DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY MAY 25 1907

Third Street Card club on Tuesday the prizes being won by Mrs W. T. Benson and Mrs. John Renseimar.

CMINCSAND ST

Miss Burkella Pierce of the Pierpon

No oth We oth

1200

the place cards had quotations from Dante.

. . . Mrs. W. G. Filer entertained at luncheon on Wednesday at the Coun-try club in honor of Mrs. Eskridge, the table being decorated in snow-balls and the place cards hand-paint-ed in green and white. Covers were laid for 15 guests. Mrs, A. R. Levy entertained at a delightful whist party and luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Miss Lena Levy one of the coming June brides.

Miss Eva Richardson gave a box party at the Orpheum vesterday in honor of Miss Beatrice O'Connor.

Mrs. J. H. McChrystal was hostess in an informal nuncheon at the Com-mercialy club on Wednesday.

School of Oratory has returned from an extensive visit in the east, and will be at home to her friends at 37 east North Temple street. Mrs. Frederick Leanard entertained tor Sewing club on Wednesday. * * *

Miss Rebecca Morris left on Wednes-day to join her mother in California, where her marriage to Mr. R. G. Offi-cer takes place about June 8.

Mrs. A. H. Ensign and children will leave shortly to spend the summer in California.

Samuel Newhouse brought with him from New York his two nieces, Miss Georgeida Moore and Miss Ruth Kingsbury. . . .

Mrs. N. M. Hamilton leaves early in June for a stay of some three months abroad. She will tour France in an automobile with some New York riends.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wallace have returned, after a stay of some six weeks in the east.

Mrs. Brownlee leaves next week for Boulder, Colo., to spend several weeks, Miss Maggie Brimley left this week for Los Angeles to visit with relatives.

Miss Ida Hanauer left this week to spend the summer in Philadelphia and other castern citles.

Judge Edward F. Colborn has return-ed from the cast, where he has spent the past few weeks at the Jamestown exposition. . . .

Mrs. F. J. Fabian leaves Monday for the east to spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boxrud will leave early in June for Wellesley, to attend the graduating exercises of their daughter, Miss Helen Boxrud.

Miss Ethel Thompson, who has been visiting friends in the city, returned to her home in Beaver on Wednesday.

Mrs. Thomas B. Davis of New York is visiting with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Harkness.

Mrs. C. H. McMahon has been ap-pointed delegate from Utah to the convention of National Charities and Corrections which will be held next month in Minneapolis.

Lieut, Alpha T. Easton will leave early in June for a month's visit with his parents in Virginia. He will return before the middle of July to sail with his regiment for the Philippines.

Mrs. M. S. Woodward will leave shortly for the east, whence she sails early in June to spend the summer abroad with her daughter, Miss Lillian Woodward.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Aley have re-turned from a short trip to Denver.

Miss Becky Parker is here from Tex-as and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Parker, at Fort Douglas.

Miss Helen Monroe has returned from Stanford and will spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. C. H. McMahon.

Miss Nicholson of Chicago is visiting her sister, Mrs. Foster Curtis, at 967 First street.

Mr. Stanley Price has returned from Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. E. Fife has returned from Cheyenne, where she has been visiting her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Waterman have returned to their home in Nevada. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis are the city for a short time visiting with Mrs. Davis's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Groo, on First street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Evans have re-

. . . .

A pretty home wedding of the week was that of Miss Florence Robbins and Milan L. Crandall, on Wednesday, the cremony being performed by Rev. W. A. Paden in the presence of the families and a reception following. The rooms were bright with flowers, and appropri-ate music was rendered during the ser-vice by Mrs. Harry S. Knight. Miss Alice Martin was bridesmaid, and Mr. Louis Seckles best man. Later Mr. and Mrs. Crandall left for Bingham, where they will reside. Another pretty wedding of the week

Another pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Edna Carter and Ralph D. Evans, the ceremony being petformed by Bishop T. W. Williams, and about a hundred guests being present. Miss Stella Carter and Miss Minnie Evans were bridesmaids and Mr. William Duncan best man, After June I, Mr. and Mrs. Evans will be at home on east Third South street.

