

contained, besides other things, a num-ber of trunks filled with valuable cloth-

night entailing a loss of $300. The barn

Maneuvers at Fort Riley. Fort Riley, Kan., Oct. 28 .- A supply train of wagons escorted by the Sixth.

the wagons unchecked and the attack-ing force still hanging on and creating all possible trouble.

Express Drivers' Strike.

St. Louis, Oct. 28 .- Drivers of all St.

Louis express companies, to the num-

Atchison praferred Baltimore & Ohio Canadian Paelific Chicago & Alton Chicago & Alton preferred Chicago & Northwestern Chicago & Northwestern preferred Colorado Southern Denver & Bio Grande

attan L. politan Street Railway an Central uri Pacific ... Yack Central wivania

Island preferred

aul ern Pacific ern Rallway

MISCELLANEOUS.

Pacific preferred .

Wisconsin Central .

MISCELLANEOUS. Amalgamated Copper American Car & Foundry American Incomotive American Smelting & Refining ... American Smelting & Refining pfd. Brookiyn Rapid Transit Colorado Fuel & Iron International Paper National Biscuit

toral Blacuit thern Securities thern Securities file Mail ple's Gas seed Steel Car Iman Paince Car ar

115%

ols Central sville & Nashville

hattan

Island

ing

THE SCOOP FAILED. was on the second day of M. T.e.

Forty-third 121 FIFTH PRECINCT.

110 116

Forty-first

Forty-fourth Forty-fifth 110 Forty-sixth forty-eighth

POLITICAL POINTERS.

The Young Men's Republican club will meet in the courtroom in the city and county building at S o'clock to-night, when arrangements will be made for the rally to be given in the Theater forucave night. Saturday night.

Frank Knox, Republican candidate for mayor, is expected back from Los Angeles Friday.

The Woman's Democratic club met this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Cohen, 407 Second East street.

Betting on the candidates for mayor is said to be about even.

A few disgruntled Scandinavians from the Third precinct held a meeting last night and adopted resolutions op-posing the re-election of F. S. Fern-strom to the city council.

PLUMBERS IN COURT.

Boycotted Workman Seeks to Recover From His Persecutors.

Today is plumbers' day in Judge Hall's court, the trouble between Robert B. Harper and the local union No. 19 of the United Association of Plumbers, Steamfitters and Gasfitters is being aired. Harper alleges that he was a member of Butte union No. 41, and that a pretend I fine of $500 was assessed against him which he refused to pay, Upon coming to this city, about three years ago, the Salt Lake union boy cotted him and its members refused to work on any job where he was emrloyed, with the result that he was anable to secure employment for the support of his family. Harper fnally decided to pay the fine and accordingly paid $115 of the amount under protest. He stopped pay-ments, however, and the union again soycotted him. In his complaint he taks judgment against Charles Sun-beck et al, managers of salt Lake beck et al, managers of Salt Lake inion No. 19, for $115, the amount paid by him on the fine, $500 damages for being deprived of work, and that an injunction be issued to prevent the inion and its members from further in-erfering with his employment.

HIT HER WITH DOOR.

Irs. Kerr Alleges that Her Husband Used a Novel Weapon.

Suit for divorce was filed in the disrict court today by Sarah L. Kerr gainst George Kerr on the grounds of ruelty and drunkenness. The parties vere married at Fargo, North Dakota, vere married at Fargo, North Dakota, n July 4, 1888, and have four children, f whom plaintiff asks the custody. It i alleged by Mrs. Kerr that her hus-and has been an habitual drunkard or the past three years and on Oct. 1902, he assaulted her without provo-ation and cruelly beat her. On vari-us other occasions he has treated her t a cruel manner and particularly on ot. 25, 1903, when he struck her with

Colonel Clayton has a 15-day leave of absence in which to go east. ing Engineer William Eimbeck of the Geodetic survey is registered at the Knutsford. Mr. Eimbeck will work up his notes taken during the summer at Washington during the winter. President J. D. Van Dorn of the Van Dorn from works at Cleveland is reg-istered at the Knutsford, having come on to officiate at the transfer of the new city jail to the municipal corpora-tion tio Cashier Wilson of the Bank of Com-merce returned home this afternoon from San Francisco, where he was in attendance on the Bankers' convention. Mr. Wilson remained behind a few days to attend a clam bake, and look over the curiosities of the region about San-Francisco.

