EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, - July 14, 1888.

AN IDOL OF HAVANA.

AN INTERESTING STORY OF A BRAVE CUBAN WOMAN.

I am a Cuban and I love Cuba, yet the extreme heat of some months of each year is unbearable. You remember the entrance to Havana harbor is guarded by Morro Castle. The garrison numbers about 300. Three years ago last June the temperature rose beyond all previous records and the suffering was intense. The authorities were dreading the possible invasion of Cuba's deadliest scourge — yellow fever. News came to the city of the breaking out of the fever at the castle. Immediately steps were taken for the complete isolation of the fort. No boats were allowed to land from the infected locality and none was brave enough to venture the casting of their lot with the garrison. At sunset each day we watched the gates open and the funeral corteges wind their way down the hill to the little garrison cemetery; we listened for the volleys of salute, their number denoting how many brave fellows had succumbed that day. One evening as we apathetically gazed across the water a boat shot forth from the pier of Havana. It was loaded to the gunwales with provisions and medicines, and none in that crowd needed to be told its destination. Our eyes then sought the guider of the little craft, and, to our horror, saw the sole occupant was a woman. Then a universal shout of protest came—too late. She paused an instant from her rowing and signaled our murmurings with a wave of her small hand.

"I am alone," she said. "From all Havana not one regret will follow me. 'Tis better that I should go than a life upon whose tenure hangs the fate of others. Good-by."

We strained our eyes across the water; watched her strokes grow slower and slower, as the awful heat sapped her very life, and finally pause exhausted beneath Castle Morro's walls. Those faithful souls, brave and constant to the last, refused admission, though we could feel the hunger and longing expressed in their long-suffering eyes. At length faint resistance ceased—they eagerly came down to the welcome boat—fairly lifted their angel of mercy on waiting shoulders, and, followed by others bearing the medicine to which many poor fellows will owe their lives, are lost to our view within the castle walls.

The first effect we noted was in the reduction in the number of salutes over the soldiers' graves; then one blessed morning, when a breeze, all but cool, came straight from your northland the distress signal was hauled down, and again the royal flag of Spain floated proudly from the battlements, denoting all was well within. Instantly the bay was dotted with boats. We flocked to the castle and exchanged congratulations with the governor and badly decimated garrison. We learned that undoubtedly not a life would have been preserved had it not been for the brave maiden's timely succor. Now, there, gentlemen, is an incident of a land of heat."

"But what became of the girl?" anxiously inquired the Long Islander.

"She is the happy wife of the governor of the castle and is the idol of all Havana."—Nashville American.

Weather Predictions for 1888.

From now on until 1889 the weather will be somewhat changeable, various and eccentric. We may not all live to see it, but the weather will be there just the same.

Beware of the Fourth of July. Plant toy pistols in June, with light top dressing of rich guano and a copy of Walt. Whitman's poems. Grand piano legs should be covered clear into July to prevent chilblains.

To those owing back subscriptions the year 1888 will be one of exceptional severity. Orders for ready made prayers should be handed into headquarters of the Salvation Army before the Fourth of July to do any good.

Cyclones, heat and lightning and sciatica will prevail in the upper lake regions, accompanied by great political depression in Ohio.

The leg drama will be suppressed west of the Mississippi river, and Texas dogs will slit their ears trying to run under a barbed-wire fence.

Lower range of morality in all large cities except Chicago. Reason obvious. Lord Tennyson will write a new poem, accompanied by a morbid tendency to suicide in New York, and a fine of $10 to all who indulge in the pernicious practice.

Emancipation Proclamation first heard of in Philadelphia in June, and news of the death of Lincoln will reach there August 10, 1888. Big rise in the Mississippi river August 1, and $98,000,000 of the river and harbor appropriations swept away.

Talmage holds four aces and rakes the pot.

Republican National convention in Chicago nominates Private Dalzell and breaks up in a row.

President Cleveland goes fishing in July.

Charles A. Dana sits down on a cat.

Exploring expedition returns from the north pole, and sets out again after Mrs. Langtry.

The cat dies.

Great thaw in Senator Edmunds in August.

Winter will linger in the lap of spring until arrested by order of Anthony Comstock.

California Raisin Grape.

