

badly scalded, English George, scalded and bruised. The boat was on her way to Wayseata to take on board 100 excursionists, and had stopped at the St. Louis Hotel en route. The Mary has for a long time been considered an unsafe boat. Her boilers are the third of the same make that have exploded in the same lake in the last three years with fatal results. It is claimed there was but sixty pounds of steam on at the time of the explosion and plenty of water.

NEW YORK, 1.—Five steamships landed 1,806 immigrants at Castle Garden yesterday, making the total for June 42,026 against 15,330 in 1879 and 3,057 less than during last month. About one-quarter of the emigrants have come from Germany. As a class they are superior to those who have ever arrived before, and with the exception of the Russians, who are entirely destitute, have been provided with more or less money to start new homes in America.

WASHINGTON, 1.—Secretary Sherman's action in relieving Commissioner Raum of the privilege of making appointments, causes some remarks, but it is learned it has no personal significance, and Raum himself imputes no secondary motive to the Secretary. It is simply the desire of the latter to have close acquaintance with the details of the business.

SAN FRANCISCO, 1.—A dispatch from Carson, Nevada, says W. R. Chamberlain, a convict, was killed at the State prison to-day by John R. Darling, alias Rattlesnake Dick, his pal in a robbery case four years ago. He was killed with a pick axe.

LOUISVILLE, 1.—The court of appeals holds that so much of our statute as excludes all persons other than white men from service on juries is unconstitutional, and that no person can be lawfully excluded from any jury on account of his race or color.

BRADFORD, Pa., 2.—The 25,000 barrel tank of burning oil run over yesterday at Olean, and a number of men digging trenches were probably fatally burned, being unable to escape. The fire is now controlled, the estimated loss is $35,000.

NEW YORK, 2.—The Republican National Committee last night, at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, was called to order by Governor Jewell, when the roll was called it was found that twenty-nine members were present and eleven proxies. Those present in person or by proxy were as follows: Paul Strobek, Alabama, Stephen W. Sorsey, Arkansas, Horace Davis, California, Marshall Jewell, Connecticut, Christian Febriger, Delaware, Wm. H. Hicks, Florida, James B. Devereux, Georgia, John A. Logan, Illinois, John C. New, Indiana, John S. Runnells, Iowa, John A. Martin, Kansas, G. C. Gorham, proxy for Kentucky, Don A. The welcome rain has come and the telegraph reports its area as widespread. The thermometer has fallen considerably, though yesterday's death rate was again frightful.

The deaths yesterday were 184, comprising 80 children under five years and 79 from results of the heat.

Exports of cereals were extraordinarily large yesterday, in corn especially, the total being 923,000 bushels. CHICAGO, 2.—The Times' New York special says: In the national committee, Logan manifested his disgust at the treatment of the old guard in Chicago. He was marked in opposing Wm. E. Chandler. Gorham, of California, obtained the proxy of a Kentucky member and intended to vote for Platt. One of the most active men in the caucuses was Murat Halstead, who made no secret of his surprise that the old Grant faction should show its wounds so openly. During the afternoon Garfield was telegraphed to come on as soon as possible and help arrange the campaign. The present committee is divided just about as at Chicago, 18, led by Conkling, Logan, Cameron, and 30 opposed.

SAN ANTONIO, 2.—Ominous news comes from the Rio Grande that merchants and cattle men are hovering near the river, in order to escape into Texas should the present election end in revolution.

The following executive committee was chosen: Horace Davis, of California; James B. Debeaux, of Georgia; John A. Logan, of Illinois; John C. New, of Indiana; John S. Runnells, of Iowa; John A. Mason, of West Virginia; Elihu Enos, of Wisconsin; R. C. McCormick, of Arizona; Stephen B. Elkins, of New Mexico.

A resolution was passed calling for a meeting of the National Committee on the 15th of October, when the resolution proposed at last night's meeting will be acted upon.