This week in Boston Rev. Ellis Bishop, formerly rector of St. Paul's church in this city, and Miss Eleanor Burnett of Boston, were married at that place, the bridal couple leaving afterward for Canada. Later they will leave for a tour in Europe.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mercy E. Tuckett and Mr. T. S. Jensen, the wedding to take place the latter part of June.

PROVO.

The Nineteenth Century club me Friday with Mrs. W. B. Scarle, Mrs. David Westwood presented an inter-esting paper on "Will Carleton," and Mrs. E. E. Corfman one on "Joaquin Miller."

. . .

The Sorosis met Thursday with Mrs. E. D. Partridge. Miss Francella Adams gave an interesting paper, "A Study From Wagner," with a story from Tannhauser.

Cards are out announcing the wed-ding of Miss Leah Yyne and Mr. Geo. W. Ekins, to take place in the Salt Lake Temple on Jac 12.

Mrs. Jessie Knight royally enter-tained at her beautiful home. Wed-nesday afternoon. Palms, carnations and ferns mere used in decoration. About 75 guests enjoyed the hospital-ity of their amiable hostess. De-licious refreshments were served. Mrs. Bert Sutton was the hostes Mrs. Bert Sutton was the abstess at a delightful shower given at her home Monday in honor of Miss Mary Bensley, whose marriage to Mr. Chas. S. Gardner of Pine valley was solemn-ized in the Salt Lake Temple this mark week.

. . . Miss Lucile Young was a Salt Lake

visitor this week.

Mrs. O. W. flyde and her daughter, Miss Orlean, are here from Garland to spend the summer with Mrs. Hyde's star. ister, Mrs. J. M. Jensen,

A very enjoyable reception was giv-en Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Twelves, by the "Out for Fun" elüb, from 3 to 7 o'clock. Mrs. Jessie M. Smith be-ing the guest of honor. The rooms were artistically decorated with ferns and poppies. One hundred guests were entertained.

A TAILORED MOURNING HAT.

Very smart but simple chapeau of panama in the popular bellshape. The high crown is banded with black taffeta ribbon, and numerous ends and black wings are held to the crown by an oblong, dull jet buckle.

Mrs. S. H. Pyne entertained at a charming Kensington Wednesday.

Mr. Rollo Callaway of the B. Y. U. cighth grade, entertained his class-mates at his home, Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles E. Maw entertained at a Kensington, Friday afternoon. The ladies of the Women of Wood-craft entertained at a delightful soci-able Thursday night in the K, of P, hall.

 $|u| = \mathbf{e} + \mathbf{e}$

Mrs. D. D. Houtz entertained at a

Rensington at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jessie

LOGAN.

. . .

. . . .

I Ib Cans 35c.

nall.

Smith.

-

On Monday evening last Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Preston, Jr., entertained the following friends most delightfully at dinner: Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Budge, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Campbell, Dr. T. B. Budge and Dr. Emeis. The table was prettily decorated with bachelor but-tons and ferns.

tons and ferns. Miss Laura Nebeker entertained in-formally on Friday evening her guests being Miss Dora Wright, Prof. A. E. Bowen and Prof. George Hendricks. On Saturday evening last the Sigma Alpha frateriay of the U. A. C. held its annual banquet at the Lincoln Hotel. An elaborate menu was served and the dining room was most effec-tively and prettily decorated for the occasion. Those present were Prof. and Mrs. Robinson as chaperones; Misses Maud Egbert, Jet McCarrick, Myrtle Ballard. Allie Bowen, Eva Farr, Hazel Pond, Laura Nebeker, Carrie McAlister, Lizzie McKay, Mrs. Hillman, Messrs. O. W. Adams, Book-er Preston, Ellis Hudman, Roy Ru-dolph, A. B. Olsen, R. E. Hillman, W. J. Conger, J. P. Barrack, B. F. Riter, Jr., and J. E. Bell.

