FLORISTS SEND IN A PROTEST.

Give the City Council a Few Pointers on Gardening for Profit.

HEATING PLANT REFUSED.

Committee on Sprinkling Authorized to Solicit Bids for a Plant—To Establish a Fish Hatchery.

A communication from a number of florists, protesting against the methods adopted in the advertising for bids to take care of the city's portion of the joint building grounds, was read at last night's council meeting, with the result that the matter was taken out of the hands of the committee on control and referred to the committee on public grounds, with instructions to have Park Keeper Sundblom take care of the lawns, etc.

At last week's meeting Councilman Siddoway, chairman of the committee on control, submitted a report and recommended that the contract with Mr. Mahon, the present gardner, be renewed at the same figure as last year, viz., $1,[illegible]. On motion of Councilman Robertson the matter was referred back to the committee with instructions to solicit bids. The committee on control advertised for bids as follows:

"Bids will be received by John Siddoway, chairman of the committee on joint city and county building, for the care of the city portion of the joint city and county building park, for the year ending December 31, 1899.

By order of the City Council of February 14, 1899.

SPECIFICATIONS.

Contractor shall have full charge and control of and be responsible for the condition of said grounds together with fountain, sidewalks and trees, comprising the south half of said park.

Shall cut the lawn at least once each week, water the same twice per day, once before 10 a.m. and once after [illegible] p. m. each day.

Shall keep weeds pulled up by the roots from the lawn and keep the lawn clean from weeds during the whole season.

Shall repair mowers, hose and tools and keep same in good condition.

Shall keep walks and sidewalks in first-class condition and trim trees and hedges in a workmanlike manner, hedges to be trimmed at least three times during the season.

Shall plant the flower beds with such variety of flowers that in each bed there will be blooming as through the season; estimate of flowers needed to be furnished not later than March 15th.

Shall replace dead trees and shrubs with others in healthy condition of like variety and size as the surrounding trees and shrubbery, and plant bulbs in the fall for blossom early in spring of 1900.

All work to be done in a first-class manner in accordance with the best and most approved methods of ornamental gardening.

Contractor to furnish a bond with approved sureties in the sum of $2,000, for the faithful performance of contract.

If work shall not be done to the satisfaction of the chairman of control on joint city and county building said contract shall be revoked and the city shall be absolved from further obligations thereunder.

During the winter season paths shall be kept in good condition, cleared of snow.

Right reserved to reject any and all bids.

JOHN SIDDOWAY,
Chairman Committee on Control.

All bids must be in by Tuesday, February 21, 1899, 5 p. m."

The communication from the florists was as follows:

"The undersigned florists and gardeners would like to bid for the privilege of taking care of the city portion of the joint city and county building park, but the specifications submitted are such as we may not accept and faithfully carry out. We show:

"First—That there is no necessity for cutting the lawn once a week, a cutting every ten days or two weeks would be amply sufficient.

"Second—The above is as often as it has been cut in the past.

"Third—Watering twice a day is not necessary. There are days when rain falls.

"Fourth—The fact that the contractor is required to keep the grounds in good condition is sufficient without specifying any further details.

CITED FOR CONTEMPT.

J. H. Griffin, the Contractor, Ordered to Appear Before Judge Hiles.

The notorious Griffin case is in court again. This time upon an affidavit filed yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Minnie P. Griffin, alleging that her one-time husband, J. H. Griffin, was about to move his personal property into Nevada. The court signed a restraining order to prevent any such action on the part of Griffin and also an order requiring him to appear Saturday and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt for failing to pay Mrs. Griffin $2,000 alimony.

In her affidavit Mrs. Griffin sets out the order of the court, directing Griffin to pay $2,000, which was duly entered January, 1899.

Griffin, she says, has refused to pay her anything. An execution was issued against him, but failed in its object. She also alleges that Griffin owns fifty horses, twenty-five sprinkling wagons and twenty-five sets of double harness, and that it was his intention to move them beyond the jurisdiction of the court. Upon this showing Judge Hiles signed the order.
