Seagirt. N. J., Aug. 19-Late reports received here are to the effect that in mariy every state of the Union the flower of the expert rifle shots, especially those conceted with the military establishment, re devoting much of their attention and ime to preparation for participation # the great target competition to be held here, beginning Aug. 27. It is already assured that the coming meet will be the occasion of the largest gathering of military rifle shots every held in this military rifle shots every held in this country. The meet will be under the au-pices of the national board for the pro-metion of rifle practise, the National Rifle Association of America and the Ner Jer-scy State Rifle association. It is expected that at heast forty teams of twelve men each representing the several states, the army, navy and marine corps and island possessions will complete in the national team match alone. In the national team match alones the the that the competitors will number fully one thousand men.

BIG PRIZES.

BIG PRIZES. The national individual match is attract-ing attention to an unprecedented degree intervent of the attractive prizes offered. The match is shot under the auspices of the national board for the promotion of rifle practice and Congress has provided four gold medials four silver medals, four bronze medals and $300 in cash for prizes. Private parties, however, have contributed $2,000 additional making i total of $2,000, the largest sum ever of-fered in this country for each prizes in a rifle competition. First prize is $1,000 in cash, and the gold medial provided by congress. That almost approximates the king's prize, presented by King Edward to the National Rifle Association of Great Britain, which amounts to $1,250, and which is accompanied by a gold media and a gold badge. cien of the practise. This competence is open to teams of twelve men each from the army, may, marine corps, the mili-tary and naval academies of the United States, and the national guard of each state and the District of Columbia. The army is allowed to enter two teams, one representing the infantry and the other the cavalry. Neither West Point nor An-napolls will compete in the match this year. First prize is the national trophy 500 in cash and gold medias for the team members, all provided by Congress. There are five other prizes including the Hilton trophy and the Bronze "Soldier of Mara-thon."

Agent Who Stirs Interest in Gans-Nelson Fight Is Active.

Nelson Fight Is Active. Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 19.-The camp is aroused over the receipt of infimations from outside sources of "fake" in con-nection with the Gans-Nelson fight. Feeling against San Francisco, Los An-geles and Sacriamento as the home of the disturbing elements is decidedl ystrong. A meeting of leading men of the Gold-field club was held this morning. At its conclusion Larry Sullivan said: "We feel here that we cannot too strongly express our displeasure over these intimations of a Take fight. It is also declared that Goldfield is holding this fight merely as an-advertisement for the track and the Queens County Jockey The idea is absolutely erroneous. It has not the slightest foundation, in fact. It is not necessary for us to advertise Goldfield in this way, even if we desired to. We pay for what we get here. "On a day of such importance as Labor day we want to be amused. That is the only reason why we have brought its fight to Goldfield. Having brought its here, we are going to see a real fight, not a make-believe one. You may quote me as asying that I honestly believe were there to be any cry of fake in connec-tion with this contest there would be blood spilled at the ringside." New York, Aug. 19.-Michael F Dwyer, long one of the most prominent figures of the American turf, died today at his little côttage in Brooklyn, opposite the Gravesend race track of the Brooklyn Jockey club, of which Philip J. Dwyer, a brother of the dead horseman, is president. Michael Dwyer suffered a stroke of paralysis some years ago, after he had returned from years ago, after he had returned from a disastrous racing campaign in Eng-land, and since that time had been practically helpless. He was constant-ly attended by two nurses and helped about from place to place. Although he had long ceased to hold an interest in any racing stable or association. died wealthy, while Dwyer was practic-ally penniless. It is related of Dwyer that on an occasion at Sheepshead Bay when James McLaughlin, now a well known owner and trainer, was jockey for the Dwyer Brothers, the plunger put up $60,000 to win $10,000 on the famous old racer Joe Cotton. The distance was seven furiongs, and a hundred yards from the wire it seemed that Joe Cot-ton was beaten, but McLaughlin rode a magnificent finish and landed his employers' money by a short head.

LUCK WENT AGAINST HIM.

It was because of his plunging pro-clivities that Michael Dwyer parted company with his brother Philip. It seemed from that moment that his luck went against him. Ben Brush was after-ward purchased by James R. Keene, and is now at his Castleton stud in Kentucky. Michael and Philip J. Dwyer began their careers as butchers. They took up trotting as a pastime and raced horses at the old Parkville track in Brocklyn, From this they went into racing and with Jimmy McLaughlin as their jockey, amassed a fortune, win-ning many times some of the oldest and richest of the stakes on the eastern turf. They owned Luke Blackburn, George Kinney, Richmond, Miss Woodford, Inspector B, and other horses equally well known.