Mrs. Dalinda Cotey entertained at a 4 o'clock tea on Saturday last at the U. A. C. Her guests ware Misses Ray-mond, Hervey, Linn, Kyle, Boyer. The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Flemming was the scene of a pleasant social party last Monday night, the

Mr. I. N. Smith, a former resident f Logan is here from California,

ach

Mrs. Hubbard Reed was hostess at an elaborate luncheon at the Alta club on Thursday, the table being laid in the gold room and beautifully decorated gold room and beautifully decorated in snowballs, which were used as a cen-terpiece, while small baskets of them were at each place. The lights were shaded in whits and green in snowball design. Present were Mrs. Benjamin C. Loekwood, Mrs. W. C. McCornick, Mrs. William McCaskell, Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. M. S. Woodward, Mrs. H. G. McMillan, Mrs. Risque and her aunt, Mrs. T. S. Tesson, Mrs. David S. Murray, Mrs. J. B. Cosgriff, Mrs. Ken-neth, Kerr, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Robert J. Glendinning, Miss Craw-ford, Mrs. Mascon, Mrs. L. Terry and Mrs. J. P. Megeath. Mrs. J. P. Megeath.

One of the largest affairs of the weel by Mrs. W. S. McCornick, assisted by her daughters, and Mrs. William Mc-Caskell. The rooms were decorated in potted plants and cut flowers, red being Morris, Mr. James Brian, Prof. John McClellan and Prof. George Skelton. A McClenan and Fron. George Skenon. A string orchestra was also in attendance, rendering delightful selections during the afternoon, the entire program being arranged by Mr. Fred Gruham. After-ward a tea was served, About a hundred guests were present.

Mrs. Andrew Howat and daughters Mrs. Andrew Howat and daughters entertained at a bridge tea on Thurs-day, the hostesses including Mrs. How-at, Miss Jane Howat, Mrs. R. H. Hamp-ton, Mrs. J. F. Odeli and Mrs. Lewis Schoppe. The rooms were decorated in wild flowers arranged in Indian bas-kets except in the diningroom, which was in American Beauty roses. Assist-lor during the afternoon were Mrs. D was in American Beauty roses. Assist-ing during the afternoon were Mrs. D. G. Kelly, Mrs. Lear Riter, Mrs. Lee Dinwoodey, Miss Kate Groo and Miss Laura Schoppe. Prizes were awarded each of the eight tables, the winners being Mrs. F. J. Fabian, Mrs. Hugh L. Thomas, Mrs. Elbridge Thomas, Mrs. Arthur Davis, Mrs. Frank T. Roberts, Mrs. Frank Gustin, Mrs. Roy Brown, Mrs. Dana T. Smith.

Miss Edna Dwyer was hostess at Miss Edna Dwyer was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday, the rooms being beautifully decorated with roses and vines and the guests being Mrs. W. Montague Ferry, Mrs. Charles G. Plum-mer, Miss Edna Cohn, Mrs. Lee Charles Miller, Mrs. W. S. Loomis, Mrs. J. E. Caine, Mrs. Martha Royle King and Mrs. Frank W. Jennings,

Mrs. H G. Brockman has issued in-vitations for a bridge tea to be given at her home next Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Howat and her daughter entertained at a second card party yesterday and have issued invitations for two sim-ilar affairs next week.

Miss Mary Olive Gray will give a musicale on Monday night at the Con-gregational church, with Mrs. C. H. Daily assisting.

A brilliant affair of last week was the hop given in honor of Maj, and Mrs. Allen M. Smith, a large number being present both from the post and the city. Mrs. Bryant S. Wells and Mrs. F. H. Burton were in charge, and masisting in entertaining were Col. and Mrs. Benja-min C. Lockwood, Mrs. Edward P. Pen-dieton (Maj, Pendleton being absent), and Maj, and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Moore enter-tained informally at dinner on Thurs-day night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cool of Denver.

Mrs. W. F. James entertained her card club on Monday. Mrs. D. E. Kelly was hostess at an informal bridge tea on Tuesday, her guests numbering about 16. The de-

Mrs. Vitate Romney was hosteas at a Kensington on Wednesday assisted by her daughters, Mrs. R. G. Roff and Mrs. N. Y. Schoffeld. Potted plants and flowers were all about the rooms and about 35 guests enjoyed the

Mrs. W. S. Henderson entertained at a delightful card party yesterday, and this afternoon at a similar affair, her decorations being spring flowers and about 29 guests being present at 5 8 8 Mrs. C. M. Bell entertained the Utopia club this week, the prizes in the card contest being won by Mrs. S. H. Pinkerton and Mrs. D. C. Jackilng. W.H.K. Miss Maud Miller was hostess at a pleasant afternoon affair today in hon-or of Miss Hankia of Los Angeles. Miss Lena Levy was guest of honor at a luncheon today, followed by a box at a luncheon and shower party next

- 10 10 17

HOME DRESS IN LANSDOWNE, EMBROIDERED.

