Eighty.—On Sunday last Father John Lyon completed his eightieth form said: John Lyon completed his eightieth year. The event was made the occasion of a pleasant gathering at the house of Mrs. Liffias T. Staines, daughter of the respected veteran. His friends are beyond calculation, and we join with them in congratulations and good wishes. He is the possessor of marked poetic ability, and has contributed some excellent productions to the home literary field, besides being a very worthy gentleman on general principles.
