A Big Failure.

NEW YORK, 26.—Townsend & Co., bankers of New Haven, have failed for nearly three millions. A receiver has been appointed. The cause of the failure is the depreciation of Southern State and Railroad bonds. Rumor says the depositors will receive about forty per cent.

The Rifle Match—Bought by Prussia.

The international rifle match occurred to-day at Creedmoor. The weather was pleasant, and a great crowd of people witnessed the contest, and the ground presented a picturesque appearance. Flags of various nations were suspended at the entrance of the various tents among the dense line of spectators, who pressed against the rope that kept them from the space reserved for the marksmen. The Irish element was prevalent. The teams and scorers, with a few invited guests, occupied the enclosed space. Major Leech, of the Irish, and Col. Wingate, of the American, were chosen referees, and General Thaler umpire. At 11.30 the firing began at 800 yards, each marksman having fifteen shots. The crowd was very enthusiastic, but at the request of the captains became less demonstrative. The competition lasted an hour and a quarter, and the result was doubtful up to the close, when it stood American 326, Irish 317. A lunch followed, congratulatory speeches were made, and Major Leech presented the Rifle Association with a silver vase from the Irish team as a trophy for annual competition; Captain Leech also presented Col. Wingate with a handsome silver badge.

The following is a summary of the score made by the teams at 800 yards; the Irishmen 317, Americans 326; nine hundred yards, Irish 312, Americans 310; one thousand yards, Irish 302, Americans 298; total, Irish 931, total American 934. The aggregate of the scores made by each marksman at all distances is as follows: American team, Fulton 171, Yale 162, Bodene 158, Gildersleeve 155, Hepburn 149, Dakin 139, total 934. Irish team, Rigby 163, Hamilton 160, Wilson 160, Lumner 154, Johnson 150, Walker 144, total 931.

Lake Wewanapee, New Jersey, has been bought by the Prussian government for three hundred thousand dollars; the lake will be divided into compartments, some for the raising of leeches, and the remainder for trout and salmon.

Sailed.

The six missionaries to India and Egypt, under the auspices of the United Presbyterian Board of Missions, sailed to-day.

The "Peking."

The steamers City of Peking and Colon both sailed together to-day, at 4.55 p. m. The City of Peking kept the Colon company until she reached Sandy Hook, where she anchored until morning, then to resume her trip. The Peking had on board some two hundred guests, who partook of a generous collation during the trip down the harbor. On her way the Peking was saluted by the U. S. steamer Roanoake, and other vessels, all of which she returned, gun for gun. After a pleasant trip and many hearty cheers the guests returned.

The Yacht "Maria."

A telegram from the American consul at Marseilles, received to-night, states that the famous Stevens yacht Maria, stolen about four years ago, was seized three weeks since by the French authorities at Algiers, she having attempted to smuggle a cargo of two hundred cases of American rifles on shore for the Carlists; she was seized at the instance of the Spanish government.

More of the Kellogg Swindle.

The Tribune says, in relation to Carpenter's connection with the matter—

"We have seen Kellogg's check books containing the following memorandums on stubs:

"May 19th, '73, Matt Carpenter, five hundred; May 21st, '73, five hundred; Dec. 29th, five hundred; another check, date forgotten, is for $8,000. I have also seen a letter from Carpenter to Kellogg, calling for more money, and intimating that it must be forthcoming, as he was hard up and in need of funds. Then follows a long list, made from the checkbook, including the following: July 11th, '73, J. R. Beckwith, $500; April 3rd, '74, Beckwith, $1,000; Beckwith is a U. S. District Attorney. March 3rd '74, Packard's draft, $500; March 12th, Packard's draft, $500; March 17th, S. B. Packard, $500; April 3rd, S. B. Packard, $500; April 27th, Packard's draft, $1,000; April 29th, Packard, $500; April 30th, Packard, $600; April 30, West, $1,000.' The list published contains memorandums of forty-five checks for various sums."

Denied.

The London Telegraph of the 17th editorially denies, as utterly baseless, the reports circulated in regard to the debts of the Prince of Wales and the action intended by his friends in Parliament, and his mother's final payment of them.

Verdict of Guilty.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

The Boat Race.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., 26.—The great single scull race between George Brown of Halifax, and E. Morris of Pittsburg, was rowed on the Kennebecasis at 3 p. m. to-day, in the presence of 2,000 spectators. The course was the same as that over which Renforth and his Tyne crew pulled a few years ago, and was five miles long. Brown was the favorite from the start, his backers betting ten to three, with few takers. The toss was won by Morris, who selected the inside. The men were in capital condition. Brown was quite nervous, fearing a delay of another day, but the moment the race was called he recovered and prepared himself for the contest. Morris was self-possessed and waited orders from his quarters. At 3 the word was given. Both men dropped their oars simultaneously, and their shells bounded over the course, Brown making 38 strokes and Morris 41 per minute. Morris had a slight lead till the turning stake boat was reached, where Brown, in making the turn, shot ahead a full length. This advantage he preserved till approaching the goal, when he made a spurt and won by two lengths, time, 37 minutes. The race throughout was very hotly contested and is considered the best ever witnessed on these waters. At the conclusion of the race Brown was escorted to his quarters, where he appeared on the veranda, and, after bowing to the people, proposed three cheers for Morris, which were lustily given. The race was for two thousand a side.

H., says that Sergeant James Davidson, who served for over fifty years in the United States army, died at Fort Constitution, on Saturday; he was the oldest enlisted man in the service, having served in the wars in Florida and Mexico with distinction for several years. He had charge of Ft. Constitution.

Affairs in South Carolina.

CHICAGO, 27.—The Louisville Courier Journal's Augusta, Ga. correspondent, writing under date of the 23rd inst. of the troubles between the whites and blacks in Edgefield Co., S. C., says, "The whole State is a vast military camp, and it requires the discretion of an old, cool headed veteran, like Genl. M. C. Butler, the advisory commander of the white forces, to quiet such a storm as has just been threatened; had the negroes in any other portion of the United States been so arrayed there would have been a bloody battle. I presume no one who understands the attitude of the two races will, for a moment, doubt this." After detailing the circumstances of the truce which was finally arranged between the parties, by the terms of which the blacks retired to their homes, but taking their arms with them, the writer says, "But this is a truce not a peace. There is no denying the fact, that the hatred of the two races in the State is now so intense that a single spark may at any moment kindle a conflagration. While the sympathies of the U. S. troops are all with the white people, the negroes believe that they will fight on their side, and that the whole army would be sent to their assistance, and the grand result be the extermination of the whole population and the hatching of their houses and lands over to the negroes, hence their leaders are anxious to precipitate the conflict."