The raisin industry of California promises to become very important and fairly remunerative. The climate of the central and southern part of the state is most favorable for drying the fruit and there is the center of the enterprise. The important factors in raisin making are a suitable variety of grape and a dry climate—one not subject to dews, fogs or rains for weeks while the fruit is drying. Though the region of California mentioned is not exempt from fogs and rains, yet they are infrequent, and the necessity of protection to the drying fruit is not experienced often enough to make that feature of the work very burdensome.

The variety of grape from which the raisins are made is the Muscat of Alexandria, which is better known to most of our readers as the Malaga grape of the shops, which comes to us from Spain, packed in cork dust, in small casks. A white grape makes a raisin of better color than a red or dark one, though in Europe both red and black varieties are used to some extent. In Santa Clara county, Cal., where the temperature at the drying season is not so high nor the air so dry as more southern countries, the grape growers have resorted to the use of dryers or evaporators and with success, and the practice is extending; many tons of raisins were made there in that manner last year. The method is to expose to the sun for a few days and then remove to the evaporator and finish up with a slow heat.

Signed with a Stake

"Met with an accident?" asked a policeman of a farmer in the market yesterday with one of his eyes in deep mourning.

"Yes, sorter,"

"Fall out of a tree?"

"Not exactly."

"Stick of wood fly up?"

"Hardly. A couple of days ago two chaps came along in a buggy and wanted to sell me 100 feet of wire clothes line for seventy-five cents. I bought it and then they wanted me to sign a paper recommending its use. When I got ready to sign I found it was a note for $100."

"And then?"

"Didn't feel the ground tremble in town that day, did you?"

"I don't remember."

"It was probably too fur. I waded into 'em. They waded back. In the scrimmage I got this."

"And they got off scot free, I suppose?"

"Do you? Well, there's a town doctor riding out to see 'em every day, and my nasybur has drawed up wills for 'em. Mebbe an old farmer with a sledstake hain't of any account in a spring riot, and mebbe people nine miles away heard him whoop as he went in for blood! Want a bag o' taters this morning?"

"Darling," said he, tenderly, "I have made up my mind to ask you, to ask you—"

"Yes," she whispered breathlessly.

"To ask you to become my wife. I know, dearest, that it is bold, it is presumptuous for me to do so. You are so much superior to me. I am, I feel, unworthy of you, but—"

"Say no more, John. I am yours. You may be unworthy of me, but—"

"But what, dearest?"

"Half a loaf is better than no bread."

A Sleeping Man in Liverpool.

Dr. Caton has recently had a remarkable case of narcolepsy in the Liverpool Royal Infirmary. The patient was a man aged 37. He would fall asleep while standing, when selling articles in his shop, or even while walking in the streets. If he attempted to read or to sit in a chair he invariably fell asleep in a moment. During sleep a spasmodic closure of the glottis always took place, lasting nearly a minute. Violent contraction of the diaphragm and other respiratory muscles would come on, increasing in force, and the patient would get more and more cyanosed, until at length the violence of the inspiratory efforts partially roused him, and the spasm of the glottis yielded. Loud, noisy respiration would now come on and the cyanosis would disappear, to be followed by deep sleep and the same round of symptoms. This condition has existed for six years and constantly occurs by day and and by night. When awake the patient is perfectly intelligent and there is no evidence of organic disease. Dr. Caton supposed that the symptoms were due to the formation of some narcotic alkaloid in the alimentary canal or the blood, and this view was strikingly confirmed by the results of treatment, most benefit being derived from a limitation of diet and the administration of charcoal and naphthalin taree or four times daily. Under this treatment the drowsiness diminished considerably and the spasm of the glottis disappeared altogether; but when the treatment was suspended for some time the symptoms returned.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The Funny Man Proposes.

He proposes as seriously as a humorous man could—and she laughed. He looked blue. Then she smiled and said:

"That was a capital joke."

"What's a joke?" he asked in surprise.

"Your latest. Shall you have it printed?"

"That is no joke. I meant it."

"You did? Why, you have written so much in ridicule of love, courtship and marriage"—

"Well, er-er-yes, but"—

"I should never suit you. I write postscrips, stop before the mirror, am slow in dressing for church, admire a new hat, sometimes want a new dress and"—

"But my dear Angelina, I should never object"—

"You have shown that happiness ends with marriage, and I have a mother who would be a mother-in-law to you, and who would want to visit me; and"—

"Why, I"—

"And I have my animosities, and may look around in church, and you would find such a lot of things to write about."

"My precious, I would only write about other people then; the neighbors, the—"

"Those horrid Miss Smilletons?"

"For a fact."

