FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Meeting of the High Council this evening.

The excellent singing of the Tabernacle choir affords much delight to all who hear it.

The proclamation of the Governor to open the Third District Court on Monday has not yet been published.

A girl pen and case in a steel chest were lost this morning. The finder will please leave it at this office for the owner.

The American navy has 25 command ships, but on account of the war of ships 24 of them are ordered to lodge at summer-resort places.

Mr. S. H. Hays, of Sears & Liddle, is just recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia. He is unable to get about with the least fatigue.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Changes of Registrars.—Yesterday the Commission made the following changes of appointments for county registrars: Millard, Alvina; Johnson in place of John Kelly; Kane, John Stewart in place of John Steele; Morgan, Anthony; and instead of L. P. Edholm.

A Thieving Chinaman.—The woman and chain found on the person of Ling Wong, arrested on a charge of stealing a fifty dollar clock and seven dollars from Mr. S. (ohn), has been claimed by a lady stopping at the White House. This Chinaman appears to be considerably of a thief.

Mercantile Announcement.—Messrs. Needham & Springer announce in a new advertisement that they conduct the cheapest house in town. They carry a full and varied stock of staple and fancy groceries, dry goods and notions, hats, caps, boots and shoes. Their establishment is in the Hooper and Edinburg Block.

Denver & Rio Grande.—C. A. Smith, who has a contract on the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railway, states that he is working just beyond the present terminus of the road on Price River. He says the rails are laid to a point about 115 miles from Salt Lake City or about 100 miles from Green River, and that track is being laid at the rate of about three miles a week.

Personal.—We received a call today from James H. Mills, of Deer Lodge, Montana. Until a few months ago, when his term of office expired, he was Secretary of the Territory. He is a genial gentleman, as one needs desire to meet. Our relations with him have been of the most pleasant character. He left for home this afternoon. Our god wishes go with him.

Now Complete.—Mr. G. W. Davis has enlarged his store. His stock of general and fancy dry goods—having added that department to his grocery business—is now full and complete, and suited to the season. He is deservedly popular as a grocer, always keeping the best goods, and he is determined to honestly earn a similar reputation in his "new department." Read his advertisement.

Going to England.—Elder George C. Lambert, manager of the Junior Instructor publishing office, is called to take a mission to Great Britain. He expects to leave for that part of the world on the 17th of October. He is busily engaged arranging his business affairs preparatory to his departure. It will greatly facilitate his arrangements if persons indebted for subscriptions to the Instructor will come forward and settle up.

Accident at Silver Bow.—W. H. Allen of Helena, on his return last evening from the East, met with a very painful accident at Silver Bow. He stepped off the train for the purpose of going to the stage office and fell three or four feet from the platform, sustaining severe bruises on the left arm and leg, and strain on his back. It is a very unfortunate accident. Mr. Allen was not at all injured, having been under treatment of a physician for several months, and was by no means strong.—Butte Miner.

Fatal Accident in Rich County.—We learn from Brother Byron H. Alfred, of Garden City, Rich Co., of a lamentable and fatal accident that occurred near that place last Monday, September 4th. As Medwin N. Alfred, of Garden City, and family were on their way home from Logan, while traveling through the canyon the wagon wheel struck a stump. A little girl—Edith M. Alfred, was thrown out of the vehicle. A wheel passed over her body causing such fearful internal injuries that death ensued at 4:30 a. m., the following day, Tuesday. The deceased was aged four years, eight months and twenty-four days.

Ogden Iron.—One of our city foundries obtained one ton of the pig iron recently run out at the Ogden works, and after having converted it into various small castings, the manager states that it works nicely and evenly, and is a more desirable iron for general consumption than the Scotch pig, ordinarily used in this locality. It is a splendid article for car wheels and all castings requiring strength and toughness. In fact, if it is produced in sufficient quantities to supply the local demand for pig iron, it will enable all ordinary castings to be made about one-third lighter than at present made of the Scotch iron, which is softer. The Ogden iron is very similar to the iron made in Southern Utah some years ago, and resembles the charcoal iron generally, and though not quite of an even character now, future experience will, doubtless, enable it to be produced of a more uniform nature. Its toughness, and tensile strength is shown by the fact that the ordinary Scotch pig can be easily broken up with a twenty-pound sledge, whereas the Ogden pig required numerous blows to fracture it.

The Asylum Story.—Under the heading "An Asylum Story," we find the following in the Albuquerque Journal:

"A telegraphic dispatch in the Journal yesterday morning, referring to the management of the insane asylum at Salt Lake City, gave an account of the management of affairs there which would show that institution to be in every deplorable condition. But we are assured by a gentleman of this place, who is intimately acquainted in Salt Lake, that the article is false in nearly every particular, and does gross injustice to a very worthy and deserving institution. Our informant says he is perfectly familiar with all cases cited in the article, and that nothing could be further from the truth than the statement of alleged cruelties in connection with these circumstances. The asylum is a private institution, and is in charge of a kindhearted, humane gentleman, who continues to devote his time in a disinterested manner, to the interest of the unfortunate under his charge.

