LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE BLONDES.—Another good house greeted the second appearance of the favorite "Blondes" last evening, the performance going off with more clat even than on the preceding evening. "Luna" is decidedly the burlesque of the period, and in it all "ye heroes mythological" acted, sang and danced superbly. Any attempt to individualize the acting would be impossible in a piece of the character of "Luna" where all the parts are equally good.

To-night the great burlesque of the "40 Thieves" will be produced for this occasion only. This is one of the best burlesques in their repertoire and will give the company ample scope for the display of their specialties. Rose Massey appears as the brassy Abdalla the Captain of the Thieves, Miss Weatherly as Morgiana, Miss Ada Harland and Ganeem, while the comedians of the troupe, Harry Beckstead and Ketchum, appear as Hasee Aree and Ali Baba. Fine singing and dancing, fun and frolic, may be expected. We notice that the popular Nursery Rhymes will also be repeated.

The engagement of the Blondes is limited to six nights only, and all should avail themselves of the opportunity to witness the performances of the best and most successful troupe that has ever graced the boards of our theatre.

THE COMING EMIGRANTS.—We learn from a communication from Elder W. C. Staines, that the steamship Manhattan, which sailed from Liverpool on the 13th instant, had 209 adult passengers of the Saints on board and 17 returning missionaries, probably in all about 226 souls. The steamship Minnesota sailed for the same port on the 20th inst., with about 300 adults from the Scandinavian mission. Elder Jesse N. Smith, late president of that mission accompanies them.

DIED, in the 14th Ward, July 23rd, of tetanus, Wendel L., infant son of Martin and Mary Ann Lenz.

Also, in this city, July 20th, of lung fever, Isabella, wife of Joseph Graham, aged 26 years.

Deceased was the daughter of Charles and Emma Bartel, late of Taunton, Somersetshire, England.

MIL. Star, please copy.

THE VERDICT.—The following is a copy of the Jury in the case of the late Mr. Geo. Cronyn:

"Territory of Utah,
Salt Lake County,
July 26th, 1870.

We, the Jury, having been duly empaneled and sworn to inquire into the cause of the death of Mr. George Cronyn, who was found dead on Saturday, the 23rd inst., at Mr. Fred Perrie's, 7th Ward, Salt Lake City, at about half past one o'clock p.m., do, upon our oaths, say: From the evidence before us, in our opinion, the deceased came to his death from taking an overdose of the 'Sulphate of Morphine.'

E. L. T. HARRISON,
C. H. FORCE,
D. STUART.

H. S. BEATIE,
Coroner, Salt Lake County."

THE 24TH IN SANFETE.—The following dispatches have been received by Deseret telegraph line:

[SPECIAL TO DESERET NEWS.]

Yesterday the 24th was celebrated with spirit and success in this place, commencing with firing of cannon, and the raising of the stars and stripes to the breeze, followed by games in which an effigy of Cullum did his part in the amusement of the day. Meeting in the afternoon, an oration by Bro. H. Sanderson, who gave an interesting account of the journey and incidents of the Mormon Battalion, followed by songs, recitations, toasts, &c. The evening wound up with a big dance. A number of Indians on their way to see President Hyde, were present and took part in the rejoicings.

"MAINT. 26th.—Our celebration of the 24th was a splendid success; the oldest inhabitant pronounces it without a parallel. Committee of arrangements, A. J. Moffitt, Geo. Peacock, W. S. Snow, Franklin Spencer, R. F. Kenner, H. Jensen, Orators, W. T. Ried and Franklin Spencer."