After the regular periods of mourning, and before any colors are adopted, touches of simple embroideries are added to the little house dresses of lansdowne, crepe de Chine and cashmere. This model has the front panel and the jumper waist embroidered in dots and a narrow border. An under blouse of black filet net over black chiffon is simple and effective, party at the Orpheum, her hostesses | Monday to be given by Miss Clare Lit-being Miss Lowenstein and Miss Gla- | the. . . .

Mrs. H. N. Mayo was hostess at an informal luncheon on Thursday, given in honor of Mrs. Burkett of Hailey, Ida., the table being decorated in snow-balls, and covers laid for six.

Mrs. D. G. Lilley entertained on Wednesday at a Kensington in honor of Mrs. Snyder of Long Beach.

. . . On Thursday Prof. C. Larson of the L. D. S. U., entertained the members of his German class at the home of

. . .

One of the large card parties of the week was given on Thursday afternoon by the Woman's Republican club for the benefit of the Canyon Crest farm, prizes being won by Mrs. D. Meskill and Mrs. A. Leynolds. Mrs. McMahon gave a talk on the needs of the insti-tution, and a feature of the afternoon was the presentation of $50 by Mrs. Bonnemort to the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Stowe entertained their card club on Thursday night.

Yesterday Miss Winn and Miss Block intertained at a tea previous to leav-ing for their home in St. Louis, the rooms being bright with flowers and ferns, and the hostensees being assisted by Miss Shearman, Miss Crawford and by Miss Banauer.

Miss Evelyn Thomas entertained the Cup and Saucer club yesterday.

Mrs. E. S. Ferry entertained yester-day in honor of Mrs. Kerr, and next Tuesday Mrs. T. G. Webber will also entertain in her honor,

On Thursday the Gamma Phi Soro-rity of the university give an after-neon party at the home of Mrs. Lowis

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Lung, a program of German songs, recitations and games being the feature of the affair, and refreshments following. Last and refreshments following. Last Thursday, Prof. Larson entertained ris French class in the same manner.

On Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. Lee Charles Miller celebrated their seven-teenth wedding anniversary in a dinner at their home, the rooms being bright with flowers, and about 14 guests being entertained.

Miss Dora Beersteeher of Montana who is visiting Mrs. D. R. Gray was guest of honor at a luncheon and cir-cus party on Wednesday given by H. F. Savage, the party numbering about a half dozen.

0 0 0 Mrs. H. C. Clement entertained a few friends informally at the post on Wednesday at dinner in honor of her daughter, Miss Frances Borden,

BY USING

HEALGHY HAIR FOR

Z. C. M. I. Drug Co., Special Agents.

NY ALTAR MANAGEMBER DI ANTARA ANG PERSENTANA ANTARA ANTARA ANTARA ANTARA ANTARA ANTARA ANTARA ANTARA ANTARA AN

Miss Leda Pinkham who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Elmer Jones, was guest of honor on Wednesday at a luncheon given by Mrs. W. C. Jen-nings, the other guests being chiefly members of the Dante circle. The decorations was in visiting the the decorations were in yellow roses and corations were in snowballs and prizes were won by Mrs. J. F. Odell and Miss Jane Howat, Mrs. D. R. Gray entertained informally at diuner on Tuesday in henor of her guest, Miss Dora Beerstecher.

Mrs. J. A. Earls entertained the Twentieth Century club at her home on Monday. . . .

About 40 guests were entertained at cards by Miss Gladys McConaughy on Monday night the rooms being prettily decorated and prizes in the contest going to Lucile Clark and Scott Kimball. A buffet supper was Among the delightful bridge affairs of the week was the tea given by Mrs. June Sadler Donnell, and Miss Minnie Sadler on Tuesday, the decorations be-ing in bridaiwreath, and fleur de Hs and about 40 guests being present. Prizes were awarded each table the winners being Mrs. Brigham T. Can-non, Mrs. Walter G. Filer, Mrs. Wil-ham Roid, Mrs. H. A. Whitney, Mrs. James Jeanings, Mrs. Adolph Baer, Mrs. L. J., Terry, Mrs. C. P. Brooke and Mrs. Lee Dinwoodey.