"And the stuck up folks over the way?"

"Most certainly."

"Enough! I am yours."—Tid Bits.

THEY ALL GOT MARRIED.—By one of those unexpected turns of fortune which occur in Albany as often as anywhere, a man who but half a dozen years ago was a hod carrier has become comparatively wealthy. This change of financial circumstances has had the usual effect upon the ex-hod carrier's wife, who enjoys decorating her adipois form with what she supposes to be the latest styles. She has also, notwithstanding an utter disability to read, affected a fine literary taste, which she ostentatiously announces whenever possible. Calling upon a lady whom she had been trying to make herself acquainted with, she picked up a book from the table, and, innocent of any knowledge that it was a copy of the Bible, asked the loan of it for a little time, as "she had not the book in her library." The lady readily consented. After keeping it about a fortnight her visitor returned the volume with profuse thanks. "How did you like it?" was asked. "Very well, indeed; but I knew how it would turn out before I was half through. They got married after all."—Albany Journal.

EYE, EAR AND CATARRH.

At the Continental Hotel, Salt Lake City.

MADE HANDSOME.

Mr. B. H. Shettler, of Zion's Savings Bank, has a bright and intelligent little daughter nearly nine years old, but she has suffered the unfortunate disfigurement all her life of being badly cross-eyed. Susie M. Shettler's parents were very loath to trust any one to operate on her eyes. But they had faith enough to trust Dr. Prentice, and he has made the eyes perfectly straight, which was done in less than a minute, and Susie Shettler is now a handsome little girl, while her parents are well pleased.

SATISFIED AT LAST.

George A. Smith of Salt Lake City is a young man well and favorably known throughout Utah. He has been troubled with a bad case of cross-eyes all his life. Several years ago he had an operation performed by an oculist but it was not successful and did no good, consequently his faith was very much shaken about its ever being made straight. But at the Continental Hotel on Monday of this week Dr. Prentice made it straight in less than half a minute. Mr. Smith is delighted with the result and his many friends astonished. Mr. Smith said it caused him practically no pain.

FILES.

I have been afflicted with Hemorrhoids (or Bleeding Piles) for the past twenty-five years. For several weeks past the pain has been so intense that I was forced to quit work. I found no relief either day or night, and was frequently compelled to walk the floor all night long, as it was impossible for me to sleep. In this condition I called on Dr. Prentice at the Continental Hotel, who, after a painless operation of less than one minute, relieved me from all pain, and I have been able to sleep and rest well ever since.

I consider myself perfectly cured, and unsolicited offer this testimonial for the benefit of those who may be similarly afflicted. HENRY GREGORY, 149 N. West Temple Street.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Salt Lake City, June 21, 1888.

I was born in the pretty little village of Underwood, Devonshire, England, in the year 1822. I remained at home and worked on the farm until I was 19 years old. The recollection of those early days is very pleasant to me as life creeps on. After leaving the farm I spent fourteen years in the English navy. In 1872 I came to America, and six years ago I came to Salt Lake. The only blight to my life, especially my boyhood days, when life should have been the brightest, was a disfigurement that I was born with, namely, cross-eyes. I never will know just how much difference it has made in my life, but I know it made a great deal in my early days. I've been cross-eyed 66 years. On Monday of this week Dr. Prentice straightened my eyes in half a minute, without causing me any pain. Even at my age I am proud to have straight eyes for the balance of my days. I call at Dr. Prentice's office at the Continental Hotel, Salt Lake City, nearly every day, and have seen him do operations without pain that are almost miraculous. It is with pleasure I add my testimony. HENRY HONEY, 746 First South Street, East

NEW INVENTION.

In 1885 Dr. Prentice invented and copyrighted a mathematical system for fitting spectacles or glasses which is, undoubtedly, the most accurate of any now in use. It is used in England, Holland and France. Dr. Gardner, of Chicago, says it is the true principle. Dr. Holmes says he has found it very useful. Dr. Fitch, a trustee of the Illinois Eye and Ear Infirmary, relies on it almost exclusively. With this system the most delicate and sensitive eyes can be fitted with glasses so accurately that they are relieved of all strain, and thus they soon recover their lost strength. Spectacles fitted and ground to order in this manner do not change as ordinary glasses do, but they wear for years and preserve the sight. Dr. Prentice, Continental Hotel, Salt Lake City.

Send one cent P. O. stamp for Dr. Prentice's Paper on diseases of the head.
