ANOTHER INCIPIENT ARREST.

Sergt. Roberts and Officer Corless Sergi. Roberts and Oncer Corless boarded the patrol wagon this morning and made a rapid run to Thirteenth South and State street, where it was reported a man was in custody on sus-picion of being the wretch who perpe-trated the outrage at Murray. The of-ficers found a typical hobo, and as he research scout account of bimneers found a typical noos, and as he gave a reasonably good account of him-self he was released. The man was detained because he had no buttons on his coat, but upon further examination, it was found that his clothing had no buttons at all they being replaced with HOT AIR JOURNALISM.

Down at Murray last evening there was considerable indignation expressed at the yellow fiction dished up by an evening paper which rehashed the story of the "News" of the night before with some "improvements." Dizzy stories of panic stricken householders discharging pistols and grabbing shot-guns while the midnight provier dodged bullets, residents claim have as much truth in them as the allegation that Spring City is on the Oregon Short Line-and that is about 160 miles from the front the truth

The effort to work up a lynching scare also is deplored by the majority of residents at Murray, several prominent citizens being emphatic in their denunciation

INNESS AT SALTAIR.

Famous Leader Confers With Manager Langford.

Frederick Inness, the famous leader of Inness' famous band, which has just ended a long engagement at the world's tair, St. Louis, and which is to be the musical attraction at the Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland next year. passed through Salt Lake today. inness' purpose in stopping here was to confere with Manager Langford of Saltair to ascertain whether it would be possible to arrange a big summer centival on the lake next July, when the band is on its return from Portland. Mr. Inness had to catch the limited train at noon, so he only had a few moments for consultation, but the encouragement he received from Mr. Lang ford and other gentlemen with whom he conferred, was such as to induce the pellef that the big band may be heard at Saltair next summer

DON B. COLTON ILL.

Utah Law Student Talked to Victory While Suffering from Smallpox.

To talk oneself to victory in a debate while suffering from smallpox is apporently no easy task, yet this is what s Utah boy did at Michigan University last week. Tomorrow the place he won in the final debates he will be unable to fill because of his confinement to his room under quarantine. Don B. Col-ton, the boy who accomplished the feat. is a senior in Michigan's law depart-ment. In Utah he is well known, as he served one term in the Legislature and was at one time a student in the B. Y. academy at Provo. He went to Michigan as a graduate of the Provo school. The dangerous period of his ilness is now passed, although he will not be released from quarantine for two weeks

ELECT DEMOCRATS.

Several of Them, Including Stringham For Legislature, Successful.

The long delay of Wayne county in reporting the final result of the election has finally ended in the declaration that the Democratic instead of the Republi can nominee for the Legislature is elected. He leads his opponent by four votes. George L. Stringham is the victorious candidate, while W. H. Mor-reil must content himself with being one of the very rare class of the Re-publicans who were not elected. Other Democratic majorities in Wayne County were: For sheriff, Hy-rum Bryan, 4 votes; for county attorney, S. E. Tanner, 6 votes: for county su-perintendent of schools, E. P. Pectol 94 votes.

Information to this effect was re-ceived by Secretary Joseph M. Cohen of the Democratic state committee to-day, and corroborated in part by tidings to Secretary Sanford of the Republican state committee.

The bondsmen are inclined to be lenient, and the trouble is considered as due to imperfect or careless bookkeeping, rather than to any criminal intent.

A VICTIM OF TYPHOID.

Rudger R. Clawson, a Young Man of Twenty, Succumbs to Its Ravages.

After an illness of just four weeks, from typhold fever, Rudger R., son of from typhold fever, Rudger R., son of Apostle Rudger Clawson, died at 2:15 this morning at the family residence, 49 Canyon road. When the young man was stricken, he was attending the L. D. S. Bustness college. He had been studying very hard, and was not in good condition to battle with the ravages of the disease, which grappied hard upon him from the outset. Every-thing possible in the way of kind flursthing possible in the way of kind flurs-ing and gentle and skilful treatment was done but without avail. From the beginning he was desperately sick, and the seriousness of the fight he was making was realized. However, on Monday last he appeared to take a de-cided turn for the better, and the out-look was favorable until yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when alarming symptoms appeared to be followed by symptoms appeared to be followed by severe sinking spells, which continued until death relieved him this morning. The deceased was a studious youth, in the twentieth year of his age, and the eldest child in the family. His love of home, musical inclination, admira-tion for the beautiful, and thoughtful consideration of parents, brothers and sisters greatly endeared him to them and to them his demise is a crushing blow. He had commenced to be an earnest worker in Church circles, and held the cifice of ward Teacher. He was greatly beloved by a wide circle of friends, who will join with the bereaved family in mourning his depart-

In the death of this son, Mr. and Mrs. Clawson have suffered the loss of four children, three sons and a daughter. The funeral services will take place at the Eighteenth ward chapel on Sunday at 12 o'clock noon. Friends are in-vited, and the remains may be viewed at the family residence from 10 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. on the day of the obsequies.
