CATARRH

A PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

30 Years a Physician. 12 Years a Sufferer. Tried Regular Remedies. Tried Patent Medicines. Permanently cured by

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER,—Sirs: I have practised medicine for thirty years, and have been a sufferer myself for twelve years with Catarrh in the most distressing forms and degrees. I have used everything in the materia medica without any permanent relief, until finally I was induced to try a patent medicine (something that we allopathists are very loth to do). I tried ——— and divers others until I got hold of yours. I followed the directions to the letter, and am happy to say have had a permanent cure. Your RADICAL CURE is certainly a happy combination for the cure of that most unpleasant and dangerous of diseases.

Yours, respectfully,
D. W. GRAY, M. D.,
Of Dr. D. W. Gray & Son, Physicians and Surgeons.
MUSCATINE, Iowa, March 27, 1877.

The value of this remedy must not be overlooked in the cure of those

SYMPATHETIC DISEASES,

Affections of the Eye, Ear, Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes which in many cases accompany a severe case of Catarrh. The inflamed and diseased condition of the mucous membrane is the cause of all these troubles and until the system has been brought properly under the influence of the RADICAL CURE, perfect freedom from them cannot be expected.

It is but three years since SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was placed before the public, but in that short time it has found its way from Maine to California, and in every town and city druggists and physicians to be the most successful preparation for the thorough treatment of Catarrh ever compounded. The fact will be deemed of more importance when it is coupled with the statement that within five years over 250 different remedies for Catarrh have been placed on sale, and to-day, with one or two exceptions, their names cannot be recalled by the best-informed druggist. Advertising may succeed in forcing a few skins, but, unless they possess undoubted specific medical properties, it is absolutely certain to fall into merited obscurity.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for its use in all cases. Price $1.00. Sold by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, April 15, 1879.

Correspondence.

BRASSTOWN, Cherokee Co., North Carolina, April 1, 1879.

Editors Deseret News:

Agreeable to release and appointment, on February 1st, I left Liverpool for the Southern States Mission, to spend a few months here in promulgating the principles of the gospel. After an agreeable trip I arrived in Rome, Ga., on the 16th of February, I met Elder Ralph Smith, of Logan, and we spent a few weeks very pleasantly and profitably in visiting the branches of the Georgia Conference, visiting and making friends among strangers as we went along. We baptized three persons, and blessed several children. I found among the Saints some very good people, manifesting, to a strong degree, the "first love" of the gospel, abounding in good works and feelings toward each other.

The prospects of the work in Georgia are good. There are many more openings and calls for preaching than there are elders to fill them, our missionaries, in some instances are, in a manner speaking, almost "talked to death." Imagine his feelings when the cry still comes—"Come over and talk to us." And when they comply, the Elders have to talk all day and often till after midnight. There was a time when our young Elders at home imagined ease to themselves while in Zion, and reckoned on having plenty of time to "study up doctrine" after being called to go on a mission. But that day is past; when they come out to the world they are expected to talk to the people, and tell them something that will do them good. And moreover, our Elders are expected to tell the people that which we know of a surety to be of God. If we are filled with knowledge, opportunities to do good will not be wanting.

