SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION MEETING

Interesting Session Held in Barratt Hall Last Night.

MANY CHANGES REPORTED

Theological Department C. nsiders The Value and Necessity of Prepuration by the Teachers,

There was a perceptible falling off at the meeting of the Salt Lake Stake Sunday School Union held in Barratt Hall last evening, as a result of the peace meetings, and the inclement weather. However, 36 of the 41 schools were represented, and all members of the stake board were present.

The meeting was called to order by Asst.-Supt. Willard C. Burton, who announced the opening hymn, "Beautiful Zion." Prayer was offered by Elder Joseph Hyrum Parry of the stake board, followed by singing, "Never be late." Walter J. Poulton, Jr., acted as accompanist during the evening.

Hugh B. Folsom of the stake board conducted a concert recitation of the Beatitudes which was participated in by the congregation in most creditable manner

Supt. Andrew F. Smith of the Third ward next gave a brief report of his school. He said it was progressing favorably and the officers and teachers were trying to keep in line with the Union, and support the stake officers. Supt. Josiah Burrows informed the meeting that Elder George Coulam, Jr., had been honorably released from the stake board at the request of Bishop Morris, to fill a position in the superin-tendency of the Eleventh ward school. The same was ratified by unanimous

The commemoration of President Brigham Young's birthday on Sunday, Brigham Young's birthday on Sunday, May 31, was suggested. It is not intended that this feature interfere with the class work, however, but that the regular lessons be conducted, and the occasion be observed by short and appropriate addresses or, the life of the Prophet during the opening or closing exercises.

The necessity of vigilance on the part of local officers and teachers in order to keep up interest in the schools during the warm weather was referred to by Brother Burrows. He said the duty of the superintendent was to keep up interest and that of the teacher to feed the bread of life to the children. At this juncture the meeting separ ated and took up department work.

SUPERINTENDENTS' DEPART-MENT.

The following changes were reported: April 19, Edward E. Jenkins was made second assistant in the Fourth ward superintendency; May 19, the superin-tendencies of the Eleventh and Fourteenth wards were reorganized, Elders Arthur W. Brown, George Coulam, Jr., and E. A. Child, being set apart in Arthur W. Brown, George Coulain, Jr., and E. A. Child, being set apart in the Eleventh ward, while E ders Theo. Nystrem, Arthur Taylor and Feramers Y. Fox were chosen to fill the vacancies in the Fourteenth ward; May 17, Elders J. E. Howard and O. J. Halverson were appointed first and second assistants to Supt, Platt of the Thirteenth ward.

Supt, Burrows, in commenting on re-

Supt. Burrows, in commenting on re-Supt. Burrows, in commenting on reports of recent visits to various schools, spoke of the proper position of teachers before their classes; the necessity of proper preparation on the part of teachers and the benefit derived from attending the Union meetings. He said that a brief mention should be made in the school minutes of the 9:45, prayer meeting, stating the time of commencing, the number in attendance and the name of the person officiating. He also spoke of the necessity of recording the exact time of ciating. He also spoke of the neces-eity of recording the exact time of commencing each school session, as provided for by the new roll book. The concert recitations, said he, should not take up the time in the class rooms, but should be conducted during the

Each of the first eight riders to cross the tape will be given a high grade wheel. This announcement was made at a meeting of the cycle dealers last evening and those who have the big event in charge unhesitatingly predict that the race will be the most interesting and exciting yet given. Although the centest is two weeks off, appilcations for entry blanks are coming in from riders all over the state, and when the boys line up, waiting for the crack of the pistol, there will be a small army on SCHEFSKI AFTER RIDERS. Fast Bunch from the East is Likely To Come Out Soon.

Manager Schefski of the saucer track at the Sait Palace is still out after the fast riders and he has strong hopes of landing four or five of the fastest men in the east as well as some speedy coast riders. He is in receipt of a letter from Chairman A. G. Batchelder of the N. C. A., stating that many fast men would like to come here. Among those he named are Freeman, Downing and McFarland, Manager Schefski will communicate with these men at once and offer them terms to come here. Another man who is likely to come here from Boston is Charles McCountell. Bill Furman, who is now in Los Angeles, will arrive here in a few days.

University of Colorado Will Go
Against University of Utah.

The interstate track and field meet on Saturday between the University of Colorado and the University of Utah promises to be a most interesting affair. Manager George Elliott of the Boulder team has written to Manager. Riser of the local athletes, informing him that on Friday his team, composed of 10 men. would reach Salt Lake. Captain Fouls of the visiting team is one of the fastest 220-yard men in the country, and it is calimed that he has made the distance in 22 seconds flat. The University of Utah boys have not been able to do any track work during the last faw days, owing to the bad weather, but Athletic Instructor Harvey Holmes has had them working out in the gymnasium and they are in pretty good condition.
