LOCAL BRIEFS.

Varsity Club Dance.—The first dance of the season at the University club will be held on the evening of the 25th inst., at 8:30.

Given a Banquet.—J. H. West and T. R. Lawson were given a banquet Saturday night at the Wilson hotel by friends on the occasion of their departure from Y. M. C. A. bachelors quarters.

Attorneyship Change.—Judge Gibbons has resigned the attorneyship at Los Angeles of the San Pedro road, and Judge Kelly who for so many years was general solicitor for the Union Pacific, succeeds him. Judge Kelly resigned from the Union Pacific to change his residence from Omaha to Los Angeles.

Knights' Smoker.—Rocky Mountain Lodge No. 3, Knights of Pythias, will give a smoker on the evening of the 15th inst., when veteran jewels will be conferred on two charter members, John Hilgson and W. W. Phillips. On the same evening, the second rank will be conferred, and Grand Chancellor H. B. Johnson will officiate.

Additional Delegates.—President Hewlett of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association has appointed these delegates to attend the seventh annual session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress to be held at Kansas City, Nov. 20-23: James G. McDonald, J. R. Valentine, E. C. Cramer, John R. Bruff, R. J. Shields, N. L. Morris, E. G. Holding and William G. Lambert.

Prescott Woman Recovering.—Edna Prescott, the woman who was struck by a rock thrown by L. T. Martin, early Saturday morning, an account of which appeared in the "News" the same day, is thought to be on the road to recovery, although she has not entirely regained consciousness. Martin is still in the city jail, and a charge will not be preferred against him until further developments of his victim's condition.

Band Not Stranded.—Manager Cohen says the Rocky Mountain band is not stranded, as an Ogden paper erroneously printed it, although the band has met with reverses. The report was sent all over the country, and the result was that the band received from Honolulu and Oakland to help the "stranded" musicians home. But Manager Cohen replies that the band never left Ogden, and will go without assistance.

Jap Used Razor.—A Japanese was recently attacked by a fellow countryman in the yards of the Grand Short Line, where both were employed, late on Saturday. The weapon used was a razor, by which the man attacked was nearly scalped. Two watchmen interfered and probably saved the life of the Jap, who was the victim of the other's ire. The defending white man had a severe tussle with the offending brown man, but he was not successful in making his escape and has not yet been apprehended. While the injuries of the other Jap are serious, it is thought that he will recover.

Battery Meeting.—Col. Lund has called a meeting of the battery for tomorrow evening, to see what can be done in the way of straightening things out. Capt. Barton of the battery says the reason there were no more men present at the inspection was because they were not given notice and notifications were not given before the adjutant general failed to honor his requisition for stamps and stationery with which to send out the notices. Also, that the rubbish was on the floor because the other commands of the guard occupying the armory swept the rubbish down from upstairs onto the battery floor.

FRANK S. GOODMAN SPEAKS AT M.C.A.

General Secretary of the International Association at New York.

PURPOSES OF THE WORK.

Organization Has Become a World Power—Speaker Said Its Object Is Uplifting of Character.

Genl Secy. Frank S. Goodman of the International Y. M. C. A. at New York spoke yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian church, where he said: "I am here in this beautiful and well-appointed edifice because the Congregational church is the friend of the association. This is the forty-first anniversary Sunday of prayer of the Young Men's Christian association. The association has become a world power. There is a power of conscious need, an intangible force at work within the association which has for its object the upbuilding of character and the betterment of men, of society. In the power of the association is the largest Christian brotherhood the world has ever seen. There are 1,865 associations in the United States with a membership of 406,000. In the world at large there are 5,245 associations with a total world membership of about 800,000. In the late Russian-Japanese war the power of the association was felt to the extent that it captured the Japanese army. During the siege of Port Arthur the great Russian cathedral there was badly damaged by shot and shell. After the capture the cathedral was repaired at considerable cost and used by the Y. M. C. A., and by this means and endeavor, according to Maj. Gen. Kamino—himself not a Christian—hundreds of thousands of soldiers representing every class of Japanese society were made acquainted with the gospel of Christ, and when these hundreds of thousands returned home they told their parents, brothers, friends and neighbors that many more of the Japanese have been made acquainted with the good works of the Christian religion."

ASSOCIATION IS STRONG.

"The association is strong in its power of literary leadership. Two thousand six hundred men are engaged as secretaries, devoting their time and talents to the furthering of the great work, as against 200,000,000 of the world. The power and influence of the army of laymen who are giving their time as officers and active workers free, it is impossible to compute. There are 45,000 of these brave, unselfish men engaged in the good work today. In foreign countries its work is equally powerful. The association of Sweden relinquished his right to the throne to become the head of the Young Men's Christian association of that country and kingdom. In the power of the association is the power of the States. 552 buildings and contracts, worth $350,000, 1890. Last year the association expended in the erection of buildings $350,000. In power of public favor the association stands without an equal. It has the endorsement of the leading men of the world. In the power of a great objective the power of the association is the power of the world. It is not in order to use it effectively and to the best advantage you must know how and where to direct it. The requisition of the body and its claims for development, to the full, over of which it is capable are not overlooked by the association. In it there are 685 gymnasiums, which an average of 154,000 men use every day. For the improvement of the mind there are 700 educational departments, which last year had an enrolled membership of 35,000 students. In spiritual effects the Bible classes include 80,000 as against 23,000 in 1900.