After visiting the Georgia Saints for a month, I met our energetic President, Elder J. Morgan, in general good health and spirits. He appointed Elders Edlef B. Edlefson, Thomas S. Higham and myself to labor for the summer months in the mountains of western North Carolina. A great extent of country, inhabited by a liberal, free-hearted people, who never before heard the gospel. After a lengthy and tedious journey of some 90 miles through the mountains, mostly performed on foot, myself and companions arrived here in Brasstown—our headquarters and present address—yesterday evening. We found a few good Saints here, a branch of some 11 members, that Prest. Morgan organized about a month age, when he first came up here to open up this new field. From this point we will advance in all directions as fast as we can make fit openings. The prospects for a good work being done here is promising. We made many good friends, and effected several good openings on our way up here. For myself, I feel more encouraged to go on in the good work, than I ever did. On Sunday evening last, we held a good meeting at a place called Nottla, some 15 miles back, in the house of an acquaintance of Elder Morgan's, named Jas. Collins. He invited the neighbors, and we had a good turnout of people. A gentleman told us next day, that when we came again he wished to be baptized. We expect by the help of the Lord to do a good work there, and raise up a thriving branch. After a lengthy and agreeable talk with a Baptist minister here, yesterday, he invited us to come and visit him at his home, some ten miles away and talk with him on the goepel. He is reading up and investigating our doctrines very earnestly. President Morgan received many invitations which he had no time to fill, which we will have to fulfil. The field is so wide and extensive that we hardly know where to begin. But we are expecting some help soon, and we have room for all that will come; they will find it too, one of the best fields of labor that is now opened, that is, for plenty of work. The people, however, are poor, but are very kind-hearted and liberal, and an Elder will seldom go hungry or sleep without shelter. The nearer he complies with the law—"going without purse or scrip," the better he will feel, the greater blessings will he reap, and he will find himself thrown in the way of the honest and upright oftener, and he will receive better treatment than if he had money, if he goes forth with implicit faith in the Lord.

We had not come many miles into the State before the rumor spread that three "Mormon" Elders had advanced into the country and were going to take the State." Other wild rumors are spreading like the wind. We hear of threats to mob and drive us out, uttered by some of the people, particularly from the religious classes. The ministers themselves incite the people from the pulpit to do us violence, some threatening to tar and feather us if we do not quit the country. But the Lord being our helper we will not move, but as the spirit directs, and then it will be a move after some of the honest in heart, who are scattered through this mountainous country. We fear not what man can do. If the Lord has a few of Israel's blood in this district, and if he sustains us in our calling, we will gather them into the true fold, and leave the rest in the hands of the Lord, and will clear our skirts of the blood of this people—till then we won't be driven.

The climate of this part of the south is very healthy. It is much cooler than the lowlands and flatwoods of Georgia, and I think it will agree with our boys quite well.

The soil, as a general thing, is very poor here, but is better than in Georgia. What would our farmers think if they could get but from 3 to 12 bushels of wheat to the acre, and other crops in like proportion? Yet this is all they make here, year after year, till the soil wears out; then they will take in another piece.

Ever praying for the welfare of the work of the Lord, I am your brother in the gospel.

JOS. HYRUM PARRY.

P.S.—April 2nd.—Respecting the liberality of this people, I think I ought to qualify an expression I made in the first part of this letter. They are not all liberal. In the evening Elder Edlefson and I went out for a walk, and met a committee of nine armed men, headed by a Methodist minister, named Henry Green, who read to us the following resolution:—"We, the undersigned, have decided that we will not put up with the doctrines of a class of men called Latter-day Saints; and it is decided that if they don't get out within 24 hours of this date, we will put them out. Given under our hands and seals this 1st day of April, 1879." This "Christian" document was signed by the minister and 20 others, but he was ashamed to read the names, but I have nine of them. They said they did not want to hurt any of us, but we must go, and hence this warning. We then "let in" on them, and gave them such strong testimonies, and such a powerful preaching as they seldom or ever heard before, showing from the Scriptures what men they were and of whom they came. The picayunish minister said, "That's just what I know they would do—quote Scripture for it; for they are so well educated and versed. But we won't stand it, gentlemen; you must leave us in peace, you must be off; you are disturbing the peace with your strange doctrine of laying on of hands; of apostles, prophets and revelators, which we will not believe in. Will you go?" We then told them our business and calling, our duty to God and our fellow-man, and answered them calmly and emphatically, "Gentlemen, we cannot and will not leave. We are here on the Lord's errand; he sent us here, and we will stay here till he tells us to go hence. We fear not what you can do; the God whom we serve will see us through." They fairly quaked when we answered them thus. After relieving themselves of a few oaths, they left us, and we went our way rejoicing, and held a good meeting.

Yours,
J. H. PARRY.
