EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, April 12, 1876.

TO THE BISHOPS AND PRE- SIDDING ELDERS IN ALL THE SETTLEMENTS OF THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS.

DEAR BRETHREN: It is our desire to commence again to assist the scattered poor of God's people in gathering to Zion. To aid in the accomplishment of this purpose we request the Bishops and Preaching Elders in the various settlements to give especial attention to the collection of the debts due to the Perpetual Emigration Fund from those who have been assisted in past years. In view of the near approach of the season of the year when our emigrating leaves the shores of Europe, we desire that our brethren give this matter their immediate attention, that we may be enabled to do as much good as possible in the present season.

It is the duty of all the Saints who have the means to assist in the gathering of these of their brethren and sisters who are still scattered in Babylon, and who would be pleased to have the local authorities solicit donations from those who are not in debt to the P. E. Fund, and who are able and willing to do their part for the gathering of scattered Israel.

Your Brethren,
BRIGHAM YOUNG,
DANIEL H. WELLS.

New Definitions—The New Era.

CHICAGO, April 3, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

Reading the columns devoted among us here that in a short time our conceptions of honor, virtue, integrity and honesty must of necessity undergo a great change. The definition of these terms given by our fathers will have to be totally rewritten by modern lexicographers. One of our prominent newspapers, in reviewing the editorial outcome of fraud, says, "Virtues take rank according to the pursuits and customs of the day and people; and the definitions, which are in a condition of immaturity, become intolerable at a high stage of civilization." Judging from this philosophical conclusion, we are to infer that the honesty and integrity of one hundred years ago are not adapted to our high state of civilization. If honesty is to be defined by a contemporary Webster, according to this he must say, "Get into office, cheat your fellow man, and make yourself generally talked about." This is the condition of our society at present, though every Monday morning some dozen orations of printed sermons appear, every day a million editorial articles are scattered broadcast among people's churches, with undefensible claims, promising Christian services every Sunday evening; evangelists are tramping through the land, and the people are expected to every year, and what does all this amount to? That the definitions of a few words are to be changed? This in truth is the matter at present. To be an honest man or a virtuous woman after the old regime is to be out of the world will get on as well with the new order of things, but it is a different matter.

In this city we are treated to an exhibition of corruption and rascality that in moral communities would cause a political and social revolution. The land is filled with a few words and a few words are to be changed? This in truth is the matter at present. To be an honest man or a virtuous woman after the old regime is to be out of the world will get on as well with the new order of things, but it is a different matter.
