Details of the Shocking Affair Sent | Story Published in a Morning Paper Branded as Being Untrue.

MR. BATEMAN IS ASTOUNDED

Messrs, McMillan, Miller and Mann Say There Was No Disturbance Out at Saltair.

"There was no disturbance at Saltair yesterday," said Manager Bateman of the Sait Lake & Los Angeles Railroad company. "The article which appeared n a morning paper was without foundution in fact, so far as I know. When I came in on the train last night I walked through the cars and saw no such disgusting scenes as were so harrowingly detailed by that paper this morning. I was congratulating myself and the beach management upon the orderly conduct of the seven or eight thousand people we had out there."

"It seems to me," said Mr. McMillan, that the writer of that article was inimated by some personal grievance or was prompted by the policy of the eaper to do injustice and harm to the such scenes enacted as are depicted the paper Excursion Agent Mann said: "I was i Saltair beach until 10:15 last night nd no disturbances occurred to my owledge, and I was all over the palion, from one end to the other, and om top to bottom.

lying to the managements and so far is known but one accident occurred to mar the enjoyment of the people. The Sait Lake & Ogden railway car-ried near 4,000 people to Lagoon, the rowd at the resort being of a "com-fortable" size. As is always the case, e menugerie attracted the excursion ists almost every one of whom paid a visit there at some time during the ay. A curious fact is that a baby successive event of the kind to occur on Decoration day. Olson's orchestra arnished fine music and the boys and girls danced to their hearts' content while the children ogled nickels out of 'papa" and lavishly patronized, the des enjoyed the day there, filling the regaling themselves with picnic lunch-cons brought from home or with sand-wiches purchased at the counters. The ast train in was late-a fault that nust be remedied, as the schedule time is plenty late enough for people to eatch cars and get home comfortably.

AT THE LAKE

Saltair had about 5,000 people, the rowds at this resort and at Lagoon being of about equal proportions. The day was spent in bathing roller skat-ing and picnicking. The last train came in on time, a feature much ap-preciated by patrons who desire to get iome in good season.

Was No Fight.

It has been persistently asserted that he cause of the resignation of Super-ntendent Harris, of the Wyoming division, was a physical encounter be-ween himself and General Manager Ockinson or President Burt. The difficulty was said to have arisen