It is inexcusable in a public journal to permit its hostility to the Mormon church to lead it to make attacks of this character upon an institution which is conducted in the interests of the most unfortunate class of society, but the Salt Lake paper, from which the article is taken, is so bitterly partisan that we should have no reason to be surprised at anything appearing in its columns. Whenever it touches anything that bears upon the Mormons, its statements are to be taken with several grains of allowance."

Dr. S. B. Young has received a letter from an old college classmate, Dr. J. H. James, assistant physician in the Hospital for the Insane at St. Peter, Minnesota, from which we are enabled to present the following:

"I send you a copy this morning of the Journal (yesterday). From my knowledge of you in the two years of college life we spent together I cannot believe that anything under your control could be as bad as pictured, and for newspaper articles upon the subject of insane asylums I have very little respect, as they exaggerate and falsify to such an extent as to be libelous in the extreme. We have experienced it in its most bitter attitude and know how to sympathize. While I have no sympathy with 'Mormonism' or polygamy, I have great respect for you and your profession, and say frankly that I do not believe any portion of this article to be true. I did not know that you were connected with any institution of this kind until I saw your name yesterday in connection with this article. I have been here since October, 1876, and spent 15 months previous on Blackwelder Island. I have been investigated twice by the legislature since I became assistant here and have been most liberally treated by the press. I send you one of our latest reports, and this will find you well, prosperous and progressing in your profession."

A Compliment to the Choir.—The following in reference to the Tabernacle Choir of this city, we clip from a recent number of a monthly musical journal called the Folio, published in Boston. The item is part of the correspondence of H. S. Perkins, to the Folio, describing his recent trip through the West, which we mentioned when he visited this city in April last. Coming from a gentleman of such well known musical ability, and uncolored, the notice is very satisfactory, and another pleasing evidence of the ability of the choir:

"For ensemble in choir singing by a chorus, I must accord the palm to the Tabernacle Choir in Salt Lake City, now under the direction of Mr. Beesley, and until recently directed by Mr. Carless. This choir numbered some seventy voices when I recently heard it, accompanied by the organ under the able manipulations of Mr. Joseph J. Daynes. The four parts were well balanced, the voices were of a fresh, pleasing quality, and good discipline was evident. Each of the twenty-one Wards in the city has its choir, and from these singers are generally selected. It is regarded as a privilege to be thus honored with a 'come up higher,' even to the highest seat in the synagogue among the singers.

Salt Lake City, can, I think, boast of as much native talent and as much cultivation (musical) as any western city of its size—unless, peradventure, I may except Denver. The next choir of marked excellence to which I have listened during my visit to the Pacific Coast, was that of the First Congregational Church of San Francisco."

A Distressing Experience.—The Benton Record of the first has a thrilling account of a cowboy's adventure. Watts is in the employ of the Colorado and Montana Cattle Company, and left their camp, half a mile from Fort Conrad, on the morning of the 21st ult., to go to the crossing of Sun River. He had one riding horse and one pack horse, also one loose horse. The first night he made camp about four miles beyond the Muddy, and about daylight the next morning, while packing up, he was severely kicked by the pack horse. The horses all got away, taking his bedding, provisions, etc. He was completely disabled from traveling and alone. In this condition he lay for three days and nights on the open prairie, without food or water. At last an Indian came along on a horse, and after much persuasion the Indian was induced to come to him. Watts tried to get the Indian to take him back to camp, which the Indian refused to do. Watts then endeavored to have the Indian take him into the Willow Hounds, which he likewise refused to do. As a last resort Watts decided to kill the Indian on the Indian, disarmed him, and then compelled the Indian to let him get on his animal. Watts got on behind the Indian, and thus mounted, and having the drop on the native, he managed to get into Saul Abbot's place, at the Willow Hounds, from which place he was brought back to camp by Mr. Sears, who has charge of the company's cattle. Watts, though pretty badly hurt is now recovering, and will probably be all right in a few days.

Music for the Million.—Mr. D. O. Calder announces that he has purchased a large quantity of European manufactured musical instruments of various kinds, and having bought them in a fallen market, he is enabled to sell wholesale and retail, at prices never before presented. He has also procured a large stock of instruments of American make, which he will sell at rates that have not been heretofore surpassed for cheapness.

Mr. Calder has also something to say about the unexcelled Mason and Hamlin and other organs; also pianos of the best and medium makers, the prices of which he has recently reduced. He has an endless variety of song books, sheet music, etc., the prices of which he enumerates. An invitation is given to all to call at his establishment, 72 East Temple Street, and inspect the stock. See the communication.