The executive committee was organized by electing Marshall Jewell as chairman, S. W. Dorsey as Secretary, and Col. Geo. W. Hooker, of Vermont, as assistant secretary. Horace Davis, was named as member for California, of the Western division, with executive committee headquarters at Chicago. The division will be under the charge of General Logan. Governor Jewell and Secretary Dorsey were empowered to select permanent headquarters for the committee.

The committee was addressed by Messrs. Canaday, North Carolina, Hicks, Florida, Lee, South Carolina, and Dorsey, of Arkansas. Jewell moved that the time for the next meeting of the executive committee be fixed as follows: August 5th, September 9th and October 14th; adopted.

Logan, having vacated the chair, then moved that the chairman and secretary of the executive committee be instructed to prepare and issue a circular embodying the laws governing eligibility of electors; adopted.

A motion was adopted, Made by R. C. McCormick, to the effect that a sub-committee of three, to which the chairman and secretary of the Executive Committee be added, be appointed for consultation with the Executive Committee in reference to matters pertaining to the campaign, to report at the next meeting of the Executive Committee. This committee consists of the chairman, Jewell, the secretary, Dorsey, R. McCormick, G. W. Hooker and J. B. Devere. It was stated that there was a personal desire on all hands that Mr. Blaine should visit the Pacific Coast, and Governor Foster moved that a formal invitation be extended by the committee to Blaine to do so. The western branch of the committee then met and appointed John C. New, secretary, and adjourned to meet at Chicago on the 22d of July.

CHICAGO, 2.—The Inter-Ocean's New York special says: To-day the condition of Dr. Tanner, who is attempting to fast forty days, was unchanged except by a slight increase in the pulse. He rose at 6.30 after a night of broken slumber and took a bath before he dressed. The attending physicians made a thorough examination of his clothing in order that there should be no food concealed. In appearance the doctor resembles a "go-as-you-please" pedestrian who has been pushed to his utmost. His eye is sunken slightly and his face has a worn expression, although his voice is strong. At noon to-day he began the fifth day of his task. His pulse was higher and more irregular, ranging from 80 to 102. Temperature normal.

The attendance was greater than on the previous days. In the morning many women were present and the interest manifested by the physicians hourly increase. Dr. Tanner has abstained from drinking water since Wednesday night. He spends his time lying on a cot or sitting in a chair, and talks freely with those about him. He did not sleep a wink as usual yesterday and in the afternoon walked to Fourth Avenue and Third Street where he was weighed, and his weight was 147½ pounds, a decrease of ten pounds since he began his fast.

Gen. J. B. Weaver, greenback candidate for President, has written a letter of over a column, in which he expresses his intention of taking the stump in behalf of his own party. The letter is chiefly an elaboration of the greenback platform at Chicago, denunciatory of the republican and democratic parties, especially the latter, promises great reforms under the greenback party rule, dwells on the miserable state of the nation's finances, the grasping banking and railroad corporations, declares that the poor laboring man and poor soldier have no chance for advancement and are fast retrograding into vassalage, asserts that the public debt is being refunded to perpetuate the banking fraud and grind the people to ruin, and declares that emigrants from other shores are left destitute and homeless here, because the public domain is not sacredly preserved for actual settlers. The only allusion to the Chinese question is the following rather insignificant paragraph: The emigration of persons from foreign countries, seeking homes and desiring to become citizens of the United States, should be encouraged, but the importation of Chinese servile laborers should be prohibited by stringent laws.

Frequent and heavy showers throughout the Northwest have already greatly delayed the harvest of wheat, and impeded the cultivation of corn and hay making in central Illinois. Last night there were heavy rains which damaged the grain already cut, and made it impossible to get into the ripening fields for some days. Unless the weather clears and remains dry the damage will be equal to that two years ago. Unfavorable reports from Minnesota are received, but not verified as yet.

The Journal says it is a surprising fact that the census returns from portions of the interior counties of the older Western States of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin show a decrease in population as compared with the census of 1870. This is accounted for by the mania of the past few years for moving into new States and Territories farther West.

