CONCERT.

WE purpose giving another Concert in the Bowery on on the evening of thursday the 4th, July, when we shall endeavor to introduce an interesting variety of sentimental and Comic pieces and pieces which will be new to the people of Deseret generally, together with some original pieces. Those who love amusement will have the privilege of enjoying it for a few hours, at a small cost.

We are anxious to liquidate the expenses attending the building of the carriage as soon as possible, as we want to devote our attention to other matters. We hope our friends will give us a liberal patronage, and we in turn will endeavor to gratify them with an evening's amusement which we think they will not regret listening to.

In order to save time, and avoid confusion at the door, we shall have tickets for sale, at the Tithing Office, and Post Office at 25cts. each.

For further particulars see Bills.

REVENGE EXTRAORDINARY.—A wag having had a dispute with a man who kept a sausage shop, and owing him a grudge, ran into his shop one day, as he was serving good customers, with an immense dead cat, which he quickly deposited on the counter, say, "This makes nineteen: as you are busy now we'll settle some other time;" and he was off in a twinkling—The customers, aghast, soon followed him, leaving their sausages behind.

Rencontre in Washington.—A Washington letter of Feb. 9th says: A fight took place this evening at the National Hotel, between Hon. Mr. Levin, of Pa., and the Hon. Fitz Henry Warren, Second ass't Postmaster General. 'Is your name, Levin?' said Warren. 'Yes, sir; but I don't want any thing to do with you as you are a scoundrel,' was the reply of Levin. Warren then struck Mr. L.; who defended himself with a small cane, Warren following him up la Tom Hyer, till Col. Baker and others got between the belligerents and separated them. The fracas grew out of a Pennsylvania mail agency, obnoxious to Levin.

Rise in Coffee.—The Boston Traveler states that the coffee crop is greatly deficient this year, from the following causes:—In Java the eruption of a volcano has destroyed a great number of coffee trees; in Venezuela, according to letters received in Boston, severe rains had greatly reduced the crop. In Hayti sumptuary laws had prevented its reception at the various ports, but latterly it was coming in more freely. This scarcity has caused a considerable enhancement in the price of the article all over the world. It has advanced in this city about 2 cents per lb.

A novel match took place, a few days ago, near Hereford, in which a young gentleman undertook, for a wager, to lap up a saucer of milk in less time than a cat. They both commenced at the same time, but on account of the gentleman being seized with a violent fit of laughter, which greatly impeded his progress, the cat was enabled to gain a great lead; however, the gentleman soon came up with her and won by two table spoonful.

We breakfasted on green peas, last Monday, from our garden; but we doubt not many have done a similar thing before us. this season. Elder Bullock married a couple on the 16th inst., and supped on peas.
