City Park Purchased - Steamer on the Lake-Fine Outlook for Beets.

Special Correspondence. Lehi, Utah Co., July 9,—Lehi City Saturday last purchased the Bamberger property situated just west of the Lehi R. G. W. station. The property consists of about four and one-half acres, the southern half of which has a beautiful grove of trees, and as Lehi up to this date has never had a park or any place of their own to hold celebrations, the cillizens generally are highly clated over the purchase and the maxor and city

IMPORTANT IRRIGATION MEET-ING.

On Saturday, at 2 p. m., at the court house, a well attended meeting of irrigation and others interested in irriga-tion matters was held. The scarcity of sater is causing much anxiety and Saturday's meeting was called for the purpose of considering the best methods to relieve this anxiety. L. B. Adams to releve this anxiety. L. B. Adams presided and very earnest addresses were made by J. D. Stanward, of the department of agriculture; Thomas Judd, president of the State board of horticulture; L. B. Adams, Thomas D. Dee, C. F. Middleton, Joseph Parry and J. A. Wright J. A. Wright,

The general sentiment of the meeting seemed to be to organize into an irri-gation association and to build storage servoirs so that when the water is entiful it may be run into the reserirs and used when the streams begin o decrease

Mr. H. I., Myers, too Mulberry St., Newark, N. J., says: "I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in spots at first, but alterwards spread all over my body. These soon broke out into sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do me no good I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown a way. I then tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my first tottle of S. S. I was greatly improved, and was delighted with the result. The large, red splotches on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I regand my lost weight, became stronger, and my appetite improved. I was soon entirely well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass."

Among the striking and original ex-hibits at the Paris Exposition of 1990 few have occasioned more favorable comment than the great map of the United States, 18x15 feet, exhibited by the well-known advertising agency of Lord & Thomas, Chicago and New York. This map is constructed to show at a glance the various details concerning State areas and population, number of publications in each, circulation per issue, percentage of circulation to pop-ulation, value of publishing plants, number of employes, average hours of labor, average wages paid and average cost per inch for yearly advertising. Information of this nature is of especial value to advertisers, showing as it does the best locations in which to place advertising to reach the greatest number of people and secure best re-