Mrs. G. W. Putnam entertained the turned from their California trip.

ALL

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood have moved and are at home at 505 Canning flats.

Mrs. Howard L. Samdey and little daughter are here from Bingham, as guests of Mrs. A. B. Gibson, at 1119 Third street,

Mr. and Mrs. David J. Sharp are in town and will be at home for the pres-ent at the Sprague home on Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Daynes have moved and are now at home at 76 G street. . . .

Mrs. George A. Snow of Chicago, who has been with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Grant, for the past month, has returned to her home.

Colonel and Mrs. A. E. Wall left this week for the east, where they will spend the next month,

Mrs. Oatman, who is on her way from California to her home in Denver, is here to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux, Miss Bortha Tyree returned Tuesday wening from Nashville. Tenn., where he has spent a year at Belmont colege. . . .

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. Byron W. King and

Mr. and Mrs. Byron W. King and family, who have for the past year resided in Provo, will leave the fore part of next week for New York, where they will spend the summer. Mr. and Mrs. King have made many friends in this city who will regret their departure. few invited guests.

Mrs. Joseph T. Farrer delightfully entertained about 50 of her friends at her home Thursday afternoon, in henor of Mrs. J. M. Smith, Cards, music and a social time generally was enjoyed by all. A sumptuous lunch was served.

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Irvine and daughter Maggie returned home Wed-nesday, after a delightful visit in Los Angeles and through southern Caliornia. . . .

Miss Margaret Call of Salt Lake City, spent a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. Eliza Nelson in this city.

. Postmaster Clove accompanied his mother. Mrs. Marie Clove, to her home in Panguitch, Tuesday. She has spent the winter with her son and family in this city.

Mrs. R. Lee Kirk and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Berkeley, for a few weeks. Mr. Fred Warner of Houston, Tex., s in Provo visiting his uncle Mr. L. V. Warner of Wells Fargo Express company.

Miss Elizabeth Groo has returned com a visit of some months in Califor-. . .

Mrs. Ida Stewart Peay was the de-lightful hostess at a Kensington at her home Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Flossle Fechser, who has re-cently moved to this city from Salt Lake. About 40 friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Peay.

Mrs. John Stewart has returned to Provo after having spent the winter in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson de-lightfully entertained at a family re-union at their home, Sunday after-noon. A pleasant social time was en-joy-d and a sumptuous dinner served to 30 guests. The event was given in commemoration of Grandma Sward's birthday. n commentation and sward's birthday.

Miss Mary Glazier left Thursday for an extended visit with her broth-er and family in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Bennett have returned heme after an absence of four years spent in Philadelphia, where Mr. Bennett has been studying medicine.

.....

Mrs. Nina Thateher of Logan is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bean of this city for a few weeks.

Prof. and Mrs. A, C, Lund delight-fully enteriained at a bundle shower in honor of Miss Ethel Rawlings, at their home Thursday. A delightful musical and social evening was pass-ed and a dainty lunch served. Miss Rawlings is one of Provo's popular and talented young laties, whose mar-riage to Mr. B. C. Peterson is an-nounced for June 5. . .

Mrs. Hattle Knight of Modena and Mrs. Winah Reese of Malad, are here visiting their mother, Mrs. Mary Thateher.

A pleasant surprise party was given social party last Monday night, the occasion being a farewell party given by the U. A. C. Wonan's club in hon-or of Mesdames W. J. Kerr, L. A. Ostien, Joseph Jenson, P. A. Yoder and Miss Charlotte Kyle. A most de-lightful program was rendered and an amusing guessing contest enjoyed in which Mrs. Frank Thatcher and Prof. W. S. Langton won the prizes. The rooms were tastefully decorated with red and yellow tulips and the re-freshments were most, tempting. There were present the members of the club and their escorts and also a few invited guests. Mr. Le Grand Young, Jr., of Salt ake spent several days of the week n Logan. I at lee

. . . Miss Jennie Bench is down from Pocatello on a visit to relatives and friends, . . .

