Mexican Troops Seize a Mine. Cananea, Sonora. Oct. 16.—A sensa-tion was caused yesterday by the Mexi-can troops or district police taking pos-session of a group of copper mines, purchased some months ago by the Copper Queen company from Taggart, Morse, Jamison and others of Indian-apolis. L. Lindsay secured a judgment from the court of first instruction of Sonora, Mex., against the Indiapapolis claimants, on account of the alleged failure to carry out a contract. The Queen company refused to give posses-sion, hence the action of the troops. There were 150 men working, and pos-session was given the soldlers without session was given the solders without resistance.