"The great power of the association lies in its loyalty to Christ—loyalty to His teachings in applying them to the everyday life. It is the sympathy of men—their aid to the unfortunate, needy and distressed. A reliance on the power and spirit of Christ to help man through all his trials and tribulations, or of the church to reach out to the betterment of men. It represents a recognition of the needs of men."

AFTER TEMPTATION.

"After Temptation, What?" was the subject of Mr. Goodman's address to men at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium in the afternoon. He said: "In one thing we are all alike—we are subject to be tempted. There are tempted men who triumph and tempted men who yield. There are men who live to tempt and men who live to be tempted. After Temptation, What? That is a fair, square question. After temptation it may be a victory or it may be death. It's a foot that leads to sin or temptation, and it has it within himself. He can if he will, deny himself and come out conqueror over all temptation. A man who plays to win at another man's game will come out loser, but many do. The devil always tempts a man when he least expects it. Temptation or sin will not come in unless you let it. Temptation is a good thing for a man in that it is a test of character. Life is a school where we make character. Man grows strong because he can say No to temptation. He needs to learn to say No to temptation. He needs to understand the power of the enemy. Men fail because they parley with evil. Many men go half way—just far enough not to go in, but they are on dangerous ground. Nobody ever lost on a straight road."

"I feel very sorry for the men that want to go to heaven. I want to stay as long as I can and wage eternal warfare against sin. It is a hard fight, but put your hand in his and you will come out victorious. Learn to put your trust in Christ and you will attain a triumphant result. Always remember that temptation is a serious trial which you can overcome by the help of Christ."

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

In the evening, Mr. Goodman gave a lecture in the First Presbyterian church, illustrated by the slides of the Y. M. C. A. among the boys, the army and navy, the railroad men, the business men, the college students, the scientific field and the buildings, and the earnestness of the countenances of the Bible students portrayed were effective arguments in the plea of the lecturer. The program for today, is as follows, at the Y. M. C. A.:
8:30 a. m.—Conference with Association Executive Office.
9:30 a. m.—Conference with the woman's section, "A Boy's Religion."
10:30 a. m.—Lunch and conference with association management.
11:30 a. m.—Devotional exercises, Dean Benjamin Brewster.
12:15 p. m.—Address, "Some Essentials to a Successful Religious Campaign."
1:30 p. m.—Lunch, Elmer I. Goshen, presiding. "Why Should the Association Promote a Vigorous Campaign for Bible Study by Men?" Rev. H. J. Talbot, George B. Swazey and Mr. Goodman.
2:30 p. m.—Address, "Religious Work for Men."

AMERICAN $10,000 GAME OF BINGO

This Was Committed in Oregon With Wind up Here.

SHEETS FIGURES IN STORY.

Detective Day of Portland Accused Local Chief of Police of Assisting in Escape of Alleged Thieves.

Portland, Or., as well as Salt Lake, has its $10,000 robbery, and the name of Chief of Police George Sheets figures in the story from the northwest as it does in the one at home. He is not quite so central a figure in his own case as he is in the one nearer his own door, however, and an investigation determined whether or not he is blameless in the Oregon matter. It will be remembered by readers of the "News" that a short time ago Harry and Leora Morgan, colored people, were arrested by the police of Salt Lake, at the request of Chicago officers. They were wanted by the authorities of that city for the largest robbery of one Anton Fritz, a wealthy retired butcher. The couple had considerable money in a Salt Lake bank, deposited after the arrival here. Detective Joe Day of Portland came to take the prisoners to the Oregon city. The Morgans, however, put up a lively fight in the courts here, and before the habeas corpus proceeding could be determined, the prisoners were released, at the request of Day, who reported that the matter would be settled out of court.

GOT MORE THAN McWHITERS.

It appears that Fritz, the man robbed, got back only $2,500 of his money (in this he was more fortunate than the McWhiters by $1,500), and he is blaming Detective Day for the small amount recovered, $4,000, of which $2,000 went to the officers connected with the case. Day accuses Fritz of making it possible for the Morgans to avoid being taken to Portland.

CHARGES AGAINST DAY.

Day is accused of conspiracy by Fritz, and the former is trying to find a justification of his own acts. Day told conflicting stories to Chief Sheets, so the latter claims. In relation to the robbery, Fritz now claims that he was not robbed by the Morgan woman, who is known as the "Cady Kid," but that there was a plot between his own brother, Fred, and Detective Day. Fritz now claims that the robbery was a plot between his own brother, Fred, and Detective Day. Fritz now claims that the robbery was a plot between his own brother, Fred, and Detective Day.

INVESTIGATION ON.

The matter is under investigation by the district attorney at Portland, and it is quite probable that the echoes of the case will resound in Salt Lake and that persons here connected with the case will be called upon to explain.

CROUP.

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use in case of croup, is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croup has appeared. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other harmful drug. For sale by all druggists.