Francisco. Rev. E. A. Fredenhagen of Topeka Rev. E. A. Fredenhagen of Topeka, Kan., who preached seven sermons in 12 hours in this city Sunday, and al-most wept because he couldn't preach seven more in the same time, left for Buena Vista last evening, over the Hio Grande, while in Colorado he will com-plete the organization there of the Colo-rado Society for the Friendless, a so-clety similar to the one started here.

Relief Society Officers.

The Relief Society officers' meeting of Salt Lake stake will be held in the Fourteenth ward hall Saturday, Oct. 31, at 2 p. m. A representative from each branch is requested to be present. All are invited. M. I. HORNE, President, J. S. WOOLLEY, Secretary.

Old as the Pyramids And as little changed by the ages, is Scrofula, than which no disease, save Consumption, is responsible for a larger mortality, and Consumption is its outgrowth. It affects the glands, the mucous membranes, tissues and bones; causes bunches in the neck, catarrhal troubles, rickets, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, cutaneous eruptions, etc.

"I suffered from scrofula, the disease atfecting the glands of my neck. I did everything I was told to do to eradicate it, but without success. I then began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the swelling in my neck entirely disappeared and my skin resumed a smooth, healthy appearance. The cure was complete." MISS ANITA MITCHELL. 915 Scott St., Covington, Ry.

"My daughter was almost blind with scrofula. I had derived so much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla that I gave her this medicine and now her eyes are sound and she is in good health. Hood's cured me of nervousness and debility, and saved my life." OMIE KOONCE, Cayce, Ky.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills Thoroughly eradicate scrofula and build up the system that

LATE LOCALS.

Today's local bank clearings amount-ed to $594,396.32 as against $526,507.97 for the same day last year.

H. L. A. Culmer is putting in a new dynamo in the cellar of the Culmer block, in the place of the old machine emoved.

Marketmen report quite a sale of pumpkins for the celebration of Hal-lowe'n. A good, healthy looking pump-kin can be had for 15 cents. Two cases of typhoid fever were reported to the board of health today. They are: Albert Lewis, aged 12, 360 west Seventh South: A. Isom, aged 54, 522 Fourth street.

J. D. Boland of Grand Rapids, Mich., is in the city, with a view to locating here. He is a rathroad man. Frank McGurrin, a former fellow townsman, is showing Mr. Boland about town. The last of the eight new cars of the

The last of the eight new cars of the street railway company was put into commission today. They are spacious, roomy cars, and standing is more com-fortable in them than in the others,

T. J. Liston of Crandonville, W. Va. writes Postmaster Thomas of this city, Inquiring as to the whereabouts of his brother, Josiah C. Liston, who is want-ed at home on account of a legacy that is awaiting him.

Judge Hall have granted Emma J. Green a divorce from William H. Green on the ground of failure to support. They were married in this city on Sept. 20, 1892. Plaintiff was also awarded the custody of their two minor children.

A dispatch from Idaho Falls received A dispatch from Idaho Falls received at the local office of the Idaho Sugar company this morning states that the furnace fires at the plant will be start-ed up Friday, if nothing unforeseen occurs; the run on beets will be com-menced a week from Monday,

Miss Arvilla Clark, the well-known slager, who went to Germany over a year ago to study music, is home again. She spent yesterday in Salt Lake, but will go with her mother to her home in Provo. Miss Clark's fine progress in Greman and music host. Greman and music has been reported from time to time in the foreign let-ters of the "News."

ters of the "News." Rev. Wildman Murphy, pastor of the Prove Methodist church, is in town to-day, on a visit. Mr. Murphy was one of the pastors Leilich had Bishop Cranston send back to their confer-ences because M. Murphy would not knuckle and truckle to the superin-tendent of the mission. However, the bishop concluded he had made a mis-take in making this particular change, and sent Mr. Murphy back to Utah.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:50 Hons. Fisher B. Harris and Rulon S. Wells, representatives of the Commercial club of this city, will address the students of the Salt Lake and Latter-day Saints' business colleges in Barrat hall. Ad-vice to young men and women in pre-paring for commercial work and some of the experiences met with in busi-ness life will form the topics of dis-course. The public will be welcome.