A Bad Bridge.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 5th, 1882.

Editor Deseret News:

The bridge on the road leading to Tooele County, at Millstone Point, 12 miles west of this city, is all broken up, at least the planks, and is not safe for wagons to pass over, and there is no way to go around it. Whose duty is it to fix it and pay damages?

F. KESLER.

An Insane Individual.—This morning Marshal Burt received a dispatch from Stockton, Cal., stating that a woman was on her way to this city who was insane, and requesting that she be detained until parties arrived who would take charge of her. She came down on the train yesterday, and the officers have been searching for her to-day.

FROM "THE TIMES." Editors Times:—The veterinary department in your valuable paper is always read by me with great interest and I was the information received from it a hundred fold more than the small amount paid for the paper. One year ago you published a letter from Dr. John Bates, relating the wonderful success he had had in curing sprains and sprains with Kendall's Spavin Cure, and his allusion to using it now in his practice for several human ailments on account of the success he has always had with it. The above statement from so prominent a Physician gave me great faith in its efficacy, and as I had been afflicted for years with rheumatism and hip-joint lameness so bad that I could hardly walk at times, I procured a bottle and as it has completely cured me I wish to proclaim it to all the world as the most wonderful discovery ever made for the benefit of afflicted men as well as for the poor horse, for which it was first used. As this remedy must be of inestimable value to the world, I write this letter to express my thankfulness to you for ever mentioning it in your columns and to ask another favor in behalf of my fellow men who are afflicted in body, that you continue to make known to the world, the great value of Kendall's Spavin Cure for both man and as well as beast.

Respectfully yours,

ARNOLD PARKER. Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 1st, 1881. d&w.

PARLOR MATCHES are now made so that they have many advantages over the old brimstone matches, and are the only matches used among the Eastern consumers. They give a light and are ready for use immediately, and do not have the offensive smell that the common matches have, and in a very short time we may look for a change here.

We go to the Globe Factory for your Confectionery and CAKES, where they are to be had pure and wholesome.

GRANTEE, Aug. 30th, 1882.

To Dr. M. D. Cook:

Dear Sir:—It is with much pleasure that I write to you, knowing it is my duty to do so, after the kind service you have rendered to my wife and children, and I can say that there is not one in twenty who would have had the patience to watch over them night and day as you did, until you saw a change for the better. I do believe if I had called you in time my other children would have been here now, and if I can do you any good I certainly shall do so in recommending you to my friends. If you feel disposed to make use of this you can do so. Accept of my best wishes.

Yours truly,

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS.—

SALT LAKE CITY, July 22nd, 1882.

I have seen buildings painted with M. S. Simmons & Co.'s Paint, and I cheerfully recommend the same for iron, wood, and shipping roofs. I consider it a first-class preservative for all kinds of wood work, and it is especially adapted for railroad tanks and buildings, also for barns and sheds, as it is both fire and water proof, besides being economical to use.

B. M. SHUPP, Arch.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, August 23rd, 1882.

This is to certify that I am using M. S. Simmons & Co.'s Paint, and I consider it a good paint, a better paint than I have been using heretofore, as I believe it to be more lasting.

DAVID JAMES.

SALT LAKE CITY, August 24th, 1882.

I having used Simmons & Co.'s Roof Paint, do certify that it is all they claim it to be.

M. S. SIMMONS & CO.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 29th, 1882.

This is to certify that we had Messrs. Simmons & Co. repoint and paint our stables at the race track, in this city, which leaked badly. A few hours after the roof was painted there came a very hard rain storm, and we are pleased to say our roof did not leak a drop. We cheerfully recommend this paint as being both fire and water proof, and as a preserver of roofs it seems to us to be the very thing needed in this section of the country.

E. J. TRAVIS, J. T. GILMER.

CALIFORNIA BREWERY, SALT LAKE CITY, June 18th, 1882.

This is to certify that I have used M. S. Simmons & Co.'s Wood and Fire Proof Paint, and I think it not only a good paint, but that it is economy to use it, as it is lasting.

HENRY WAGENER.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 11th, 1882.

This is to certify that I have had my roof painted with Simmons & Co.'s Paint, and I think it to be a good paint, and I believe it to be more lasting than any other paint in use in Utah.

ANDREW GEBHARDT.

UTAH CENTRAL RAILWAY, SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 30th, 1882.

We are using M. S. Simmons & Co.'s Paint on the Utah Central Railway, and consider it a good paint. We are painting our wind mills and water tanks to preserve the wood and iron. We also consider it a good paint for tin and iron roofs.

RAML. H. HILL, P. A.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 21st, 1882.

We had M. S. Simmons & Co. to paint a part of the Wasatch Building, and believe their paint to be a good one.