WASHINGTON, 2.—Joseph Nimmo is busily at work preparing a document of considerable proportions upon the proposed interoceanic canal. He is the chief of the bureau of statistics, and has all the material accessible here. He proposes to publish an exhaustive revision of the effect of the Isthmus canal upon the commerce of the world, showing in what respect it would benefit and where subtract from the business of any ports, and all other possible commercial phases of the question, supposing the canal once constructed. He will take a trip to San Francisco about the last of the month.

The Department of State has just received a dispatch from the minister of the United States at the City of Mexico in relation to the projected railroads in the republic, which states that the subject has lately seriously engaged the attention of the Mexican people and Congress, and it cannot but correspondingly interest capitalists in the United States, for they will probably be called upon to furnish the means for these enterprises.

The Secretary of the Treasury has returned to the treasury $1,000,000 of an unexpended balance of appropriations for refunding the National debt and $2,000,000 of an unexpended balance of appropriation for collecting the revenue for the last year, being amounts saved by the department out of sums authorized to be expended by law.

KANSAS CITY, 2.—The reception committee left here this morning for Odessa, forty miles distant, where they met General Grant and party, and after introduction by Colonel Van Horn, Mayor Chase made a speech of welcome. The train then started and arrived here at 9.20. Notwithstanding a heavy rain, an immense crowd was at the depot and gave the General a hearty welcome. The party consisted of General Grant, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Fred Grant and daughter Julia and W. W. Smith. They were escorted to the Coates House for breakfast. Great crowds are in the streets and many houses are decorated. After breakfast General Grant accompanied by General Phelps and several members of the reception committee, left for Merriam Park, nineteen miles from the city. The party will return at 6 o'clock this evening, when General Grant will receive old soldiers, after which a banquet will be given him.

GALVESTON, 2.—A News special from Cedar Mills says: K. Frank Northcote, who shot constable Crabtree, was arrested and placed under guard at Crabtree's house. During the night he was taken from the guard by a mob of masked men, who crossed the Red River to Indian Territory, where they riddled him with bullets. Northcote's relations, having a clue to the perpetrators, will prosecute.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, 30.—The police arrived at the Jesuit establishment on the Rue de Seures at 4 o'clock this morning. They were immediately admitted. Shortly after, a crowd of 500 persons, composed largely of students and women, collected. There was some shouting for and against the decrees. The police partly cleared the street and refused to admit Bander d'Osson to the building. The prefect of police having arrived, the building was formally declared closed. The Jesuits, accompanied by several Deputies and Senators of the Left, departed amidst great excitement, caused by the demonstrations of their sympathizers and counter demonstrations. There were indignant cries against the Prefect of Police. In the ensuing scuffle, the Marquis of Lion Court and chief editors of the Union Legitimist Journal were arrested. Some of the fathers locked themselves in the cells, which had to be broken open. The police then cleared the street and they remained on guard there. The door of the establishment had been forced and the Jesuits conducted out by soldiers, a battalion of whom were present under arms.

Several Jesuit establishments are taking legal proceedings against the commissaries of the police for violating the domicile and infringing on personal liberty. A semi-official note has been sent to the journals, which, after announcing that the execution of the decrees had not led to a disturbance in any part of France, says: Effect had only to be given to-day to the decrees affecting the Jesuits. As to the other congregations, the decrees affecting them only constitutes a summons to place their position on a legal footing. Material means for carrying out the decrees would have been wanting if the government had undertaken to act against all congregations simultaneously. Throughout the provinces to-day the Jesuits quitted their establishments under protest, declaring they yielded to compulsion at Avignon and Marseilles. Their sympathizers were somewhat disorderly. At Lyons and Angiers the Jesuits have constituted themselves as civil societies, and the question thus raised will be decided by the courts on the 2d of July.

The closing of the Jesuit chapel in Rue Severs with the sacrament left inside, is regarded as a great desecration by the Catholics. The persons arrested on the streets, including an ex-president, a writer on the Journal la Justice, and some students, were all released after examination.