The Oregon Short Line will run a special train to Ogden on Saturday to carry the All Hallows football team that will play the High school boys on that day. The train will leave the city at 945 a. m. and returning leave Orat 9:35 a. m. and returning leave the city den at 19 p. m. A train will also be run on Sunday next specially to accom-modate excursionists to Ogden canyon.

en Frenchman had suddenly appeared at the Savoy, had remarked. 'T am Lebcudy-give me a room," and had been accommodated, and promptly the entire newspaper fraternity swooped down upon the hotel, prepared to ex-tract from the empire builder every morsel of information of which he might be possessed. Frenchman had suddenly appeared Twenty-firlist and Twenty-fifth regi-ments of infantry, a battalion of the Twelfth infantry, two squads of cav-Twelfth infantry, two squads of cav-alry and one battery, the whole under the command of Lieat.-Col. Lough-borough of the Sixth infantry, was in great trouble for four hours this morn-ing. It was supposed to be carrying supplies to an imaginary army in the vicinity of Blue Rapids, Kan., when the Eighth and Tenth cavalry, one squad of the Fourth cavairy and a battery of artillery, all under Lieut.-Col. Kings-bury of the Eighth cavalry, swooped down and made things disagreeable. Lieut.-Col. Loughborough pushed ahead with all possible speed and the. problem was ended by the umpires with the wagons unchecked and the attackmight be possessed. CHAMBERS BESIEGED.

CHAMBERS BESIEGED. And that little, hurried, uninform-ing "Bon Jour, Monsieur!" was the only result. The newspaper men found that they were by no means the only folk who were anxious to interview the "Emperor of the Sahara," for the Sa-voy staff was being kept at its wits" end in stalling off agents whose pock-ets bulged with models of the latest machinery, and the porter stationed at the courtyard entrance came near havmachinery, and the porter stationed at the courtyard entrance came near hav-ing a fight with the representative of a collapsible house company who had brought a model of his building on a five horse truck. But, though literally hundreds of cards were sent up to suite No. 525-30, where "Jacques the .First" was lodged, not one person would he see. Nor one message would he send see, nor one message would he send. - baudy's stay that the celebrated, "in-terview" with him took place. By this terview" with him took place. By this time the huge crowd at the Savoy entrance — which now comprised, besides the newspaper men, sev-eral photographers, a whole host of drummers, and the inventor of a new tent especially adapted for Saharan use —discovered that "Jacques le Premier" was leaving the hotel every once in a while in some mysterious fashion probwhile in some mysterious fashion, prob-ably for the purpose of doing the busi-ness which he had come to London to transact. It was soon afterwards that transact. It was soon afterwards that a smart young reporter saw M. Lebau-dy pop into the Savoy by one of the rear entrances, and so he camped there, waiting for the millionaire to emerge. This M. Lebaudy did, soon after. Dressed in a light fawn suit, tight fit-ting trousers, brown felt hat and patent leather boots, the little Frenchman marched away in the direction of the Embankment, and in his wake followed the intrepid newspaper man. But the result of his enterprise has been tool result of his enterprise has been told already. M. Lebaudy ultered his "Bor Jour" with all a Frenchman's suavity, and even raised his hat to the newspa-

HE DODGED.

HE DODGED.

WHERE RUSSO-JAPANESE HOSTILITIES ARE APT TO BREAK OUT.

The harbor of Fusan, used recently as a headquarters by the Japanese fleet, is within a very few miles of the spot where hostilities between the Japanese and Russians are apt to break out. It is within gun sound of Masanpho harbor, which is generally thought to be the place where the first shot will be fired. The Russian fleet, in its war paint, lies near there with steam up and ammunition hoists slung, while the mikado's ships are ready at Fusan to make or resent the first hostile demonstration. Admiral Yamamoto is minister of marine of Janan e-*