Mr. Curt Clawson is registered at the Lincoln Hotel.

Miss Elizabeth McBride has gone to Mansfield, Ohio, and will probably not return to Logan.

On Saturday evening last Miss Ma-mie Brown and Miss Ethel Burns were hostesses at a most enjoyable evening party given at the Brown home. The following young people were present: Misses Ada Knowles, Grace Glipin, Lela Shaw, Josie Yates, Florence Machin, Lou Budge, M. Bryner, Esther Christianson, Mary Burns, Zettle Turner, Mabel Dudley, L. Shaw, Nora Redford, S. Crookston, Messrs, Alex Preston, Norman Lloyd, Bowman, Kjar, Porter, Dunlop, Orson Hansen, Jack Coburn, Elmer Coburn, Karl Smith, Guy Thomas, Willey, Tur-pin. A number of friends arranged a surprise on Mr. and Mrs. John An-drews on Saturday last which proved to be most enjoyable. Those present were Messis, and Mosdames. Carl Pe-tersen, John Andrews, Nephi An-drews, Oscar Swenson, Isaac Loveday, George Navior, Frank Cooper, Thom-as Dove, Joseph Stauffer, Mrs. Carl Speust, Mrs. John Chapman, Mrs. Ab-ble Naylor, Misses Cora Peterson, Maud and Vilato Andrews, Lila, Effic and Hazel Speust, Melva and Ellara Andrews, Gladvs and Fannie Swenson, Ada Young, Messrs, John Chapman, Royal Swenson,

Royal Swonson, The following young people enjoyed a very jolly evening with Miss Myrtle Hoff as hostess on Friday evening A pleasant social was held at the Internet and the second of an and the second s

At Breakfast Time as a rule, Choco-late is most appreciated. The housewife who serves Ghirardelli's delicious Ground Chocolate for the breakfast of her loved ones does much to prepare them to meet all conditions of weather, work and worry. It lightens her own labors also to

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

1-2 lb Cans, 20c.

ila. Miss Joanna Sprague left Monday to attend the national library convention, which meets in Ashville, N. C. NEWBRO'S Mrs. J. F. Yundt and family will leave shortly for Pacific Grove to spend a part of the summer. HERPICIDE. It is now possible for everyone to have healthy and rich Mrs. J. W. Houston will leave shortly with her family for southern Califor-nia. looking hair, by using Newbro's Herpicide, the ORIGINAL Remedy that "kills the dandruff germ." Lyster Chambers will remain in Salt Lake a greater part of the summer, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William P. The presence of the dandruff germ in the scalp causes first, dall, brittle and lusterless hair, with later, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, All of these disagreeable symptoms will disappear, and the hair grow as nature intended, if the dandruff gerni is destroyed and kept out of the scalp. Dou't wait for chronic baldness for it is incurable Herpicide stops itching of the scalp, almost instantly. "I cannot speak too highly of Newbro's Herpicide, it keeps my hair and scalp in excellent condition." (Signed.)--MRS, NETTIE KARBACH. Omaha, Nebr, o Sizes:-50c and $1.09 at Drug Stores. Send 10c in stamps to THE HERPICIDE CO., Dept. L, Detroit, Mich., for a sample. Be au get Herpielde. Guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. Serial No. 915. APPLICATIONS AT PROMINENT BARBER SHOPS.

MRS NETTIE KARBACH

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hansen have issued invitations for the wedding re-ception of their daughter, Mary Elsie, and Wallace C. Welser, which is to take place on the evening of June 8, at their home, 64 F street.

On Thursday, Miss M, E, Mulvey ad M, J. Holland were married at

Mrs. S. A. Vincent announces the mgagement of her daughter Pearl to Villiam Parkinson, the wedding to

Mrs. Fred Dern and her sister. Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, are at the Angelus, In Los Angeles, for a time. 352 WERDING BELLS

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCornick will eave today over the Sait Lake route for a stay of some time in California. E. F. Parkinson and W. J. B. Stokes, both officials of the city of Trenton, N. J., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lones