

MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS

HEAVY SALES OF SEVEN TROUGHS

There Has Been Too Much Exaggerated Talk About This Property.

HAD BAD EFFECT ON STOCK.

Iron Blossom Active and Closed in Good Form—Closing Quotations.

There was plenty of Seven Troughs Mining for sale today and all told, 17,400 shares of the stock changed hands at 29 and 29½ cents per share. The result of the late shipment was somewhat of a disappointment to those whom Manager Fredman assured about the time it was made, would be twice as good as it really was. However, there is no doubt that the ore was good enough for anybody, but the feeling exists that there has been too much exaggeration and manipulation to exactly fit right with the conservative investor. Iron Blossom advanced a cent a share. Beck Tunnel ran up to $1.15 and back to $1.12½. Mountain Lake closed on a sale at 67 cents; while there was an active market for South Swans, at 29 and 30 cents. The suit filed against Silver King Coalition has had a depressing effect on that stock, but there were buyers for it at $3.50. Federal Ely brought 10 cents; Cedar, 9 cents; East Crown Point, 2½ cents; Ohio Copper, $2.60 and $2.75 and Weimer Copper, 10 cents.

The closing quotations and sales were:
