If we could only chloroform some of those Republican federal office holders and some 25 others who art active in stirring up trouble I would promise you a bright future for Democracy in Utah." MOYLE AS CHAIRMAN.

He closed his speech with a prophecy that the Democrats would be victorious next month.' He introduced James H. Moyle as temporary chairman and Joseph E. Caine as temporary secretary. In taking charge of the convention Temporary Chairman James H. Moyle said in part:

"The issues of this campaign are very serious, and the responsibility of opening it is one from which I would shrink could others be found to do it. "We have in this state problems with which other states have not had to deal. I am of the people who come here as pioneers, but I believe that in the past great wrongs have been done by both parties, Gentiles and Mormons. "I was an acteve earnest member of the People's party. I was present of the People's party. I was present when we decided to dissolve the party. The Mormon people were then Demo-crats because they loved the highest conception of freedom and liberty. They believed the great keystone of Democracy was local government. When the People's party was dissolved it was confessed that the Mormon peo-ple were at heart Democrats. The advice then given was that the Mor-mons divide on politics. Those mons divide on politics. Those who consistently could should go into the Republican party. I was a Democrat and so I planted my feet never to change as a Democrat."

Mr. Moyle then went on to state that many of the Mormon people had never studied national politics. Subsequently up to that time some of the leaders of the Mormon people came out as Republicans while the Democrats kept quiet, save one. His political and ecclesiastical end were dwalf transport. dwelt upon by the speaker, Tracing history Mr. Moyle asserted that from the majority the Demo party finally came to be minority among the Latter-day Saints. The doctrine that home industr and protection as set forth by the Republican leaders in past days allied the speaker denounced as a fallacy. Mr. Moyle also stated that he had given his views to the honorable apostle and senator from the State of Utah and he would repeat them now. He asserted that the senator was ing a grave injustice to the Latter-day Saints as a body in holding high political office. just, he asserted. It was not right to Senator Smoot Referring speaker said he knew of no instance in which Senator Smoot had directly used authority as an apostle to further his political interests.

"However," he said, "I do know of hundreds of instances in which his au-thority as an apostle has been used for him. There have grown up in this state a class of men whose chief business has been to go about whispering, whispering, whispering, and uttering that in private which they feared to utter in public. They have made charges and insinuations direct and indirect that have led people to believe that the authorities of the Church wanted this authorities of the or wanted that.

"But as one closely associated with the politics of this state, I think it only a matter of justice that I should say that the present presidency of the Mor-mon Church is freer from interference in politics than any preceding adminis.

"The only complaint if any complaint could be made, is that a condition has been tolerated which was created before their elevation to their present po-

"But this condition is like a ball rolling down hill. It needs no further force, Sometimes I think something should be done to stop it. In the city campaign it played into the hands of the American party, and made a weak collection of mal-contents a strong, vigorous party with a prospect of winning its way still further before it is stopped."

INTO AMERICAN RANKS. Mr. Moyle asked the privilege reading an announcement printed in the Descret News prior to the last city tion. He declared, as he said for benefit of those who were present who did not understand the real nounced questionable campaign meth-ods, was a factor in driving a number of voters into the ranks of the American party as a means of expressing their diclike of such tactics. Mr. Moyle asserted that he always had been a consistent Latter-day Saint, and could emphatically say that the authorities want to place the responsibility on things political. He asserted that PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

Gives His Views on Demand for Government Regulation of So-Called Private Industries.

WOULD KILL ALL ENTERPRISE.

French Hate Us-Cannot Fortell Japanese Competition-Subpoena On Him Was for Effect.

Cleveland, Oct. 4 .- The Plain Dealer today prints an interview with John D. Rockefeller, in which the latter comments on the demand for government regulation of so-called private industries and makes a strong plea for national development. Mr. Rockefeller is quoted in part as follows: "If we limit opportunity we will have put the brakes on our national development. Will the individual strive for success if he knows the hard won prize is to be snatched from his fingers, at the last by his government? We are still too young a nation to begin tear-ing down. We must build up, build up years to come. The very childre in the schools should be taught the need of our development.

Speaking of his recent visit to France Mr. Rockefeller said: "The French people hate us, and they will crush us if they can. They want our money. They want the patronage of our tourists. But they hate us. The never let slip an opportunity to tak quick advantage of our mistakes. This is a struggle for supremacy. We must win or they will, and there will be no quarter for us if they win. And now there is Japan, rising in the east to a power we cannot estimate. We cannot foretell what her competition will be we do not know the resources of the new territory which she controls, we cannot guess the commercial and industrial possibilities of the Japanese.

"At this critical stage we are giving the enemy ammunition to fire at us. He is quick to seize this advantage. Take the attack we made upon our owr packing business, for instance. I know none of the men in the beef trade, never dealt with them. Nor was I ever associated even indirectly with their business or themselves. But it is safe to assume from the proportions of their industry that they are sound business men. And it is safe to assume, too, men. And it is safe to assume, too that no business could have been built to such proportions on such false principles or by such unsound methods as they were charged with. I was in Europe when the attack was made at home upon these men and their indus-try and I could watch the effect of ?? there at close range. Those fellows abroad snatched at our own charges against our own business with the greatest glee. They used them prompt-ly as ammunition with which to attack America and everything American, especially American manufactured products and trade. I do not believe there was a line of American goods sold abroad that was not injured, or an American agent doing business abroad whose work was not hampered by this.

"We are too young a nation for this tearing down. Our position is by no means secure. It is like repeating A B C to say that we cannot consume our total production. We must sell abroad less business. Reducing the vol ume of our production means less work less wages less business transacted, a the very least. It is checking our de-velopment instead of furthering it. It it common sense then, to handicap our of rame of our business for the beneof our foreign rivals?
"Is it common sense to tell our young on whom the future must depend that they can hope for no other reward for carrying our commercial flag forward than frenzied attacks at home-and all the handleaps their own gov-ernment can pile upon their business to satisfy the violent prejudices enacted against them?"

Referring to a subpoens recently is-sued, requiring him to appear in court in an action against the Standard Oil company, Mr. Rockefeller said: "While I was in active business I used to always respond. But now I am not in a position to give these inquiring people the information they want. They know that as well as I do. If they really wanted information it is men they would summon, the want. They know that also. So I am reluctantly compelled to conclude that it is notoriety they want rather than information. I yield to no man in respect for law, but I am unable to see where the little notoriety an inquisitor might get from putting me on the stand would serve the ends of justice. So I avoid the ordeal, with its exhaus-tion, when I can, and preserve my strength and quiet."

NEW YORK LIFE AFFAIRS.

New York, Oct. 4 .- More charges of duplicity were made against the New York Life Insurance company yester day by the international policyholders' committee. George R. Scrugham,manager of the committee, declared that the company was spending at least $50,000 day, exclusive of postage, stationery and circulars, in an effort to elect the administration ticket. This statement, he said, was borne out by hun-dreds of letters which the committee has received from agents and policyholders who are interested in the elec-tion of trustees representing the pre-um payers. The letter of Mr. Buckner, vice president of the company," said Mr. Scrug-ham, "denying that the funds of the company were being used in any way to influence the coming election is inter-esting fiction, in view of the fact that thousands of agents and special representatives are at work doing that
