. Patrick societies. Joseph and Louisa Schnepfer and four children, Hubber and wife and Fox and wife; the bodies will be buried in the cemetery. Measures will be taken to procure decent interment for all the victims. Excavations are going on for four children at the head of Butcher's Run: Five bodies have been taken out to-day, but none of them are yet identified.

During the storm on Sunday evening the Presbyterian church at Wilkinsburg was struck by lightning, and the congregation were ignorant of the fact till after the service, when it was discovered that the roof was splintered.

From Charist's Valley further reports have been received. On Laughlin's Run the body of Mrs. Wm. Cleat was found this morning, with her scalp taken off, and half a mile above Bridgeville. T. M. Stratton, whose wife and five children were drowned, was found

Hubbard, and John Shaving and one child.

Men and teams are busy restoring order and making repairs. William Duffy, his wife and child, and a lady visitor named Mrs. Bigby, had a very narrow escape: They heard the roar of the coming flood and fled to the hills; they had hardly crossed the threshold when their house was lifted up and carried down stream with the crashing wrecks of other buildings.

The following is the latest recapitulation of bodies found up to this time: in the upper Allegheny districts, 32; Wood's Run, 9; Temperanceville, 9; Chartier's Creek, 11; total found, 61. The number reported missing is still very large, and from the best information that can be obtained, the total loss of life will reach 150.

NEW YORK, 29.—Gaynor, who brings the Beecher-Tilton scandal into the courts, says, "Now this thing will come to a climax. Henry Ward Beecher, Mrs. Woodhull, Frank Moulton, Mrs. Tilton and everybody will have to testify there; the committee could never make them testify. I don't know whether Beecher is innocent or guilty, but I want to see, and the only way to see is in a judicial tribunal." Gaynor said he did not know Tilton and neither liked nor disliked him, but simply as a citizen he wished to bring the scandal to a focus and help to crush it, either in proving its truth or falsity.

The Third District court room in Brooklyn was crowded this morning with people anxious to hear the trial of Tilton. Tilton entered the court room at ten o'clock. Gaynor was already there. Tilton's counsel said he had asked the complainant whether this case was brought by Mr. Beecher through him, and was answered that, he took the case entirely on his own responsibility. The counsel argued that this case should not have been called to satisfy public scandal, and he suggested that it should stand over until Monday next. Gaynor argued that Tilton had violated one of the laws of the State, and it was his duty as a citizen to bring him into court to answer. He thought he had a public right to bring Tilton here for a preliminary examination. If the defendant chose he could let his case go before the grand jury. He had consulted no person, was urged on his present course by no one, but only appeared as a member of the community.

Ex-Judge Morris, Tilton's counsel, submitted that there was no object in view by this prosecution, except to gain notoriety.

Gaynor wished to know if the defendant waived an examination or demanded a hearing, as he wished to summon Henry Ward Beecher and some other witnesses for the examination. The hearing of the case was finally postponed till Monday next.

The Brooklyn Eagle says, "We are informed and authorized to announce that the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has, very recently, written a letter to Frank Moulton, in which he earnestly asks and adjures Mr. Moulton to go before the committee and exhibit all he has and tell all he knows with reference to the matters in controversy between Theodore Tilton and Henry Ward Beecher. This letter is declared to be long, explicit, earnest and unmistakable and to the effect that Mr. Beecher has a wish, and Mr. Moulton no alternative, but for the latter to go before the committee and fully and frankly to say all he can say forthwith."
