garet Thorpe, the administratrix filed her final account and petitioned for ribution; hearing was set for Dec.

In the matter of the estate of John R Sawtell the administrator filed final account and petition for distribution. Hearing set for Dec. 21st.

BEFORE JUDGE MCCARTHY.

The case of Eliza Warren et al against The Cltizens' Bank et al, came on regularly for hearing. The action is brought by some of the stockholders against the directors for mis-managing the business of the banks and mak-ing improper loans. The loans on which the case is especially based is on these made to Corey Brothers, The Anderson Press Brick company, and Heifrich, in 1890 and 1891. The plain-Heirrich, in 1889 and 1891. The plain-tiff are represented by Attorneys A. J. Weber, W. L. Maginnis, J. N. Kimball, Elijah Farr and M. D. Lessenger, and the defense by L. R. Rogers, E. M. Allison Jr., and T. D. Johnson. It will occupy several days.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSION-ERS.

Thomas Gibson, health officer at West Weber, reported that no new cases of "smallpax" have developed in that district since the last report and that all cases are well under control and rapidly recovering.

defense and asked, for the purpose of Impeachment, whether they had said to Orin Bates, Frank Lineback and Robert Eyans, the day after the encounter, that Bates had picked the club up in the corral with which he struck Nordquist. Albert denied having said so, and Anderson said he did not re-member, but did not think he had.

The evidence of John Lindberg, taken at the first trial, was read. This testimony practically agreed with the testimony of defendant. In regard to the ral. Lindberg testified that it had been applied to the cow, and that Nordquis-had misunderstood Entes. Witness had told Nordquist so at the time.' He had also tried to separate Bates and Nordquist, and had been prevented from do-ing so by Anderson, and the remark Horn was made by someone that the men would not hurt one another, because they were too drunk. When Nordquist and Bates came down to the corral, pre-vious to the scuffle, they came down with their arms around each other "as Special Correspondence. Moroni, Sanpete Co., Dec. 10 .-- A case of "smallpox" manifested itself here on Saturday last, in the family of Brother William Prestwich, His son William re turned from Scoffeld a short time ago He had been at work there, and, some way become exposed to the infer tion. The case is said to be light and progressing favorably. The worst fea-ture being that there is a large number of children in the family, all of whom are exposed and liable to the disease.

The city authorities have placed a rigid quarantine on all persons and families who have been exposed in any manner, and it is hoped to confine the affliction within its present limits. Schools are discontinued for this week.

SANPETE STAKE DIVIDED. Yesterday at the Stake conference held in Moroni, Sanpete Stake was di-dived into two Stakes, North and South, and a full set of officers appoint for the North Stake. The move gives great satisfaction. The dividing line is south Heretofore the Sanpete Stake has embraced the entire county, but the popu-lation has become so great that the Church work could not be prosecuted with the best results by one set of officers, and consequently the change was brought about. Apostles John Henry Smith and Aithon H. Lund were pres-ent at the conference and made the announcement of the proposed change. It came as a surprise to most of the peo-ple, but was sustained by the conference. Officers were selected as follows STAKE OFFICERS. President of the North Sanpete Stake

SAD BEREAVEMENT.

Mary, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Cenea Ellis, died on Wednes-day, after a brief illness. The funeral was held in the ward meeting house on Friday. The affliction falls heavily on Mrs. Ellis, as her husband died a little over two years ago, and since his death she has lost a son, grown grown to manhood, and now her daughter has been called away. The family has the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

UGLY SHOOTING SCRAPE.

H. McGhee Hit by a Stray Bullet and Slightly Hurt.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS."] Price; Carbon Co., Dec. 11 .-- Charles Bowman of this place shot at Eugene Roy, who travels for B. K. Block & Co. of Salt Lake, in front of the Clarke hotei at midnight, after calling him from the hotel office. The bullet went through the door and hit H. McGhee, a representative of the Romney Shoe company, who was talking to a gentleman in the hotel office. The missile went through his clothing at the right shoulder and drew a few drops of blood. McGhee had a few minutes before shifted the position of his chair, other-wise he would have been killed.

Price, Utah, Dec. 1.1-It develops today that the shooting scrape about midnight last night between Charles Bowman and Eugene Roy, traveling sales-man for B. K. Bloch & Co., was over a poker game. Bowman makes his living playing cards for money, and his friends say he and Roy, when the latter came to town Sunday, got their heads together to skin a bunch of suckers, Bowman was to put up the cards to Roy, which it is claimed he did with the result that Roy broke the game winning over one hundred dollarrs; he and got the gun, caling key to the out-side of the hotel, and be again falling to settle, Bowman took a shot at him. Roy's right hand is badly powder-burned, while McGhee, traveling sales-
