

A DAY'S TRAINING WAS ENOUGH.

Champion Jeffries and Ruhlman at the Seashore.

WEATHER TOO COLD FOR 'EM

Jeffries Health is All That Could be Desired—He Weighs 230 Pounds in Fighting Trim.

New York, Jan. 8.—One day's training at the seashore was enough for Ruhlman and Jeffries. The weather was raw and cold, and neither man was willing to go outside to do any work. Ruhlman, who had planned to remain at Bath Beach, until ten days before the fight, which is to take place in Cincinnati, on February 15, has changed his mind, and will leave for Covington, Ky., on Sunday.

Jeffries' experience with the seashore winds at Loch Arbor convinced him that a warmer climate would be more desirable and he will move to West Baden, Ind., within a few days if the cold weather continues.

Speaking of his health, Jeffries said that it was all that could be desired, and that he was never really so anxious to train hard for a battle. He said he weighed 230 pounds in fighting costume and pointed to this fact as an indication of his good condition at the present time.

Your Teeth

Should be taken care of while they are sound. One of the best means of preserving them is by using a good brush.

The brush should be perfectly clean and of pure bristles. The bristles should be stiff enough to thoroughly clean the teeth.

And at the same time not too stiff to injure the gums. Take these precautions and you will save a dentist's bill.

We have an excellent line of Tooth Brushes.

Soft, stiff, and medium bristles. And guaranteed not to pull out.
