SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL

Old Ogden River Bridge Sold—Movement to Keep Streets Cleaner.

AFFAIRS OF WEBER COUNTY.

Youthful Forger Caught—Fined for Interfering With Police—Henry Lowther Hurt—Leaking Pipes.

Ogden, July 9.—At the regular meeting of the city council, held Monday night, the old bridge, which has stopped traffic over the dugway route to Ogden canyon, since early spring, was sold to the Wheelwright Construction company for the sum of $150. This is the first effective move the council has made since the channel of the river was cut around the sanitarium. Public pressure forced the move, as the delay of the solons has caused complaints from every section of the city as well as from several towns in Weber county. There is a slim chance that traffic will be directly opened up with the canyon before winter.

The Civic league petitioned the council that the streets of the business district be kept in better order, both as to sanitation and general repairing. In order to arrive at some satisfactory manner of solving the daily problem which is made exceedingly disagreeable by the presence of a multitude of odors between every block, the street committee was empowered to hire two men on twenty-fifth to keep the street clear and free of rubbish. If the experiment proves successful the present system will be abolished.

In order to comply with the law a light and power fund was created to which was voted $5,000 out of the general fund. The sum will be used to purchase the power house site, and water right in Willow creek.

WEBER COUNTY AFFAIRS.

At a meeting of the board of county commissioners held Monday morning the county board of equalization reported a decrease in the total tax valuation of the county of $90,087, and a remittance of $1,772.50 of taxes to widows and indigent people not able to carry their part of the general community expense. County Engineer Craven reported that instead of 18 cents each the cost of cement posts for Ogden canyon was just a trifle over 50 cents per post.

Commissioner Madsen stated that owing to the indifference of the city in the matter of sprinkling certain streets new districts in the county would not in all probability be created.

YOUTHFUL FORGER CAUGHT.

Ed. Mills, a youth of 17 years, ex-industrial school inmate, has been arrested for forgery, alleged to have been committed after he had lost $70 in gambling houses Saturday. At the police station Mills confessed the authorship of three checks, two for $35.50 and one for $15 cashed by McCredys, the Ogden Knitting company and John Burt, respectively. Mills will be formally charged with forgery although he is of an age that places him without the jurisdiction of the higher courts.

WANTS DAMAGES FOR EJECTMENT.

E. N. Williams has brought suit against Sheriff Sebring and Marian Neilson for the sum of $5,000, alleged to be due for an injury to feelings and property sustained by Williams when he was ousted from a house in which he was living June 26. Sheriff Sebring ordered his deputies to take Williams and his effects out of the building, after the plaintiff had been requested to vacate.

FINED FOR INTERFERING WITH OFFICER.

Of the four men arrested by Officer John Conroy for interfering with him while he was in the performance of his duty, Jim Morrison, Dick Howell and Joseph Drysdale were sentenced to pay fines of $30 each or serve 30 days in jail. Morrison got in on an extra $30 on a charge of disturbing the peace. All three pleaded guilty.

Henry Lowther, engineer at the Calvert and Leeks brick yard had both legs broken at 11 o'clock Monday morning through being caught by the engine shaft. He was bruised severely about his body and may have received internal injuries. He is at the hospital in a serious condition.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FROM JAIL.

George Hartwright, sentenced to three months in the city jail, attempted to escape this morning but was captured before he had time to get his second wind. He took five officers and a dog to corner Hartwright in Joseph Carlson's coachhouse where he was discovered crouching in a dark corner. He was brought back and placed in irons.

VICTIM OF SPOTTED FEVER.

Lawrence G. Hofer, 11-year-old son of Anna Hofer, died Monday morning from the effects of spotted fever which he contracted but 24 hours previous to death. Funeral services were held at the Hofer residence, 2313 Moffat lane, this morning at 10 o'clock. Owing to the nature of the disease the public did not attend the ceremony and interment took place at its conclusion in the city cemetery. Precautions are being taken to prevent a spread of the disease.

LEAKING PIPES CAUSE DAMAGE.

A defective pipe in an office on the third floor of the First National bank building caused considerable damage to floors lower down and particularly to the office of the Ogden Waterworks company, wherein were stored papers, documents, blanks, streetcar passes belonging to the Ogden Rapid Transit company and new office furniture, all of which was more or less injured. The water leaked all day Sunday from a bad connection and filled the basement of the building as well as several offices in its path downward. The damage will amount to several hundred dollars.

LOGAN.

DRY FARM DEMONSTRATIONS.

A. C. Faculty Arranges Excursions to State Arid Farms.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., July 8.—To give the farmers of the state an opportunity to investigate methods and conditions at the various arid farm experiment stations, the faculty of the Agricultural college has arranged excursions to a number of the dry farm stations in the state, and will give public demonstrations of the work done at each.

The Tooele county farm will be visited on Friday, July 12, Juab county farm Monday, July 15, and Iron county Wednesday, July 17. At 10 a. m. on the days named the demonstrations will begin when specialists from the college will explain each experiment and give the results obtained as far as determined. The varying results of different rates of seeding, different depths of planting and methods of handling the soil can be seen in the crops produced, and will be carefully explained by those in charge.

As the result of the application of more scientific methods, arid farming has made a wonderful growth in the past few years. Many problems still remain to be solved, however. In fact only a beginning has been made as yet. The experiment station is testing many problems on the different farms and as fast as these are solved others will be taken up.

WOMEN IN POLITICS.

Finland Husband Would Suicide Because of Wife's Political Activity.

London, July 8.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Daily Mail says that the husband of one of the women deputies in the Finnish parliament tried unsuccessfully to commit suicide and the reason he gave for the attempt was that his wife was so occupied with political work that she neglected her home. The misery to which he and his family were reduced, he said, drove him to desperation.

J. P. MORGAN'S YACHT.

London, July 9.—The Milan correspondent of the Chronicle withdraws his recent story about the customs officials searching J. Pierpont Morgan's yacht, the Corsair, for contraband art treasures. He ascribes the story to the Carriere de La Sera, and then explains that the basis of the story was that a large party of Mr. Morgan's American friends who had awaited the yacht's arrival from Rimini were allowed by the customs officials to board her with all of their baggage. The officers added to this act of courtesy by carrying out the prescribed visit of inspection on the yacht itself, thus sparing Mr. Morgan's guests the inconvenience of inspection at the custom house.

Mr. Morgan is said to have greatly appreciated this compliment.
